NOTICE.
ALTHOUGH we have always done what is called a "cash business," yet for several years we have allowed a certain amount of latitude in the matter, some of our most valued customers having fallen into the habit of settling monthly, instead of paying at the time.
This, however, we find leads to much more trouble than we intended, as it is often impossible to deny a short credit to doubtful customers who are in the habit of allowing it to good ones.
Even a short credit inevitably leads to loss, and these losses have to be paid for, in at least, by those who do pay honestly and promptly. We have long felt this to be fair, and for our own sake, and the sake of our customers, we have resolved to entirely abandon it.
Accordingly, from the 1st of March onwards we shall not, under any circumstances, allow goods on credit, and we trust that our customers will not give us the painful necessity of finuing them.

TO THE LADIES

In taking this stand we do so with the full conviction that it will be to the benefit of the buyer and seller, as while on the one hand we shall be saved much loss of money, on the other we shall be able to sell at lower prices, certain of getting our money full.

We are year by year purchasing to better advantage, and to-day the bulk of our stock is bought as cheaply as that of the wholesale houses of Toronto and Montreal, they enable us to give our customers the very best val for their money.

THE NEW CORSET

Meets with Universal Approval and Adoption.

PERFECT ADJUSTABLE FIT.

THE MOST ATTRACTIVE AND LASTING CORSET EVER DESIGNED.

THIS new and improved Corset is adjusted by a semi-circular or Elliptical Lacing over the hips, thus avoiding the disagreeable and sometimes painful side-stiffening which is found in the Corsets now in use. The facility with which it adjusts itself to forms of different development and size, and the great comfort and ease with which it may be worn, enables the figure to be displayed to much greater advantage, and cannot but prove a valuable acquisition to the most perfect toilet.

The improved system of lacing employed in the Semi-circular Adjustable Hip Corset, prevents the wear and tear to which other kinds are so liable; and as the wearing strains are equalized and distributed over the entire Corset, they will be found to outlast three of the ordinary style of Corsets in present use.

The improved style of this new and improved style of Corset under the observation of the ladies, to at once win their immediate endorsement and approval, and many points of recognition cannot fail to arrest instant recognition and adoption. ASK TO SEE THEM.

Daily Intelligence.

Correspondence.

Whilst correspondents will be accorded space for the expression of their ideas on topics of public interest, it must be in all cases understood that the views so expressed are simply those of the correspondents themselves.

For the Intelligence, The Staghorns of the Hematite Bed.

An item of news in your issue of the 27th ult. says: "A curious discovery has been made in the Wallbridge hematite iron quarry of the 'Kane' bed, namely, that of a deer's horn at a depth of from 12 to 15 feet below the surface, and the miners are asking themselves how these horns came there."

This is a curious discovery indeed! When we consider that in a paper which I had the honor of reading before the Royal Geological Society, as far back as April, 1869, (see Quarterly Journal of the Geological Society for August 1869, page 270), I alluded to this subject in the following words:—"As traces of ancient workings have been found in this deposit (Kane bed), it is probable that the Indians formerly visited the locality for the sake of obtaining the red ochreous substance for use as war paint. In an excavation of the 'Kane' bed, I have obtained bone needles and other objects of human workmanship [which were exhibited], whilst several shells and stag antlers, that were also found in this excavation, have been transmitted to Dr. Dawson, of Montreal."

Perhaps the foregoing will be a sufficient explanation of the "curious recent discovery" of the deer's horns in the hematite bed—I may add, for further information on the point, that I have lately taken from the same localities, rib bones, remains of the Indian's rapids, charcoal, &c., all showing that the mine has not been in vain, and that in fact worked by the Indians for ochreous matter also is further evidenced, by the fact that the miners descend in search of war paint they scooped out as far as they could reach from underneath the overlying strata, the softer material they found, and used it for painting.

That the mine had long been abandoned is clear from the circumstance that when the timber was cut or clearance made upon this locality, trees as old as any in the surrounding forests were found growing upon it.

Mr. D. L. Cummins, now actively engaged in mining operations in Madoc, assures me that he filled maple trees found standing upon the Indian mine measuring 2 to 3 feet in diameter, more than 90 years past. It is more than 90 years past.

The following is the extract referred to above:

It has long been known that extensive deposits of valuable iron ore occur in the Laurentian rocks of the North Riding of Hastings. These ore rarely, if ever, occur in true veins, but are usually found in bedded masses, more or less distinctly interfingered with the adjacent rocks, and in many cases appearing at the junction of the gneiss with crystalline limestone. The ore deposits in the townships of Mt. Loos, Marmora, and Belmont in a general cast and west direction, thus following the line of the common trend of the strata. The iron found in the form of hematite ore, and sometimes in that of magnetite.

As many of these beds of magnetite iron ore have been already described in the Reports of the Geological Survey of Canada, it is needless to give any detailed notice of them in the present paper. Such a notice would be a repetition of what has been said in the Reports of the Geological Survey, and would be a waste of space.

The ore of Crow Lake, situated on the eighth lot of the first concession of Belmont, (this is the ore which was formerly smelted at the Marmora Iron Works. Above the surface of the ground, the bed exhibits a width of about 500 feet; but recent excavations at the base show that it attains a still greater development below.

The "Seymour ore bed" on the eleventh lot of the fifth range of Madoc, has also been described. This ore is a fine quality of hematite, and is well adapted to supply the Seymour furnace at Madoc.

As magnetite iron-ore is very widely distributed through the county, it would be difficult to note its local places of occurrence, but I may perhaps call attention to a new locality in Madoc, on the nineteenth lot of the fifth range of Madoc, where a large deposit of magnetite iron-ore, also hematite ore, was found on lot nine of the sixth range of Madoc.

Before dismissing the subject of magnetite iron-ore, it may be mentioned that the deposits of this mineral attain an extraordinary development in some cases, remarkable physical features of the country. Indeed the supply of ore which might be obtained by working these veins would be practically inexhaustible. Smelted with wood-charcoal, or with peat, which must be

 NEW OFFICE.—The Dominion Telegraph Company have opened a new office at Delaware, Ontario.
 PERSONAL.—We learn that R. J. Galling, Esq., the inventor of the "Galling gun" and brother of our esteemed townsman, W. J. Galling, was recently elected an Honorary member of the Reform Club, of London, England.

THE "CITY OF BELLEVILLE."

This steamer, which is now lying at Kingston, has recently been furnished with a new wheel, and supplied with the usual repairs necessary for a passenger steamer. She will ply upon the Georgian Bay during the approaching season, and when navigation permits will proceed to her destination.

THE "WINNERS TIMES."

This journal, which suspended publication during the early part of last month, has been re-established as a daily morning newspaper by Mr. Amos Howe, formerly of Ottawa, and bids fair to achieve success. The Times is a Conservative in politics, is ably edited, and will do much to sustain the good cause in the flourishing city of Winnipeg, the Prairie Province and the North-west generally.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

This evening Mr. McDowell's company will present for the first time in this city "H. M. S. Parliament," an extravaganza, written by an ex-Bombardier. It abounds with political hints which are said to touch party and affords an almost infinite fund for amusement, to all who witness it, and interspersed merriment, with a great deal of practical hilarious sense and amusing incongruities.

MR. HANMOND IN MONTREAL.

The witness stated that Mr. Hammond began his revival work very successfully in Montreal on Saturday night, and held other largely attended meetings on Sunday. Several letters were read from parties in Belleville giving highly encouraging accounts of the work here, and urging the Protestant ministers to aid in forwarding it in Montreal.

REMARKS.—The recent effort of the ice king has once again gladdened the hearts of curlers as well of those skatorially inclined, as the ice on the rinks has hardened and become fit for the practice of the exercise in each department of sport. A continuation of such weather will afford an opportunity for the practice of the physical culture of such as are concerned, and doubtless it will be improved by all who delight in either curling or skating.

TEA MEETING.—A tea meeting in connection with the new M. E. Church, 2nd con. Thurlow, was held on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 25th, for the purpose of raising funds for the erection of a shed. Notwithstanding the bad roads and the unfavorable state of the weather, the church was comfortably filled. An excellent tea was provided by the ladies, after partaking of which the chair was ably occupied by S. R. Burdett, Esq., L. L. D., of Belleville. Then followed speeches by several local gentlemen, and a few recitations. The proceedings were enlivened with choice music by the Bethel choir of 24th con. Thurlow. Miss Clara Wells presiding at the organ. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $35.

IT REMOVES WRINKLES AND SOFTENS THE SKIN.

The regular use of MURPHY & LAMAR'S FORT DA WATER at the face tends to prevent and remove wrinkles, the softness of the skin produced by it taking away the natural inclination of the cuticle to form ridges and furrows.

DEATH.—Robert Ferguson, who cut his throat this morning, died this afternoon. Dr. Wilson considered it unnecessary to hold an inquest.

CHURCHES.—The Synopses of Rev. M. McLeod's sermon, preached in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday, has been crowded out but will appear to-morrow.

BAILED STRAW.—A brisk demand has sprung up this season for bailed straw for shipment to the States. All the straw offered is being purchased for shipment.

PERSONAL.—We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Hamilton, Collector of Inland Revenue, has been confined to his house for the past week from an attack of inflammation of the kidneys. His early recovery is hoped for by his many friends.

INLAND REVENUE.—The returns for the month of February present the following exhibit: Spirits, $1,224.87; malt, $239.13; tobacco, $1,190.70. Total, $2,654.70. For the corresponding period of 1879, $9,650.94; a decrease for 1880 of $6,996.24.

THE ICE CHOK.—Fears are being entertained that the ice crops will be very insufficient in many parts of Canada and the United States. A telegram was received to-day asking could schooners be loaded with ice for Rochester.

THE FERRY.—Mr. Jellott has a gang of painters, carpenters and an engineer, busily engaged fitting up his ferry so as to be ready in the event of the ice going out prospect, of which their appears to be every prospect.

OPEN.—Kingston harbor is now open all the ice having been destroyed by the gale on Sunday. Steamers were running about on Monday and the ferries prepared to run. This is the earliest destruction of the ice bridge that has occurred for many years.

FIRE.—Shortly after three o'clock this afternoon the firemen were called out to quench a fire on William Street, north of Hotel Street, occupied by John Daw. As the building was a frame structure it presented itself at the time of writing, a ready element for the flames.

ATHLETIC AND GYMNASIUM.—As will be seen by advertisement, the athletic and gymnastic entertainment by the pupils of the Mechanics' Institute Gymnasium, assisted by Mr. E. W. Johnston their able instructor, will be given in the Opera House on Friday night. This exhibition of local skill, which is under the patronage of the lady members of the Institute, ought to attract a large audience. The programme is contained in the advertisement and the plan is now open at the Library of the Institute.

THE CARNIVAL.—This event, which took place last night in the Pinnacle Street rink, was not a financial success. The number of skaters in costume was limited, whilst the attendance of spectators was very small. There was a good sheet of ice; the interior of the rink was profusely bedecked with evergreens and lighted with many colored Chinese lanterns; the Oddfellows' Band presented several musical offerings with their accustomed precision and taste, but these—all these—the people evidently did not care to see and for that reason the venture was unprofitable.

Mrs. SCOTT-SIDDONS.—The following tribute paid to Mrs. Scott-Siddons, by the New York Telegram, will be joined in by the many admirers in this city of her genius:—"In connection with Mrs. Scott-Siddons' appearance here this evening, it must be considered that this is her last tour of America, and the stage and reading career must soon bid farewell to one of the most brilliantly beautiful and talented women by whom a public profession or private life was ever adorned. Few artists have endeared themselves to the American public as has Mary Scott-Siddons. Unlike many of her countrywomen, who came hither to display physical charms, and who were found to be utterly blank as to brains, Mrs. Siddons' beauty was found to be the exquisite casket enclosing rare gems of genius. Her pure face, immobile as marble in repose, was found to be a marvel of expressiveness in interpreting thought, and every motion of the lithic form was full of suggestion in giving to a character dramatic life. Other beauties we have had by the dozen, women with faultless forms, fine faces and all the concomitants of feminine loveliness; but not one of them has approached Mrs. Siddons in intellectuality. Their beauty tainted too much of the physical and too little of the mental. They were of the earth, earthy—almost gross. They may have been supplied in motion, graceful of gesture and possessed of voices full of melody, but they lacked soul, genius, fire—whatever quality that may be called, which, being added to beauty, surpasses it and makes the physical attractiveness the inferior and the aesthetic the superior. Mrs. Siddons was, and is, not only a beautiful woman, but a great actress, and one whose place on the stage it will be very difficult to fill." The house will doubtless be crowded on her appearance here on Thursday evening next.

Revival Services.

MONDAY EVENING.

There was again a large attendance at the services in the Bridge Street Church last night and unabated interest continues to be manifested in the proceedings. After the regular services, two enquiry meetings were held and a large number of conversions were made.

TUESDAY MORNING.

This morning's services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Willoughby and in the opening consisted of a series of prayers and praise. Subsequently several conversions related their experience and uttered expressions of gratitude to God for the mercies extended to them by Him. Mr. Willoughby read chapter from the New Testament and the meeting afterwards closed with the usual exercises.

FOR MANITOBA.—Messrs. Hambley and McTaggart shipped to-day per G. T. R. one car load, consisting of two wagons, four sleighs and a horse and harness. This car will be attached to the special train which passes here to-night at 9.30.

Customs Returns.

Goods entered for consumption during the month of February, 1880 and 1879:

Imports.	Value.	Duty.
Feb. 1880.....	$ 8,237	$2,177.45
Feb. 1879.....	33,329	9,501.00
Decrease.....	$25,092	$7,323.55
Exports.	Value.	Duty.
Feb. 1880.....	$14,822	$1,822.00
Feb. 1879.....	8,717	8,717.00
Increase.....	$ 6,105

The decrease in imports is owing to the rush on warehouses and early importations during the month of February, 1879, in anticipation of a change in the tariff. The collections for February, 1880, are greater than for the same month of 1878.

Police Court.

(Before A. Diamond, P. M.)

MONDAY, March 1st, 1880.

AFTERNOON SITTING.

ILLEGAL FISHING.

The oft adjourned case of George and William Macdonald, who charged Thomas Macdonald with fishing contrary to statute—the alleged offence being the blocking by nets of Zwick's and Bell's Creeks in the Township of Thurlow, was again up for hearing.

Several witnesses were examined, after which a proposition from the prosecutors' counsel to amend the information was laid over until Wednesday.

FALSE PRETENCES.

Henry Howard was charged with having on the 20th ult. in this city obtained one dinner set and other goods from F. H. Ross & Co. by false pretences.

Mr. W. J. Diamond appeared for the prosecution and Mr. G. D. Dickson for the defendant.

Mr. F. H. Ross affirmed that the accused came to his store on the 20th of February, and on the strength of a representation made by him that he was employed by the Ontario Government as Inspector of Mines he procured a quantity of goods on credit. Mr. Ross, on learning that Howard's statements were false—which information was obtained by telegram from the Hon. C. E. Fraser—went with the Chief and got his goods, which were given up by the defendant's wife. The value of the goods obtained from Mr. Ross was $41.75.

William Edwards, Secretary of the Public Works Department at Toronto, deposed that his endeavors to ascertain if Howard was in the employ of the Ontario Government, developed the fact that he was not; neither was there such an office as Inspector of Mines.

Chief McKinnon gave evidence to the effect that he saw the prisoner near his house on the 21st ult., but did not recognize him then. On his re-examination with Mrs. Howard she consented to give up the goods procured from Mr. Ross and others. William Cassidy, of Campbellford, swore that he first knew the prisoner three years ago under the name of Charles E. Stewart; defendant was then peddling patent medicines and procured some goods from a witness, which he had to attach to get his pay.

George Davis testified that he first became acquainted with the defendant five months ago in Peterborough under the name of Proctor; his father's name is Newbold; the accused left there three weeks ago to peddle medicines. The defendant hired two horses and rigs from him (the witness) and sent one horse and harness back from Foxboro; witness found the other horse.

James Byrne gave evidence that the accused's name was Newbold, but that he also went by the name of Proctor. The further hearing of the case was adjourned until to-morrow.

TUESDAY, 2nd March, 1880.

FRAUD.

Henry Howard appeared on remand charged with obtaining a variety of goods from Thomas Ritchie to the extent of $232. Evidence was adduced to the effect that the accused bought the goods and that he made representations similar to those made to Mr. Ross with the exception that he was in the employ of the Dominion Government instead of the Ottawa Government.

At the close of the evidence His Worship committed the prisoner for trial at the next court of competent criminal jurisdiction.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

TEHRAN, March 2.—The idea of the Persian expedition to Afghanistan, Seistan and eventually to Herat has been abandoned on account of political difficulties likely to result. The construction of the Russian Telegraph Line from Tikhikar to Chai has been suspended.

BALTIMORE, March 2.—Sergeant General Vaila Wood U. S. died, aged 71.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Arrived, the Italy from London.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 2.—Deceased granting pardons to prisoners, remitting arrears in taxes owing by the Russian population, and awarding orders of distinction, have been published. All the members of the Empire including Gortschakoff will proceed this morning to the Winter Palace and present a congratulatory address to the Emperor. An official messenger publishes a letter from Emperor William congratulated by his majesty congratulating the Czar in terms of warm and earnest friendship on the 25th anniversary of his accession, and on his recent escape from injury. Emperor William expresses gratification that the friendship which united their fathers has been maintained, and his confidence that it will continue unchanged to the end of his life. The visit was regarded as the day being observed as a general holiday.

WATKINSBURG, March 2.—The morning saw crowds assembled before the Winter Palace. Troops were massed in the centre square of the palace and immediate vicinity. The programme of ceremonies heretofore given was executed. The Czar appeared on the balcony, where he remained 20 minutes saluting the multitude amid great enthusiasm.

WATKINSBURG REPORTS.

THE NEW CORSET

Meets with Universal Approval and Adoption.

PERFECT ADJUSTABLE FIT.

THE MOST ATTRACTIVE AND LASTING CORSET EVER DESIGNED.

THIS new and improved Corset is adjusted by a semi-circular or Elliptical Lacing over the hips, thus avoiding the disagreeable and sometimes painful side-stiffening which is found in the Corsets now in use. The facility with which it adjusts itself to forms of different development and size, and the great comfort and ease with which it may be worn, enables the figure to be displayed to much greater advantage, and cannot but prove a valuable acquisition to the most perfect toilet.

The improved system of lacing employed in the Semi-circular Adjustable Hip Corset, prevents the wear and tear to which other kinds are so liable; and as the wearing strains are equalized and distributed over the entire Corset, they will be found to outlast three of the ordinary styles of Corsets in present use.

It is only necessary to bring the new and improved style of Corset under the observation of the ladies, to at once win their immediate endorsement and approval, as its many points of excellence cannot fail to arrest instant recognition and adoption. ASK TO SEE THEM

St. Andrew's Church.

The following is an outline of the sermon preached on Sunday evening last by Rev. Mr. Maclean, minister of St. Andrew's Church. His discourse was based on the 5th chap. 21st verse.

After a few opening remarks, the preacher proceeded to read the text, which was well received by the congregation.

The subject of the sermon was the revival of religion, and the preacher dwelt upon the importance of this subject in the present day.

There are many sincere hard working Christians who daily pray that God will revive His work—whereas at present and disinterested in their desires and efforts for such a revival of God's spirit as may be.

Political Notes.

The Hamilton Spectator cleverly puts the question of Ministerial responsibility for the gubernatorial whiskey bill, thus: "Our esteemed contemporaries of the Grif faith should keep in mind that there is no longer any dispute as to the wrongfulness of paying out of the public funds the $350 which the Lieutenant Governor, with the consent of his Ministers, has paid back. The moral quality of the act of paying the money out is absolutely fixed by this act of restitution so soon as the payment comes to light. There is no need for any further discussion upon this point. The Ministers themselves have put their stamp upon the transaction, and it is folly for their organs to dispute their validity or correctness. All that can be said is that the Ministers would not have condemned the paying out of money if they could have helped it. If it is any defence they are entitled to it."

The Monetary Times says of the past year's slackness in the shipbuilding trade: "The prospective opening of the French market to our ships, at the lowest rate of duty, which applies to the most favored nation, is expected to lead to a revival of our shipbuilding industry. That industry, as is well known, has for some time been in a state of great languor. Three causes for this state of things are traceable. First, comes the general depression of the shipping interest; second, the substitution, to a great extent, of iron for wooden vessels; third, the tendency of steamers to supersede sailing vessels. The first cause is, in its nature, temporary; the other two are likely to be permanent. The tendency is for iron vessels, more and more, to take the place of wooden vessels." And the Globe says it was the N. P. which cast its gloomy influence over the trade in Canada. Such invented grievances fall flat on the public ear, and the old, stale cry of "wof," as urged against the Tilley tariff, has all but ceased to attract any attention, and properly so.

Says the Toronto Telegram:—"The bill proposed by Mr. Mowat for winding up bankrupt estates when the Insolvent Act shall have been repealed does not meet with approval at the hands of the commercial community. They say it will make bailiffs heirs and successors to the official assignees, and that by the time the estate is wound up and all fees paid, there will be very little left for the creditors. The door will also be opened for relatives or friends of a debtor to file a claim for a heavy debt and gobble up a large share of the estate, and the effect will be to drive many traders into insolvency who might otherwise pull through if not molested by a spiteful creditor. The fact is, it is hard for a lawyer to deal with a commercial subject from a commercial point of view. What is wanted is some cheap and expeditious mode of winding up estates so that the creditors will at least get a fair share of the assets, instead of the bulk of these being wasted on litigation and fees." Just like Mr. Mowat's bungling. He seems fast never to take hold of a measure in a decisive manner for the public benefit.

A Government engineer has been examining the route for a proposed canal between Rice Lake and Port Hope. This route seems impracticable, as the height of Rice Lake above Lake Ontario is upwards of 360 feet. The Trent Valley route is far preferable, not only on account of the gradual descent, shortness of cutting and smaller number of locks, but also because the débouché of the canal would be at the head of river navigation. The Trent Valley is the natural route for such a canal, and Port Hope's chance of obtaining it is of the slightest.

The Christian Guardian has the following to say in condemnation of the Lieut. Governor's whiskey, champagne and cigar bill as presented to the Legislature for payment:—"The placing of liquor, cigars and other doubtful items in the expenses of the Lieutenant Governor's party to Manitoba has attracted a good deal of attention. So much that the Governor had sent his cheque to cover the amount. The thing desired all the other members of the Government, formerly, or that some who found fault with making political capital out of it, cannot for a moment justify such an expenditure by any government. We trust that as a result no party will ever put such an item in the estimates in future. The fact that public sentiment will not allow any one, from lunatics to the Governor, to have liquor at the public expense, is, after all, a sign of progress." The only error in the above is in saying that the Lieut. Governor sent his cheque for the amount. That official paid for his personal expenses only, and that after the matter had been investigated and shown up by the Opposition.

Prince Gortschakoff has offered his resignation to General Miloff in the maintenance of order in the Russian capital.

Lithographic Stone.

It is well known that lithographic stone of excellent quality exists in the Township of Marmora, and efforts have at various times been made to bring it into general use. Samples of the stone have been tested by practical lithographers in both Canada and the United States, and the results have shown that as good work can be done on it as on the best German stones. Mr. Wm. Kelly, of Campbellford, who owns the Marmora quarry, has been most indefatigable in his efforts to bring the stone before the public, and it is gratifying to know that in each case where it has been tested it has fully come up to his most sanguine expectations. The following letter from Mr. Charles Hart, of 36 Vesey Street, N. Y., one of the oldest and most reliable lithographers in the city of New York, received by Mr. Kelly on the 1st of March, explains itself. It will be read with pleasure by every one interested in the development of this most important branch of industry, and every one who knows Mr. Kelly, and has watched his hard and earnest struggle to find a market for this stone, will wish him every success in his enterprise. When it becomes generally known that the Marmora Lithographic Stone equals in every respect the German Stone, and that it can be put in the market at a great deal less price, it will not be long before there will be a great demand for it from not only Canada but the principal Lithographic houses in the United States. The following is the letter:—

N. Y. Feb. 27, 1880.

Wm. Kelly, Esq., Campbellford, Ont.
Dear Sir,—Please excuse the long delay in answering your letter and sending proofs of engravings from the Marmora Lithographic Stone. The fact is, the proofs previously taken had one mistake in them and have just been found out. In the other case they could not be found at all, and were proof of nothing. I have frequently used the Marmora stones for transfers, and printed from them in various ways the same as I would have done from German stones with the same results.

Yours truly,
CHAR. HART.

Revival Services.

UNION MEETING.

TUESDAY EVENING.
The attendance this evening was larger than that of the evening before. After singing and prayer, Rev. Mr. Schuster read the 51st Psalm and commented upon it, during which he said the words of the 1st verse were and must be the language of every one desirous of salvation; the Psalmist gives us an acknowledgment of his sin. We may have all the outward forms of religion, but if we have not a contrite heart, all outward is of no avail. Man justifies his own sin, he sees himself not as God sees him; but when he has a broken and contrite heart, then he realizes that he is the sinner whom Christ died to save, and he in the terror of his heart says, "Oh God, have mercy on me." He knows he has not lived as he ought to have done, and he looks back on his sins and forward to an eternity. No man may blame any but himself for not being saved at the judgment day; when a man has a contrite heart, he is willing to do anything to cast all his sins on Jesus, saying: "There is life for a look at the Crucified One."

Rev. Mr. Lane advised young converts to sign the covenant. Sometimes we begin to serve God indifferently to "cut down the bridges behind us"; it is a great mistake to begin to serve God with a feeling of making a compromise with the world or the Devil. He asked all those who were anxious to go down to the basement rooms, and there would be held an earnest enquiry meeting. Nearly every one present went down stairs, and the lecture room was crowded. During the meeting some experiences were heard.

Mr. T. Holden said it was not by his own desire he spoke to-night; but Mr. Lane persisted that he should do so. I have been recently to see the force of Christ's words "if any man be ashamed of me, of him shall I be ashamed." I do not wish any one to think I am standing here as an example. I am thankful that I have strength to say I feel the need of a changed heart. I am ashamed that I have been an unfaithful Christian. If a man wants to be respected he should be an out and out Christian, as in a party if you are an out and out partizan you will be respected by both, if not you are despised. I feel humiliated that I have not been an out and out Christian. I have a family, and if there is any man who should be impressed regarding religion it is a man with a family. I pray God that I may be faithful, much more so than I have been in the past.

The enquiry meeting was continued until midnight, and was the largest yet held.

MORNING SERVICE.
The services in the City Hall this morning were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Locke. After a season of prayer and praise, Bishop Carman and Rev. Mr. Turnbull delivered brief addresses, which were followed by the usual enquiry meeting.

FISHERIES.—Pisciculture seems every year to be becoming a more favorite and successful enterprise on this continent. The fruits of the efforts made by our own Government in this direction have been most satisfactory. Another instance of success is furnished by the State of Maryland, the waters of which were stocked with shad some six years ago. The result is shown by the statement that in one place the catch increased from 7,000 in 1873 to 23,000 in 1879. California also has been most successful in fish-planting. In addition to those which are indigenous to her bays, lakes, rivers and mountain streams, that State has now a large variety of exotic fish, naturalized by artificial means. Notwithstanding what has already been achieved in Canada in this way, there is still room for extensive operations throughout the vast area of the Dominion.

"CHEMICAL BUTTER."—The Kingston News says:—"We have been informed that an article known as 'chemical butter' is being palmed off in this city on retail purchasers as genuine butter, and also that several car loads of it have lately arrived here by the Grand Trunk. That the article is a fraud we have no doubt, judging by the specimen shown us. We have flour and pork inspectors, but for that valuable and much used commodity we have none. Knowingly selling such an article should be a misdemeanor, and punished with fine or imprisonment—or both. Numerous complaints have been made about this spurious imitation, and the sooner the remedy is applied the better.

For Manitoba.—Two hundred Canadian farmers left Prescott yesterday for Manitoba. Two other parties left from western sections of the Province—some for the North-West and some for Nebraska.

LUMBER.—The Halifax Herald publishes interviews with lumber dealers, showing the tremendous revivals of that interest; the increased shipments of one dealer alone—DeWolf & Co.—will make a difference of $100,000 over last year. Lumber mills all over the Province, that have been idle for years are now in full operation, and have sold all they can cut at an average increase in price of $31 per thousand feet. There is great activity in the trade, and there has been a consequent boom in prices. Good quality have risen $1 per cord, twice last week. A dealer from Ontario is now in the Province trying to purchase 1,000 head for export.

FOR MANITOBA.—A special train consisting of 13 freight cars and 4 passenger coaches passed the depot here at 9:30 last night. The freight cars contained the necessary implements for farming purposes, whilst the passenger cars carried 160 people, to which number 25 were added at Port Hope.

A FATAL MISTAKE.—At Kingston on the 2nd inst., the jury at the Coroner's inquest on the body of the late Mrs. David, returned a verdict that she came to her death through unnatural causes in childbirth, hastened through a mistake by Dr. Evans in his treatment of the case. The County Attorney gave it as his opinion that the verdict did not necessarily amount to a charge of manslaughter against the physician, and he was, therefore, acquitted.

NOTICE.
ALTHOUGH we have always done what is called a "cash business," yet for several years we have allowed a certain amount of latitude in the matter, some of our most valued customers having fallen into the habit of settling monthly, instead of paying at the time. This, however, we find leads to much more than we intended, as it is often impossible to deny a short credit to doubtful customers, if we are in the habit of allowing it to good ones. Even a short credit inevitably leads to losses, and these losses have to be paid for, in part at least, by those who do pay honestly and promptly. We have long felt this to be unfair, and for our own sake, and that of our customers, we have resolved to entirely abandon it.

Accordingly, from the 1st of March next, we shall not, under any circumstances, sell goods on credit, and we trust that our friends will not give us the painful necessity of refusing them.

In taking this stand we do so with the firm conviction that it will be to the benefit of both buyer and seller; as while on the one hand we shall be saved much loss of money and time, on the other we shall be able to sell at lower prices, certain of getting our money in full.

We are year by year purchasing to better advantage, and to-day the bulk of our stock is bought as cheaply as that of the wholesale houses of Toronto and Montreal, thus enabling us to give our customers the very best value for their money.

The Murray and Trent Valley Canals.

A correspondent, who writes over the signature "Mariner," calls attention to the recent public meeting in Port Hope concerning the Murray Canal, and rightly characterizes as purely selfish the action which was taken by the people of that town at the meeting in question. True it is that the Murray Canal will benefit Belleville, Trenton and the Bay of Quinte district, but that it will also be of much advantage to the trade of the country, by providing a safe haven for vessels caught in storms on the lake; facilitate the passage of steamers when contrary winds prevail; develop to an immense extent the trade in iron ore, which without it must remain comparatively small in extent; and open to tourists a beautiful and attractive region hitherto but little visited by them, besides conferring other important advantages upon the country, cannot be denied. Still, the people of Port Hope possess this enterprise, from the small and narrow strip of territory, it will not confer as much benefit upon Port Hope as on other places. In this connection it may be as well to give the principal reasons urged at the Port Hope meeting against the canal. Capt. Janes, an experienced mariner, was the principal speaker in opposition to the project, and he is reported by the Times as saying:

"In ascertaining the bearing of the Murray Canal to Port Hope it was necessary to consider the effects of all the probable routes of railway which surrounded or affected our trade in any way. For instance there was the Grand Junction railway, which if completed according to contract, would be finished to Peterboro on the 1st of Jan. next, and as a charter had been procured to run the road from Peterboro to Onondaga—which would really then be the western end of the Grand Trunk—had no doubt, the Grand Junction R. R. would seriously tap the trade of the Millville. When the Grand Junction was completed, Onondaga would then be 83 miles from Belleville, and as at present 33 miles from Port Hope. If it was true, then, that the Grand Junction was really controlled by the Grand Trunk, the latter road would in a year terminate at Onondaga, and the trade of Belleville to that point would be cut off. If the Millville did not do as the Grand Trunk wanted them to do, then the G. T. would transship at Onondaga for Belleville, where the grain would be loaded and sent on to Oswego by barges. We have 50 miles more navigation to operate against us than has Belleville in doing an eastern trade. He was of opinion that a vessel would be able to take away a cargo from Belleville for 4 cents than it would from Port Hope for 44. The through grain would be sent on to the Grand Junction, if going to Montreal, and he would ask any candid man how Port Hope vessels were going to compete with Belleville barges at 4 cents! He had been informed, he thought, good authority, that the Grand Trunk had offered to carry grain at 4 cents per barrel, and as he saw Mr. Van present he would just ask him if that were so.

Mr. Vidin—That is not correct; the Grand Trunk offered to carry for less than 5 cents, but not for 4 to my knowledge.

Capt. Janes, remarking, said that even at five cents schooners could not compete with barges, because the latter could be run at a cost of less than one cent per bushel. If the barges came here he believed it would drive all the sailors away. A barge could be manned by five men, and at such wages that a schooner could not compete with it. Mr. Garrett had been asked at the Monday afternoon meeting what object he had in view in advocating that barge be attracted here. He answered it would cheapen freight. Some one replied that vessels could carry as cheaply. He (Capt. Janes) would just tell them that it was impossible for vessels to carry as cheaply as barges. He gave illustrations of how vessels making quick trips at 5 cents a bushel failed to realize any profit, and deduced from that that it was impossible for schooners to compete with barges. Of course, it was asserted that barges could not come here for the purpose of taking away trade; they only wanted the Montreal trade which we had no share in now. This was all very well; but he had known 60 vessels delayed at Kingston for five weeks waiting for transshipment of their cargoes into barges. He discussed the question of relative distances of Port Hope and Belleville—with and without the Murray Canal being open—and concluded that we had an advantage a present of 160 miles over Belleville for the western or southern trade, whereas if the Canal was opened Belleville would be almost in a good a position as we are in these respects. He was of opinion that it was in the interest of Port Hope to keep Belleville where she was. He next touched upon the iron ore shipments in question. We had expected to have at least 30,000 tons a year, but the Snowden mine had been comparatively a failure. He proceeded to show how much the Murray Canal would benefit Belleville by giving it a direct outlet, which, with the little towing required, would place their shippers all on an equal footing with those of Port Hope. In the lumber trade we have a great advantage over Belleville or any other place, but if you open the Murray Canal the superiority we now have will be gone. So long as Belleville is shut up where she is she will not be able to get one load of the lumber which comes down the Millville, but open the Murray Canal and all this would be lost. He advised that Belleville be kept in the position she now is, and then our lumber trade is all right. With respect to the local grain trade he was certain that so long as prices ruled high, buyers would ship as soon as possible, and he did not think, therefore, that the opening of the canal would effect that trade in the least. In speaking of the through trade he said our vessels could not depend on the wharf in case the Murray Canal was opened, but they would always have the wharf. From inquiries made he was of the opinion that the through grain trade, which had always gone over our wharf, would to some extent be tapped by the Grand Junction, and he was also under the impression that the Millville could not force grain to come here at all. The Grand Junction was virtually the Grand Trunk's and he would ask Mr. Ross if he knew whether the sale had been completed.

Mr. Ross—I am not aware that any such sale has been effected.

Capt. Janes, continuing, said whether or no he believed that the Grand Trunk was powerful enough in the control of the smaller lines to compel it the Millville to take the through grain at such such figures; or if the Grand Trunk was really in the hands of the G. T. he would say, "We will send it by our own line at once." Our trade could be diverted only depend upon the barley, lumber, and through north-western trade. Of the latter grain he did not think a barrel of it would come over the Millville after the Grand Junction was completed, so that they could judge of the injury. After announcing that personally it would not trouble him whether the petition was signed or not, he sat down amid considerable applause.

The importance of the above extract must be our apology for its length, and we hope the perusal of the remarks of a gentleman evidently as well versed in the subject as Captain Janes appears to be will have the effect of inducing the supporters of the project to redouble their exertions to secure its consummation. This certainly ought to be the case, for every argument used by Capt. Janes as against the construction of the work should show the advantages likely to accrue to the residents of Belleville, Trenton, the Bay region and Prince Edward from the carrying out of the project. We therefore trust that the gentlemen who have the matter in hand will look well to it that the petitions are largely signed, and prepare otherwise to press the matter upon the Dominion Government.

As to the idea of a Port Hope and Rice Lake Canal we look upon it as impracticable. The Trent Valley is the natural route of a canal from the Georgian Bay to eastern waters, and there it will be built unless, indeed, the suggestion to deviate from the Trent Valley to Belleville by a cross country route be found to have more merit than the original location, on which they are not aware of any authentic information having been obtained. Our object will be to aid in the construction of both works, and the question of route can best be determined by the present Government, (provided they undertake either or both projects) we are fully confident will make their decision in the public interest, and regardless of mere local feeling.

WELCOME TO REV. MR. MITCHELL.

A large audience assembled in the City Hall last evening to participate in the festivities in connection with the introduction of Rev. Mr. Mitchell to his flock—the congregation of the John Street Presbyterian Church. Prior to this ceremony a sumptuous feast was spread upon the tables in the butter market by the ladies, who paid every attention to the requirements of their patrons with all the necessary tact.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the assembly proceeded to the City Hall, and all having occupied seats, W. H. Ponton, Esq., who was appointed to fill the chair, came forward and said that the large audience before him was suggestive of sympathy for the effort in which they had engaged, and it should be a happy day for all. To the Rev. Mr. Mitchell he extended a genuine welcome—a welcome which came from the heart—and to a man who was a gentleman, catholic in spirit, liberal, knowing no sect, and filled with an earnest love for the Saviour. He treated the bond of brotherhood and brotherhood in the Church would be strengthened and united, and result in the prosperity of the congregation. (Cheers.)

After the singing of an anthem by a choir of 30 voices, Rev. Mr. Mitchell came forward and was received with loud and prolonged applause. He said that in truth the duty which devolved upon him in reason of the recent vacancy in the John Street Church, was under any circumstances a pleasant one, and it afforded him a peculiar gratification to speak for, and in the name and under the authority of the Presbytery.

The present occasion, which was an auspicious one, should long be remembered by all who took part in it. He congratulated the ladies for the material exhibit of their part of the evening's entertainment, as their efforts were very successful. The attendance was certainly large but what would it have been had the weather been better! He congratulated the congregation on the presence of such a large assembly, as it comprised persons of different minds, of all denominations and thus it was certainly an exhibition of good will towards the newly appointed pastor. We might speak of the different creeds and denominations, but all were striving to attain one end; there was the same inspiration coupled with all; one branch of the service was as good as another, for all should join in the success and honor to one flag and the defeat of the common enemy. It was but a short time since the John Street Church was without a pastor, and in only a few cases has a settlement such as that of this church been made. He trusted that harmony would prevail as it was the foundation stone of the good work that was to come. It was a pleasure to see Mr. Burton, their old minister present who now worked in a different field, and upon whose removal he (the speaker) had been appointed moderator over the John St. Church—a position he now relinquished with pleasure for the substantial reality. He gave up his charge with anxiety in case the rule would affect the subjects, but he firmly believed the rule of Mr. Mitchell would certainly be longer than his. He hoped the relations between the minister and his flock would be as pleasant as had existed between the congregation and himself. He welcomed Mr. Mitchell in the name of the trustees, of officers, bearers and congregation of the church. He welcomed him as a fellow-worker and counselor for the advancement of the work; he would strengthen the work and carry it out with truth and perseverance. He welcomed him on behalf of the people who had asked him to become their pastor; who were ready and willing to do all he could to strengthen and encourage them. He welcomed him to the city as a fellow-worker in the ministry and as a power for good, for he would strengthen on the right and weaken the wrong. He welcomed him as a citizen, and the longer he lived the more he would find that the people were in favor of what was good and right report, and he was willing to help and support any one who would do it in what he him his for the spiritual welfare of our fellow men. He welcomed him as a confederate of his own and his brethren, as a fellow laborer in truth and brother in the Lord. He hoped all would bring their minds and hearts closer in affection for the cause of common Christianity, and for the common Lord. (Cheers.)

Rev. Messrs. Lambly, Prof. Badgely and Turnbull, also made a few complimentary remarks, after which a chorus was offered, and met with great approval.

Rev. Mr. Schuster delivered a brief address of welcome, and was followed by the Rev. Mr. Turnbull in a recitation, which was well received.

Rev. Mr. Burton said, many memories clustered around as he was addressing the audience. Nine years ago a welcome had been extended to him, and now he had no doubt the same warm welcome would be extended to his successor. He hoped that the bonds binding Mr. Mitchell and his flock would become stronger than national, and tend to keep him in their hearts, and that with a change of life and with the hope of a bright world before them, they would lay hold of things eternal. He had known Mr. Mitchell and esteemed him as a friend and co-worker, and he trusted the young would rally around him as they had around the old (the speaker). We should have sympathy for the great heart who gave his Son to die for us, and when the time came we would enter into that rest where there is no discord.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell was received with unbounded applause. He said he had often heard of Belleville before he came here and one scene was now called to mind—the occasion of the installation of Rev. Mr. Burton in his new charge in Toronto. He had heard of this place from Rev. J. Messrs. Gregg, Povis and others, who had preceded him in the John Street Church, and all of these gentlemen had boasted they came from this City. It was a pleasure to see his predecessor on the platform, and the kind words which fell from him encouraged him by the kindness of his reminiscences, and he had much reason to congratulate himself on the call. One pressing thought on his mind was the future work in which we are engaged, and he would pray that they might be one in the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ. There were many things that encouraged him to come here—the unanimity of the call was a very prominent one. He would not promise that his discourses would be eloquent, but they would be natural for their truth, and he would take all possible pains to please the people. A minister should have liberty to do the best he could under the circumstances in which he was placed. A great deal depended on the people for the discharge of the duty of the pastor, and he would depend upon them for their sympathy and prayers. From the compliment, paid to Belleville by former ministers of congregations here, he had formed a high estimate of the people; he felt a deep sense of the responsibility resting upon him and he therefore asked their prayers. With reference to his occupancy of the pulpit, what he desired and what was wanted was to hear the words of the Church and to direct the way to the Saviour; he would visit the bedside of the sick and also call on the members of his congregation. He would make every family altar a pulpit, and would advocate singing in family worship. He would take a deep interest in the youth of the congregation, and would assist them in looking for the truth. If all unite in seeking the baptism of the Spirit of God, we in Canada will present an element of strength that will grow grander as time comes on. We should rise and do our duty for the advancement, honor and glory of Him, and promote generally the interests of mankind.

Vocal offerings by Miss Christie and the choir completed the programme, which was successfully carried out, and gave unlimited satisfaction.

At the close of the proceedings, a beautiful bouquet of flowers was presented to Mr. Mitchell.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

FOURTH PARLIAMENT—SECOND SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 3.

In the House of Commons Mr. Shaw introduced a Bill amending the Act establishing the Maritime Court of Ontario.

Several questions by members were put, and the House proceeded to an announcement by Hon. Mr. Langevin to Mr. Hay that the Government were considering a scheme for the preservation and improvement of the coast harbor.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY.

The debate this afternoon took a sudden serious turn. Mr. McLean, of Glamorgan, spoke at length on the work of the Ontario Pacific Railway, drawing upon his personal experience in the North-West for material to support his allegations as to the present condition of things, and quoting the report and evidence of the Committee on Section 15 to prove past extravagance.

Mr. McLean's position was, in brief, that the Engineer-in-Chief, Mr. Fleming, had been the cause of a good deal of unnecessary expense to the country in the progress of the work so far. He also criticized the location of the railway in Manitoba, with reference to the interests of Winnipeg and Selkirk.

He pointed out the mistakes of the past, and expressed his confidence that the present Government would avoid them. If not, he, for one, would find himself frail in supporting them. His speech was listened to with much attention and respect, and was plain, of course, that though the speech was friendly in tone and frank in its criticism, it was not such a speech as could be permitted to remain unanswered by the Ministry.

It was, of course, largely anticipating the debate on the Pacific railway, and forcing the Minister to speak sooner than he had intended. Nevertheless, an answer was necessary, and Sir Charles Tupper replied at once. He took each point of Mr. McLean's speech, and replied to some degree upon the points raised.

The relations of Mr. Fleming to the Government, which began in 1862, and have continued ever since, were stated with all possible frankness. The question of expenditure upon the railway was placed on the shoulders of Mr. Mackenzie, and the Minister defended, apparently to the satisfaction of the previous speaker. The Minister expressed his confidence of winning the approbation of the House when he brought down official information on the subject of the Pacific railway. He spoke for over an hour. Mr. Mackenzie followed in a very temperate speech, which he did not conclude at six o'clock.

The debate, however, was not over. The Minister, after recess, several Private Bills were advanced a stage.

Mr. Hooper rose and read a statement, in which he replied to the allegations contained in the petition attacked by him. He claimed that the matter was still sub judice and he denied all knowledge that there was any deficit in his accounts as treasurer for the county. He withdrew from the chamber. Cross cut of the speaker, Mr. Cussey as he rose and spoke on behalf of the motion referring the petition to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Ives and Cameron (Victoria) spoke strongly against the motion, contending that the proposed reference was unprecedented, that there were not sufficient facts before the House to justify it, that the matter contained of very purely municipal in their character, and finally that the hon. member assailed had denied the facts of the charges. The latter gentleman moved an amendment to the effect that the reference should not be made as the petition did not disclose any facts attacking the hon. members right to his seat, and because the hon. member assailed had denied the facts of the charges. The last sentence of Mr. Cameron's amendment was eliminated, and the amendment was carried without a division.

The House adjourned at 10:30 p. m.

The Ontario Legislature.

WEDNESDAY, March 3.

Yesterday a second discussion was raised by the Opposition on the right of persons to occupy seats in the Assembly while they were in arrears for timber dues. The position of the members referred to was explained by the Minister of the Interior. Mr. Miller called attention to the fact that the arrears were at present smaller than they have been at almost any time since Confederation.

DIVISION COURTS.

When the Division Courts Bill came up for the third reading, an amendment to the effect that the section relating to the taxation of lawyers' fees be defeated by a majority of 41 to 24. An amendment by Mr. Meredith, condemning the taking away from the courts of the right to appoint clerks and bailiffs, was defeated by a majority of 44 to 25, and a third amendment, also by Mr. Meredith, to enlarge the jurisdiction of the courts in cases where the debt is liquidated, as well as in those where it is ascertained by the signature of the defendant, was voted down by 49 to 23. The third reading was then carried.

UPPER CANADA COLLEGE.

After the Municipal Bill had been read a third time and the motion to ratify a petition with the motion to ratify the Order in Council authorizing the expenditure of $30,000 out of capital for the building of the Upper Canada College, which had been introduced by Mr. Meredith, he had taken the day before on the question. The discussion was carried on by Mr. Laurier, Mr. Galt, Mr. (Huron), Ball, and Ross, who all protested against making permanent improvements on the present valuable site.

CONSUMPTION.

The House proceeded to consider in the terms of supply previously allowed to stand over.

On the motion to go into Committee of Supply for the purpose of appropriating $10,000 for the payment of expenses which may be incurred in establishing the claims of Ontario to the disputed territory, Mr. Meredith moved an amendment, condemning the Government for its attitude towards railway projects applying for aid. After some discussion it was voted down by a majority of 44 to 24. The item was then passed and concurred in.

THE BOUNDARY AWARD.

Mr. Meredith moved last night the resolutions heretofore placed on the notice paper respecting the boundary award, which, after reciting the facts connected with the case, expressed regret at the position taken by the Dominion Government, and instructed the Government of Ontario to make good the claims of this Province. After some discussion a division was taken, when the resolutions were carried by a majority of 64 to one, the sole dissentient being the member for Muskoka and Parry Sound.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Mowat called yesterday to the Lord Mayor of Dublin authority to draw at sight on the Provincial Treasurer for $20,000 appropriated by the Legislature for the relief of distress in Ireland.

Correspondence.

Belleville Mechanic Institute.

Mr. Editor,—

Sir,—It was my privilege to look through the rooms of this institution last evening, and being thoroughly impressed with the beneficial results thereof, I desire to express my appreciation to the committee and the public, with the view of bringing more particularly into notice the workings of this institution.

At the present time there are 450 members—an increase of 203 since May, 1879. The average daily attendance for five days in the week is 150, and on Saturdays there is an additional number of about 100 pupils from our public schools, whose hours of admission are from 4 to 7 o'clock, p. m.

There are 40 connected with the young men's classes, and about the same number connected with the adult classes. In addition to this there is a gentleman's class from 9.30 to 10.30 in the morning.

The Institute is open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., and is well heated and lighted.

There is a pleasant library, well stocked with books, and the average number taken out by members daily is 156 volumes. The reading room is large and pleasant, and well stocked with newspapers, periodicals, magazines and reviews.

The recreation room is also a pleasant apartment and well provided with tables for chess, checkers and other pleasant and harmless games.

Arrangements are also completed for the introduction of billiard tables, which in other cities are considered valuable acquisitions to well ordered Mechanics' Institutes.

The gymnasium is a large room in the third story, and is well provided with every thing necessary for a first class gymnasium, and is under the able management of Prof. E. W. Johnston, who has a well deserved reputation, and it is truly wonderful to note the proficiency of his pupils for the short time they have been under his instruction.

The name of the President—the Rev. M. W. McLean, is a sufficient guarantee to the public, that nothing of an improper nature can find a lodgment in the institution, and he is ably seconded by a board of management comprised of our best citizens, as well as by the gentlemanly and attentive Librarian.

The object of the entertainment to be given on Friday evening at the Opera House, is to bring the workings of the Mechanics' Institute more prominently before the public, and I feel sure that all who take an interest in the Institute now, will take a deeper interest, and those who have known but little of it, will be induced to co-operate with their fellow citizens for the advancement of this institution.

I trust there will be a large attendance on Friday evening at the Opera House to testify to the able management of the Institution, their appreciation of the exertions put forth for accomplishing so much that is good in our city.

Very Respectfully,

Yours,
R. S. PATTERSON.

Belleville, March 3rd, 1880.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir,—It is with some reluctance that the writer makes a rejoinder to the numerous replies in respect to his former communication, and one reason of that reluctance is that all these except that of "Civis" offer strong temptations to be severe.

X. Y. Z. in the Ontario deals in false surmises and evil judgments throughout. "A Worker," quoting Nehemiah, 6, 3, says in effect, and this is the whole of his communication, that he is the chief agent in building the walls of the Spiritual Zion, and that he spurns your humble servant as a crafty heathen cunningly conspiring with other wicked men to draw him off from his work and slay him. G.—utterly perverts my meaning and not only accuses me of making a personal attack, which I did not, but reflecting upon a branch of the church for which you know I entertain great respect both on account of the good men it contains and the great good it has accomplished. Though G.'s language would seem to imply that he thinks so, I do not believe that that which is complained of is intentional to offend, or necessarily constitutes any part of it as a system. Indeed, it is the most learned and pious clergymen in the Methodist Church, one who at present occupies the most prominent position therein, but a short time since, in conversation with the writer, was deeply deploring the sad effects of this very thing, namely that undue familiarity and discrepancy, not to say levity, in dealing with sacred things and with religious experiences, even though combined with a sincere desire to do good.

"Civis" quite pertinently enquires, what are poor sinners to do for, he asks, are not the same themes, in their leading features, presented at these meetings as come to us in the more orderly Christian channels? Let us admit that they are to the fullest extent; it is not the evil of preaching false doctrine that is now deprecated, but the preaching truth in such a form and after such a manner as to cause it to fail of its end and be rejected as error or lightly esteemed. Undoubtedly no human channel is immaculate, but Christ alone constituting the church are bound in duty to God and man, to exercise the reason and intelligence with which the Almighty has endowed them to shine offensively from this cause, and this is a far more fruitful source of offense than direct attacks on inspiration and Bible teaching.

Whatever good results may come out of these meetings, these results are simply in spite of the evil complained of, and this evil will not thereby cease to be a real and yield the bad harvest depicted. Did you permit, it would not be hard to trace the connection between the prevailing want of veneration for the Holy Scriptures and the want of reverence for authority in the family, in the church, and in the state, this is usually talking about religion and religious experiences.

Not to say anything about persons who do not recognize in practice even the difference between mean and man, talking incessantly about religion, we maintain that even those whose lives are tried and constant, less than very materially the influence for good of their

"Party" First.

The utter disregard to the best interests of the country by the Grit press when the "party" is to be upheld, is manifest in the apology of our Grit contemporary for the recent decision of the Ontario Government to grant aid to railways. In its issue of the 4th inst. it says:—

"It is doubtful, too, whether Ontario needs any new railway lines for the development of any particular section."

For a journal issued in the County of Hastings, where Government aid is so much needed to develop the mineral region of the north part of the County and to open up the free grant region, such an utterance shows a wanton disregard for the interests of the country when the party requires to be upheld.

The Legislature.

The announcement that the first session of the fourth Legislature of Ontario has been brought to a close, will be received with anything but regret throughout the country generally, not only because much of the legislation which was had during its currency was of a disturbing—some of it even of a positively mischievous—character, but also because a considerable portion of its duration was concurrent with that of the Dominion Parliament, the proceedings of which overshadowed those of the Provincial Assembly, and deprived them of nearly all the interest which would otherwise have been attached to them. We have previously urged upon Mr. Mowat a change of policy in this regard, and as the Globe takes the same view of the subject, perhaps that unready and time-serving politician may return to the practice of the Sandfield MacDonald Government, and call the Legislature together at an earlier date. Otherwise that body, being deprived of public attention by the Dominion Parliament, will fall in popular estimation, and the project for biennial sessions receive so strong an impetus that by the date of the next election it may have attained an influence which will be impossible to resist.

The Ministerial programme with which the session was opened promised several important measures, but the provisions of most of them which have been passed are not of a comprehensive or satisfactory character. The amendment made to the Free Grant and Homesteads Act is, as we have previously pointed out, of a mischievous nature and contrary to the public interest, whilst the Exemptions Act is a characteristically timid and halting half measure which will please neither the friends nor the opponents of exemptions from taxation. Mr. Mowat's "Act to abolish priority of debt and amongst execution creditors," seems intended to benefit the lawyers only. Even the Hamilton Times, a warm supporter of the Government, is constrained to say of this piece of legislation: "We have so far been unable to find a business man who speaks favorably of the proposed law. The feeling in mercantile circles, so far as we have been able to ascertain, seems to be that it would be better to have no such Act at all, and that the merchants would rather stand their chance of being robbed by dishonest debtors operating through the channels of snap judgments, preferential assignments and that sort of thing, than be enchained out of such bills of costs as are foreclosed by the clauses which give sheriffs and bailiffs such scope for clapping heavy items of expense upon estates or struggling defendants. The extension of the jurisdiction of the Division Courts is one of the few good acts of the Ministry, but even that does not, in the opinion of many, go far enough. So also is the Game Act, but further alterations will be necessary before satisfaction is given to sportsmen. The other measures are generally of minor importance and of a milk-and-water description, such as might almost as well be left out of the statute books. Altogether, the session is not one in which Ministers have covered themselves with glory, although they seized a little more power by securing to themselves the appointment of Division Court Clerks in cities and towns, and the right of vetoing appointments made by Sheriffs.

The Opposition, small in number though they were, were ably led and discharged their duties with tact and ability. The revelation which they made of the proceedings of the now famous "Orelock Club," advanced their cause in the country materially, and caused the Government to beat one of the most undignified retreats on record—almost as disastrous as their back-down on the question of aid to railways, in which also they figured most ingloriously. Mr. Meredith deserves to be congratulated on the moderate and yet successful course which he pursued, and the representative of North and West Hastings, who faithfully supported him, will receive the approval of the large majority of their constituents.

The Opera House.

This place of amusement was well patronized last evening on the occasion of the exhibition in athletics and gymnastics by the pupils of Mr. E. W. Johnston, of the Mechanics' Institute Gymnasium, a considerable number of ladies being present.

In opening the evening's proceedings Mr. Thomas Ritchie said he was greatly pleased to see so many present, as their coming evidenced sympathy towards the Institute. He had to regret the absence of Rev. Mr. McLean, the President of the Institute, but later on he would be with them. He was a Christian man and would do what he could to aid his fellow citizens. With regard to Mechanics' Institute they were a great benefit to society. They tended to the amelioration of mankind generally and assisted us to glorify in spirit and in body. The Belleville Institute was now the third on the list of Mechanics' Institutes, Toronto and Hamilton being alone before it, and he trusted that its progressive spirit would be maintained, and that it yet would attain the front rank. (Cheers.)

Chief McKinnon said the pleasing office of stage manager had been entrusted to him, and from what he knew numbers would regret their absence from the entertainment as its features would surprise many and show that under the tuition of Mr. Johnston, the instructor of the Institute, his pupils had made excellent progress.

The programme was then entered into and afforded great amusement and genuine delight to all. The bell and club exercises were very creditably performed, whilst the tumbling and acrobatic feats gave proficiency was shown. The pyramidal ladder and trapeze acts were prominent features of the evening and elicited well-deserved applause. The remaining portion of the programme was well presented and creditably executed, and elicited the approval of the audience.

Rev. Mr. McLean delivered a brief address, in the course of which he said he had been requested by the Directors to speak a few words on behalf of the Institute and the entertainment, which he was pleased to know would be repeated. It was but two months since Mr. Johnston had been engaged as instructor in the gymnasia, and the people could see for themselves the proficiency his pupils displayed, and now all could see that in this city there was a large number of embryo athletes.

Organizations such as the Mechanics' Institute Gymnasium assisted the spirit of recreation and drew the young away from places of questionable resort. The Institute in this city had been launched fair and square; it had met a very long felt, and in efficiency and proficiency it now stood third on the list of the Institutes of the province, with a membership of 460, which was equal to one in every thirty. We should strive to enjoy the life that God gave, and endeavor to improve our physical strength and mental comfort. He was pleased to notice that the ladies of the city had taken an interest in the welfare of the Institute, but as it was for the benefit of the whole community, all could lend a helping hand. In conclusion, he expressed the hope that the Institute would grow more and more useful, and would even be more successful in the future than it had been in the past.

The entertainment concluded with a grand tug of war, in which the several students joined.

The Band of the 15th A. L. I. was present, and added much to the success of the entertainment by the rendition of a number of very pleasing musical selections, which met with great favor from the audience.

Ontario Legislature.

FIRST SESSION—FOURTH LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY, March 5.

The House met at two o'clock.

In answer to Mr. Mowat, Mr. Mowat said the Government would consult architects other than those of the Department of Public Works as to the plans for the Legislative buildings.

Mr. Mowat introduced a Bill respecting assessments and exemptions to correct a mistake in the original Bill respecting personal property of incorporated companies. The measure was put through all its stages and passed.

At 3 p. m. the House was prorogued by the Lieutenant-Governor.

POLITICAL DEMONSTRATIONS.—It is evident from developments that have taken place that the late demonstrations of the Ottawa unemployed were the result of political machinations. An agent for lumber firms writes to La Canada, over his own name, asserting that he has been unable to procure men for his purpose in Ottawa, and has been compelled to telegraph from that city to Sorel, Terrebonne, and other places, for a supply of labor. He adds further, that among the persons who took prominent parts in the demonstrations referred to, were men who refused his offers of employment, and states his willingness to furnish their names if his assertions are contested. La Canada, a moderate and careful journal, whose opinions are of some weight, believes that there is much truth in the observations of its correspondent.

IRISH RELIEF.—A committee at Toronto are collecting food, meal and other provisions to send to Ireland. In addition to free transportation on the Grand Trunk, the Dominion Steamship Line will take contributions free.

MILITIA ACT.—The Bill introduced by Sir Alexander Campbell to amend the Militia Act provides that the next annual meeting of the Militia shall be made and completed on or before the 28th day of May, 1882, and such enrolment shall be made and completed on or before the like day in every fifth year thereafter.

Mrs. Scott Siddons did not read in Kingston, very few reserved seats having been disposed of. It seems the agent who made the arrangement charged $1.00 for reserved seats, while in Toronto and elsewhere the price was only 75c.

MORNING DESPATCHES. AMERICAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—E. G. Cottonwell, a well-known theatrical manager, suicided at the Atlantic last night. He left a letter to his wife saying there was money due him which he could not collect to pay his debts. Rather than be a defaulter he killed himself.

HONG KONG, March 6.—China is preparing for war in view of frontier disputes with Russia. China is adopting more of a militant attitude towards all foreign powers.

READING, Pa., March 6.—It is reported that the Central Railway of New Jersey has been leased by the Reading Railway, which thus obtains a direct route to New York City.

CINCINNATI, March 6.—The Atlantic and Great Western will lay a third rail from Salamanca to Leavittsburg, and to complete a through line of standard gauge, the Erie will lay a third rail on its western division from Hornellsville to Salamanca. When these changes are made, by June next the New York Central will be as well able as the Erie to exchange traffic with the Atlantic and Great Western.

NEW YORK, March 5th.—The "World," Washington special says: "Fry's new resolution asserting the Monroe doctrine, adopted by the House sub-committee yesterday, is even broader and more emphatic than the original resolution. Some extreme Southern men, strict constitutional constructionists, and some Republicans who do not favor aiding foreigners who negroes are suffering at home, will, it is said, oppose the appropriation of $300,000 for the Irish relief."

NEW YORK, March 6.—Donations to the Herald fund yesterday amounted to $1,900, including $1,000 from Wm. L. Scott, a prominent railway man.

Applications for servants were freely made at the Chinese quarter yesterday. A number of San Francisco refugees were hired.

Geo. Wm. Curtis said to a Tribune representative yesterday that if Grant is nominated, he will be defeated and the Republican party disorganized.

North Hastings.

(From the Review, March 4th.)

THE WILSON BLOCK.—Messrs. Kern and Walton have secured the contract for the carpenter work of the new block about to be erected by C. G. Wilson. The contract for the mason work has been given to Mr. S. Russell of Colborne.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning, the night foreman at the Seymour mine, Wm. Meredith, had the misfortune to lose the ends of three fingers of the left hand, by getting them caught in a pulley. His injuries were attended to by Dr. Loomis.

MINING NEWS.

The shaft of the Seymour Mine has reached a depth of about seventy-five feet, and while the hanging wall is evidently maintaining the regular slope, the foot wall is almost perpendicular, causing the vein as a matter of course to widen. This, with the high quality of the ore being still maintained, is the most satisfactory thing we could possibly record of this district. With so many iron mines in an embryo state, and many more just opening, it is highly satisfactory to know that the oldest and most extensively worked mine is not "playing out," but is assuming a character for permanency that promises well for the whole district. About forty-five men are at work at this mine.

The Dominion Mine is now assuming large proportions, a force of some thirty men being at work. Three openings on the lead have been prospected, and two are being worked vigorously. The prospects are very good; about 200 tons of ore have been raised, and from present appearances a regular supply of from fifty to a hundred tons daily will shortly be produced. Mining at this place, the same as elsewhere, has required considerable capital and perseverance. At least a couple of thousand dollars will have to be expended before the owners can possibly expect a return. Beside this there is the building of roads, platforms, boarding-houses, etc. This mine, however, has some peculiar advantages. 1st. They have a vein of 1,500 feet, averaging 25 to 45 feet in width. 2nd. There is a continuous descent from the mines to the railway, which is about three and a half miles. 3rd. The iron is of good quality, free from impurities.

We have also to note a discovery of Hematite on Mr. James Keene's land in the 14th con. of Huntingdon, close by the Railway, and about three-fourths of a mile from the Madoc Station. The quality of the sample shown is first-class. The quantity is yet to be ascertained. This property has been secured by Messrs. Pusey and Wood.

While on a trip to the north end part of the county a week or two ago, we were presented by Mr. J. B. Clark with a splendid sample of ore from what is known as the Colleen mine. We have also been shown good specimens of ore from Carlow and Mayo. We have no doubt of there being vast deposits of iron in the back townships, but it is practically useless until a railway has been built.

PACKING BUTTER.—A Montreal butter exporter writes warning farmers of Western Ontario not to use spruce tubs, as butter packed in them will be worth less by several cents a pound than if packed in white oak. On which the Kingston Weekly severely but yet justly remarks: "There is much butter made now-a-days as to which it makes little difference how or in what it is packed. It is bad to commence with, and packing cannot injure it. And having said so much we may add that recently a species of butter was imported, of the manufacture of which information would be interesting, since in appearance and taste it is peculiar and most suspicious."

The staff referred to was probably oleomargarine, the sale of which ought to be regulated, as in the United States, by compelling the sellers to label the rubbish so as to prevent its being sold as genuine butter.

—The London Times says emigration at Queenstown, Ireland, is lively. Many persons from the rural districts are leaving the United States. The recent revival of trade in America and the reputation of emigration is attracting attention.

from this church. He referred to the various tests put by Christ to his converts. The defection of some of them was thereby caused. A similar process followed by the similar results is going on in the world to-day and the words of Christ are showing who are the true believers and converts. Some of them cover their retreat with a burst of scientific controversy or abuse of the Christ they have forsaken. An article has been published in a magazine on the coming collapse of religious belief. Some writers treated the matter slightly, but it appeared to him to be worthy of serious notice. He believed that the next twenty years would witness the greatest collapse of religious belief the world had ever seen. He was glad of it, because every belief except the true one would go down. Some of the minds of the young men especially had been shaken with regard to the faith of their fathers, but before leaving it they should squarely answer the question "To whom shall I go?" For a man should not give up what was of benefit unless he had a certainty of greater benefit from another source. He considered this branch of his subject at some length, saying the world had never yet got beyond the philosophy of Jesus Christ. Some people said they had got beyond it, but it would be a long time before they got up to it, he opined. He put it to them whether, if the world had achieved the philosophy of Jesus Christ, they would not have been much less suffering and would not the world have been so much the better for it. The world had not yet got to the philosophy of Christ, which showed what the teleology or the teleology had never developed and the chemist had never discovered. Whence came the teleology? Philosophers gave theories and speculations—ignorant, no doubt, but they had the fatal defect that they were mere conjectures. The scientist would say he had discovered the origin of life in protoplasm and the ultimate of this substance that thence by evolution had been evolved the wonderful complex creature man. He would merely say the teachings of Christ were infinitely more satisfying to his mind than these conjectures. The sceptic spoke of the credulity of the world, and yet accepted these far fetched conjectures. Why are we in this life? Science and philosophy could only give conjectures. Why are we here? Philosophers conjectured again that there may be another life after this where we may meet again, but have no certainty. So we turn again to the scientist, and he is able to indicate a destiny no other than that of the brute, namely the going back into the darkness whence we came. All that philosophy and science could tell us that we were here for no other reason, neither can they tell why we are here or whether we are going. Christ, on the contrary, tells us that we came from God, that we are here for Him and are to return to Him. This is credible, easily understood and likely to be true. Science had done much for mankind, but when undertaking to pronounce on the great questions of life, of death, and of a right to demand that it should not lay a sacrilegious hand on those sacred matters beyond its sphere and which it does not understand. Therefore he asked science to confine itself to its necessarily restricted sphere, and care as Christ. To whom should we go, or come to Christ? With forcible and eloquent language he spoke of the sufferings and consolation of the Christian religion in hours of death and affliction. How unutterable would be the anguish of the soul if it were not for Him! They gave us glorious victory and everlasting joy, and we understood that behind them was a glorious promise with a blessed fruitage by-and-by. Whom would they go in case of the consciousness of sin, if not to Christ? None could give the peace of which he spoke, except himself. To whom would they go when death comes on, if not to Him? Philosophy could not tell if a man lived again after death or not, whilst science said boldly that he did not. It could dissolve the body, but could not work the experiment the other way, even although it knew all the constituents parts and the due proportion of each. But Christ could work the experiment both ways. This name of the New Testament was He who had restored life to Lazarus, after being dead for four days, thus restoring the component elements of a dissolving body and making good his words "I am the resurrection and the life." There is a great gulf between this and the other life, and a bridge, built of materials from the other side, must carry us across it. So let philosophy and science conjecture and speculate as they will, let us cling to Christ who hath the words of life. He concluded with a few further eloquent and earnest words to young men, urging them to follow Christ as a leader under whom success is certain.

Christ's work, and believing in Him, would strive to walk in the light of God. Our hope should be founded on Christ, and when His storm blows around us as the waves of the ocean we may the better be able to stand fast, for the joy of the Lord is our strength and God would enable us to see where our foundation was laid.

The License Inspectorship.

The Ontario Government have, during the whole of their tenure of office, been noted for small acts of tyranny in the interest of party, and seem determined to maintain their reputation to the end of their career. The latest instance of this kind of thing is the dismissal of Mr. James Ross from the office of License Inspector for West Hastings. Without any warning, Mr. James Ross has been displaced to make room for Mr. M. J. Grainger, whose friends are the ardent admirers of Mr. C. F. Fraser, the "better half" of the Government, and no explanation has been vouchsafed to that gentleman. Mr. Ross, who was appointed by the present Government, had efficiently discharged his duties in all respects, the best proof of which was that no complaint had ever been lodged against him, or if there was, he was given no notice of it and consequently no opportunity to meet his accusers was afforded him. Having won the respect and confidence of the public in his official capacity, we have no doubt that his many friends will seek an explanation of the arbitrary action of the Government, which has excited no little indignation amongst many persons on both sides of politics. In the meantime, the motives which actuated the Government can only be matter for conjecture. There is a widespread belief that politics lies at the root of the matter. Mr. Ross was originally a Conservative, but for some years previous to his appointment he had not taken an active part in politics, generally voting on personal grounds and entirely irrespective of party. That he was no partisan is plainly apparent from the fact that many of the most influential members of the Grit party in the Inspectorate were instrumental in recommending him for the position; and better evidence even than this was that a narrowly partisan Ministry appointed him. Since his appointment he has pursued a perfectly neutral course in politics, and this it is which has probably led to his dismissal. An active political agent was what was wanted and Mr. Ross failing to comply with this desideratum, a cunningly and secretly worked intrigue by a party of local wire-pullers has secured his displacement in favor of one who will be expected to meet the views of the Government in this respect. We feel quite assured, however, that Mr. Ross' many friends will not allow the matter to rest where it is, and the public generally will back them in remonstrating against and condemning an action so arbitrary and unjust towards a worthy and thoroughly efficient public servant.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.
For their foundation can no man lay that that laid which is Jesus Christ." 1st Cor. 3rd chap. 11th verse.
Rev. Mr. McLean preached from the above text last evening and a synopsis of his remarks is given as under:

Can we suppose there are none in Christendom, surely none in this city of churches, who have not thought of the future—not the future of to-morrow or the day after—but that which extends beyond the grave. How is it to be? Some put away the feeling, some suppose all will be well. There were three classes of men: the indifferent, those not indifferent but believing in error, and those on sound foundation. Men were indifferent to their future destiny; their state was unreasonable; and though they might not be inescapable to what was before them, no man of to-morrow was better than he is to-day. He who persists in a daily or worldly aversion seeks for earthly comforts, takes and puts by little by little so that he may be ready when sickness comes to face it or when old age comes to be independent of the charity of the world. Should one gain anything that was valuable, of what profit would it be to him were he to be left in the neglect of his soul? It lifts him up, looks us in mental misery; its capabilities for enjoyment or suffering are immeasurable. There is either agony or ecstasy. The soul is immortal, and will live forever and its value is inestimable. God's estimate of the soul was seen in giving his Son to die for it, and therefore it rises above all material things, and one could not be struck with the solemnity of its value. We may be stripped of everything and yet be happy in the gift God has given us. The misery or happiness for eternity depends on character now. And yet we might experience a sorrow in the dread of the future, for man at times realizes a dark and a bright side; the one we should strive to gain, and we should endeavor to be clear of the other. God's mercy is constant with His holiness, and His mercy gave us encouragement to sin. It was inconceivable that He would not have sin. His life will be in accordance with his belief. What a man thinks, however sincerely he does say, does not make him right. We should build on a solid basis, and not be in doubt to possibilities, and from underfoot we would have a solid basis. By nothing can we save ourselves except by God's help. Christ was sinless, and he who is sinless is condemned in his blood, cleansed from sin and we should walk in the way he pointed out for us. Are we indifferent as a matter of course or as a matter of convenience, or if not what is our foundation? See that this ends on God's promises and

San Francisco, March 8.—Inquiries show that the 2nd regiment of National Guards have been deposited in the old city hall, where a guard is kept over them. The militia companies are distributed among several armories. Gen. McDowell was telegraphed to yesterday from Washington to bring the available troops in his division to San Francisco. It is conjectured these movements are due to the representations made to the Washington authorities by the Chinese Vice-consul. It is understood that the present precautions will be maintained until the settlement of the existing agitation.
Philadelphia, Pa., March 8.—An officer of the Reading Railroad, states that arrangements for the movement of troops from New York with Gould and the Vanderbilt syndicate, by which the western traffic for Philadelphia and southern points along the coast will be shared by the Reading. Several hundred miles of new road will be built northwest from Williamsport to connect with the Lake Shore and Western system. It is reported the lease of the New Jersey Central by the Reading is done.

Louisville, March 8.—It has leaked out that the Louisville & St. Louis air line has been purchased by Huntington & Co., who will use it in connection with the Great Central Pacific system. The road when completed will connect St. Louis with the Central Pacific interests and at Louisville with the Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington railroad, and at the terminus of the latter it will join the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, thus giving the Central Pacific people a line extending from the Pacific to the Atlantic oceans.

Mechanics' Institute.
To the Editor of the Intelligencer.
Sir,—Would you have the kindness to allow me to announce, through your paper, that the continuance of the services of Mr. E. W. Johnston as teacher of gymnastics in the Mechanics' Institute is largely dependent on the support he receives.
The expenses connected with the Institute are necessarily great, and are defrayed, chiefly, from members' fees. The Directors therefore take the liberty of thus publicly soliciting all who are interested in the good work which it is lawfully accomplishing, to exert themselves as members, and endeavor to get others to do likewise.
There are at present 60 names on the roll. Why not double that number? If that were done, every department of the Institute could at once be put, and kept in such a condition as would render it even more efficient than has yet been possible.

VERBAL PROSECUTIONS.—The Chicago Times, an excellent authority on such matters, says the impression is very general that more money will be made from verbal property this year than ever before. Last fall many were in the very midst of the liveliest times they had experienced since 1873, when winter closed on upon them and forced a cessation of active work in the matter of port trading. But the chilling blast, that stiffened the canvas and rigging, seemed to warm the hearts of the owners and stimulate them to greater effort in preparing for the future. The outlook now is said to be most cheering, and the prospects are that the season will open early.

NOTICE.
ALTHOUGH we have always done what is called a "cash business," yet for several years we have allowed a certain amount of latitude in the matter, some of our most valued customers having fallen into the habit of settling monthly, instead of paying at the time. This, however, we find leads to much more than we intended, as it is often impossible to deny a short credit to doubtful customers, if we are in the habit of allowing it to good ones. Even a short credit inevitably leads to losses, and these losses have to be paid for, in part at least, by those who do pay honestly and promptly. We have long felt this to be unfair, and for our own sake, and that of our customers, we have resolved to entirely abandon it.
Accordingly, from the 1st of March next, we shall not, under any circumstances, sell goods on credit, and we trust that our friends will not give us the painful necessity of refusing them.

In taking this stand we do so with the firm conviction that it will be to the benefit of both buyer and seller: as while on the one hand we shall be saved much loss of money and time, on the other we shall be able to sell at close prices, certain of getting our money in full.
We are year by year purchasing to better advantage, and to-day the bulk of our stock is bought as cheaply as that of the wholesale houses of Toronto and Montreal, thus enabling us to give our customers the very best value for their money.

Cheese Market.

The cheese manufacturers of Campbellford district feeling the desirability of establishing a cheese market at Belleville, called a meeting in the City Hall here on the ninth of February, last, for the purpose of considering the propriety of establishing such a market. Correspondence had been opened up with some of the cheesemen of Hastings, and it was expected that the Campbellford deputation would receive the hearty cooperation of the manufacturers of this district. The meeting, however, as our readers are aware, was a failure, only two or three interested parties from this district making their appearance at the Convention. In the interests of the Cheese trade of this district, we regret that the Campbellford and Seymour cheesemen were not met with that cordial and open-handed spirit which should have received it. It is clearly to the advantage of producers to have a market here, such as is established in such large cheese districts as those of which Ipswich and London are the centres, where manufacturers from all the adjoining Counties could come and transact their business. The larger the market the greater number of buyers, the keener the competition, and the consequent prospect of better prices. In this connection it may be mentioned that during the late sitting of the County Council, it was intimated that should a Cheese market be established here, the County Council would give $100 towards it, or more if necessary. The result of this intimation on the part of the cheese manufacturers of Hastings is, that the Campbellford and Seymour producers have decided to establish a market of their own in the village of Campbellford.

It is to be hoped that the cheese manufacturers of Hastings will take prompt steps towards establishing a market here, or otherwise we will see Trenton, Picton and other places following the example of Campbellford. The following report of the meeting of Dairyemen at Campbellford, has been kindly furnished us by Mr. Bedford, Reeve of Seymour:

Windsor Hotel, Campbellford, 2nd March, 1880.

A meeting of Dairyemen was held here this day pursuant to adjournment of the meeting held in the City Hall, Belleville, on the 9th day of February last for the purpose of discussing the probability of establishing a market for the sale of cheese, and to take such further action as they may deem to their mutual advantage.

Mr. Bedford, Reeve, was appointed Chairman, and Mr. Clark, Secretary.

Mr. R. White reported verbally that at the meeting in Belleville on the 9th Feb. there was no business done, owing to those interested in the business in the County of Hastings not having given the movement their cooperation.

Moved by Mr. R. White, seconded by Mr. W. J. Bell, That it is desirable in the opinion of this meeting to establish a cheese market in this village, and with this object in view, we hereby agree to offer our cheese for sale in Campbellford only on one day in the week, say on Thursdays or some other day to be agreed upon, and that some person be appointed to arrange for cable reports of prices during the season.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Clark, seconded by Mr. R. White, That Mr. Bedford be and is hereby appointed to make arrangements for procuring regular telegraphic reports of the cheese markets during the manufacturing season, and that the same be divided equally amongst the factors interested.—Carried.

From W. S. Malcolm, in relation to dredging the harbor.

From E. O. Bickford, asking the bonds of the city to be signed by the Mayor and Treasurer.

From Geo. Gibbs, asking what assistance the city would give in the establishment of a nut and bolt factory here.

From the Intelligencer Printing Company, relative to the city printing.

From Louis Marlow, relative to the cutting of ice in the channel for the ferry steamer.

A variety of accounts were handed in and read. The above were appropriately referred.

REPORTS.

The following were handed in:

From the Finance Committee recommending that certain claims be not entertained; that the report of the market and Fire Committee be accepted and that several accounts be paid.

From the Harbor and City Property Committee asking the payment of certain accounts, for approving of furnishing tenders for dredging the harbor, and for selling the new hospital property lot.

From the Fire Committee recommending the erection of a fire tank in rear of Barrill's ice-factory.

From the Poor and Sanitary Committee respecting the payment of sundry accounts.

INQUIRIES.

In response to Ald. Vandusen, Ald. St. Charles said the time imposed under the Snow By-law would be refunded.

Ald. T. Holden said the Treasurer would make a financial statement at the next meeting of the Council. He was not able to do so now, as the books were in the hands of the Auditor.

Some inquiries were made relative to the expenditures of the Committee on Poor and Sanitary.

Ald. Linchman inquired relative as to who would furnish soil at $1.90 for the streets.

Ald. D. Holden received a reply from Ald. St. Charles in regard to the reorganization of No. 4 Chemical Engine, to the effect that if the engine would be properly taken care of in Coleman Ward, and a Company formed, the matter would receive the attention of the Committee.

In reply to Ald. McInch, Ald. St. Charles said the hall occupied by No. 4 Company was engaged for three years, and if the Corporation wished it they could easily have the lease set aside.

In answer to Ald. Ostrom, Ald. Hamby said, as soon as the frost was out of the ground the extension of the gas pipes would be considered.

SOURCES.

Ald. Petrie's notice for the purchase of horses for drawing the fire engines was laid over, as were also three of Ald. Jellison's, one of Ald. Green's, and one of Ald. A. Smith's.

Ald. Green gave notice of a motion for the erection of public slaughter houses.

NOTICES.

Moved by Ald. Ostrom, seconded by Ald. A. Smith, That the desirability of erecting water tanks on Taylor's Hill be considered; and also that the accounts of No. 1 and 2 fire companies be hereafter kept separate.

In answer to the last motion Ald. St. Charles said a private secretary would be requisite to give all the information such a motion would entail, but it could be had from the Treasurer's books at any time.

It was an easy matter to learn the expenditure by looking over the accounts. The appropriation for fire purposes had not been exceeded last year and he hoped it would not be this year.

Ald. Ostrom said the appropriation last year was exceeded by $1,000.

Ald. Holden asked that the Hook and Ladder Company's account should be included in the information asked for.

Ald. Dickson approved of keeping a separate account for each department of the fire organization.

Moved by Ald. Robertson, seconded by Ald. Farley, that the Dominion Government be petitioned for the erection of public buildings here, and that the Mayor name a committee to act as a deputation in the premises. Carried.

Moved by Ald. St. Charles, seconded by Ald. Proctor, that the Police magistrate make a return of the names of those fined under the provisions of the Snow By-law. Carried.

The Mayor named Ald. Robertson, T. Holden, and Dickson as the Committee to entertain Ald. Robertson's motion and act thereon.

A motion relative to the drainage of the portion of the city between Moira and Catharine street was passed.

Ald. Dickson moved, seconded by Ald. McInch, that William and Finnacle Streets be graded at the earliest convenience of the Board of Works.—Carried.

The several reports were received, and the Council went into Committee of the whole on Ways and means.—Ald. Wallbridge is the chair.

Those portions of the report of the Finance Committee relative to the assessment of Messrs. Harris and Robin were again referred to the Committee.

The request of the innkeepers of the city for a reduction of the license fee was not entertained. A brief discussion on the application of Mr. W. F. Meunier for the return of the license paid by him to the City, was sent to the Finance Committee for re-consideration.

In regard to the clause relative to the purchase of stone for the streets by the Finance Committee, Ald. Linchman said the question should be considered by the Board of Works, and that Committee should attend to such matters. The fact was, however, that new orders were given for work for the city without proper authority, and even the Chairman of the Printing Committee gave out a tender without the sanction of his Committee. The same remarks applied in his case. He would prefer that the Council deal openly with such accounts as that for the supply of stone.

Ald. T. Holden asked for a detailed statement regarding the requirement for $2,125 for the Police force.

The Mayor said the amount was arrived at by details, and that it was less than the amount asked for last year.

A motion relative to the requirement for the Police force was referred for the consideration of the Finance Committee.

The remaining submissions to the committee were passed as were also a number of others.

A committee consisting of His Worship the Mayor, Ald. Dickson, Jellison, Robertson and St. Charles, were appointed a deputation to proceed to Ottawa to urge upon the Government the advisability of aid for the dredging of the harbor, for the erection of public buildings, and the same could act in re the Murray Canal.

The recommendation for the sale of the hospital was approved of.

It was ordered that the Mayor and Treasurer do sign the debentures to the G. J. R. as soon as the taxes due by the Company to the City were paid.

A proposition to engage Henry G. Gillespie to assist the Clerk in committees, &c., was referred to the Finance Committee, and a like request for $25, for the cutting of the ice in the ferry channel so as to enable the steamer to run by Thursday was referred to the Ferry Committee with power to act.

The Committee rose and reported.

The matter of sending the deputation to Ottawa resulted in a brief discussion which ended in the adoption of the report.

Council adjourned.

Annual Missionary Meeting.

BRIDGE STREET C. M. CHURCH.

The annual missionary meeting was held in the Bridge Street church last night, the meeting was opened by singing and prayer by Rev. Mr. Willoughby.

Mr. R. Richardson was called upon to occupy the chair, and made a short address and called upon the choir for a selection, which were rendered very nicely.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, the Secretary of our local branch of the Society, read the annual report of the Society, during which he said that the many Missionaries had not labored in vain. Our own domestic missions have always shared in our sympathies in the past and they shall still, there can be no doubt that money expended on them will show a rich and immediate result. The subscription of the whole of Belleville district was $3,510.56 an increase of $531.85 over that of the preceding year, Bridge Street church, with the addition of Kingston Road church, subscribing $1,020.29. The income was slightly exceeded by the expenditure.

Resolutions were passed: reappointing the Treasurer, M. Sawyer, Esq., and Secretary, W. Johnson, Esq., and also reappointing the same collectors for the ensuing year.

Rev. John McDougall was now called upon and said there was a time not many years ago when the missions in the Hudson Bay Territory and the North-West were termed foreign missions, but after living there nearly all my life I come to you, not as a foreigner, but as a fellow citizen, I am glad to say, which I can do from my stay in that North-West Territory which forms part of our great Dominion, that the nation may well be proud of it. It is not the bleak and cold north land that men report it to be. It is a country vast in extent and rich in soil. It is a land that is well watered and drained by its large rivers and their tributaries. It has also large coal fields, and is valuable for its minerals. It is a great country, destined to be the home of thousands more in days not far distant. That which was once looked upon as a foreign mission I have felt to day we can look upon as within the circle of our dominion, and we should feel a common interest in these domains. Some have gone to Manitoba and have come back to Canada saying it is a great fair country with no beauty, but if they were to go on west for 800 miles to the back bone of our continent, the Rocky Mountains, they would be electrified by the grandness and beauty of the scenery. He told of how he first was struck with the grandeur of those mountains when he first saw them, and how he related that his friends might not behold them. We want the Northwest to be taken up in the name of our Lord, and not by military powers. Look across the line about 200 miles south of where I am situated, into the region of Montana, and see what is going on; see the continual strife and warfare,—thousands of white men who have been killed, and thousands upon thousands of poor Indians who have been swept away. On this side of the line we want to possess the land by the Gospel. I thank God I am the son of one who gave his life in carrying on this work, and to-night I want you to sustain and to carry on this great work. He said that many instances will prove that our Northwest missions have not been a tax, but on the other hand have been a benefit to the Government of the land, as well as the Christian Church.

Rev. Mr. Sutherland was now called upon, and said it was only once a year we have a missionary meeting, and yet some think that even this is too often. I wish that we might have a missionary meeting every month. I wish here to throw out the statement that perhaps all here will not believe, nevertheless I believe, that there are few blessings that God throws upon his church that can equal the blessing of opportunities to give. I am glad to be associated in this missionary meeting to-night and am always glad to be associated with a real live Missionary. You cannot always tell by the attendance what is going to come out of a meeting. He told of a deputation which was sent out to a certain meeting and whose addresses seemed to be enjoyed very much by the congregation, which had come out in large numbers, when the collection was taken up it amounted to the sum of twelve cents. He was one of a deputation which attended a very slim meeting in Halifax where there was a magnificent sum rolled up at the close of the address, one man giving at the first $1,000 and shortly after as if his conscience pricked him he gave another hundred for his wife, we only wish he had two or three more wives. He had very strong hopes of this meeting, but just here he would reserve any strong statements till the meeting was over; we are told to walk by faith, but in the light of a missionary collection he would leave the faith until the sight of it; we have reason to thank God for the success of this missionary society during the past 55 years. It is astonishing how many notions people get into their heads. ## THE BUDGET.

The lengthy summary of Sir Leonard Tilley's budget speech which appeared in our columns is so clear and full as to render extended comment on our part unnecessary. The announcement that a surplus will probably be realized next year for the first time in five or six years is gratifying, as are also the facts that, whilst our trade with the mother country has decreased 7 per cent, that with the United States has fallen off $3 per cent, for the half year, and that the exports of the Dominion now exceed the imports in value.

The changes which have been made in the tariff are in the right direction and cannot fail to prove satisfactory to business men generally. On the whole the exhibit is an excellent one, and even the hostile criticisms of the Opposition will fail to convince the public that the change in our commercial policy has not so far been highly beneficial and certain to be still more so in the future.

English Politics.

The announcement that the Imperial Parliament is to be dissolved at Easter has been received with much interest in Canada, as the struggle seems likely to be a severe one. Leading English journals anticipate that the Government will lose strength in Ireland and Scotland, and express the fear that the balance of power will remain in the hands of the Home Rulers. This contingency seems not unlikely to occur, unless the English constituencies support the Government strongly, which it is quite probable they will do, taking Liverpool and Southwark election as a sample of the feeling in the country. The issue will be fought largely on Irish questions and the result will be determined by the vote of the Irish members. The letter which he addressed to the Viceroy of Ireland, and which we have previously published amongst the cable telegrams. We believe that the Government will be sustained, and hope that it may have a large majority.

Blundering into Truth.

Under the above heading the Port Hope Times pays the following tribute to the Minister of Customs:—"There is not one of the present Customs Ministers who deserves as well at the hands of Canadian newspaper men as does Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs. To them he has been very friendly, no matter what his political predilections might be. And this was to be expected. He has a lively sense of the arduous duties of the profession, the constant calls upon his members' time and patience, and a thorough knowledge of the various intricate difficulties which beset the conscientious journalist from time to time. It is, therefore, pleasing to find a Grit journal, knowing what we have said above to be true, acknowledge Mr. Bowell's peculiar aptitude for the honorable position he occupies with so much advantage to the country. Of course, it is very evident that the journal alluded to—the Peterboro' Examiner—only blundered into the truthful sketch of Mr. Bowell, given below, in the hope that it might strengthen its position of unreasoning and uncompromising hostility to the Tilley Tariff. That can be seen at a glance; the immediate object of its approbrium we will not discuss at present. In the following quotation from the Peterboro' Grit on the other hand, an attempt to demonstrate that the N. E. is a failure from a revenue raising point of view, but the intended point to be made is swallowed up in its truthfulness and not to flatter estimate of Hon. Mr. Bowell, Minister of Customs:

"Perhaps no tariff ever in force in Canada has been so stringently tested as the present. The adopted to check abuses which formerly existed, and to check undervaluation in every article imported, and to the utmost limit of the duties upon section we may say that if the Finance Minister has been disappointed in the results, it is not attributable in any manner to the Minister of Customs. 'Harrington's politics,' as the saying is, 'has not been the cause of the failure of the tariff.' Since his appointment to Hon. Mr. Bowell, to say that he has not been successful in his duties is to say that he has not been successful in his duties. Upon some economic principles, which make him, perhaps, the most successful Minister of Customs in the history of the Dominion. As a job, and it is due to him that there are less complaints to-day against the department than there were a year ago, than against any other branch of administration."

On the same subject the Toronto Telegram says:—"Even the most rabid of the party papers will have an occasional freak of candor. Not that they desire to give credit to an opponent, but rather that for a moment their prejudices, and are betrayed into giving the public an honest expression of opinion which no doubt they subsequently regret."

Satisfactory Trade Statistics.

A return laid before the House of Commons gives statistics of the imports and exports for the last six months of 1879 and 1880 respectively. It shows that for the period covered by the return in 1879 the imports were of the value of $41,187,242 and the duty collected $6,320,862. For 1879 the value was $38,084,876 and the duty collected $6,078,101. The exports for 1879 were $46,376,038, and for 1880 they were $43,203,541, an excess of $7,827,243. Thus the exports increased by about the same amount as the imports decreased, and the duty collected showed also a slight increase. This return is of a very encouraging nature, and shows that the tariff is working in the right direction.

St. Louis, March 11.—The Vulcan steel works at Carondelet have resumed operations after a suspension of several years. They are now in full blast with a thousand men employed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—The 24th March is the day fixed by the agitators for abating the Chinatown nuisance. It is believed the agitators will be dissuaded from causing the threatened trouble. It is certain that communism is the real object of the Kearneys. Every arrangement is made to meet the first act of violence.

MADRID, March 11.—A tilt between Marshal Campos and the Premier is the subject of a rumor. It is believed no opposition to the proceedings, but in a letter to the London Times has made a protest.

BIRMINGHAM, D. T., March 11.—The first mail since Feb. 15th arrived on Tuesday night, having been brought by wagons from the snow blocked train ten miles east. The citizens are short of provisions, and are being supplied by commissaries at Fort Lincoln. There is not a pound of flour in the city. The damage to business is very great.

HAYAMA, Mich., March 11.—On Sunday an attempt to fire the theatre at Maribona by petroleum or wooden bombs was discovered, and dynamite was also found. It is believed it was intended to blow up the theatre. The evidence points to an effort to raise a disturbance with a political aim.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Herald's Washington special says the Monroe doctrine has helped the Secretary of the Navy to get a resolution through the House authorizing a Commissioner to report the practicability of completing four double turreted monitors.

The donations to the Herald hotel yesterday were $1,750.

The Jersey City boat New Jersey collided with a tug last night, wrecking the latter. One of the tug's deck hands was drowned.

San Francisco, March 11.—The Herald's Washington special says the Monroe doctrine has helped the Secretary of the Navy to get a resolution through the House authorizing a Commissioner to report the practicability of completing four double turreted monitors.

Bold Counterfeiting Detected.

Parties have been detected in making and counterfeiting Hop Bitters, and illegally using the name Hop Bitters, a registered trade mark, which subjects every person who makes or sells or distributes Hop Bitters, or pretending to be like it, to a fine of $100 for each sale, however small the sale is. The Hop Bitters Manufacturer, of Rochester, N. Y., and the Toronto, Ont., the sole owners of the trade mark, are prosecuting all violators of the law and enforcing heavy penalties, but are dealing very liberally with those who stop violating the law and settle without fuss, and commence dealing in the genuine article, which is a valuable medicine and not a drink, as some of the counterfeiters are. The genuine is sold by all druggists.

THE INSOLVENCY LAW.—The Toronto Telegram publishes three columns of interviews with City merchants and bankers respecting the Insolvency Law. The great majority were opposed to the repeal of the law, but were generally dissatisfied with the old act, and in favor of simpler machinery to get hold of debtors' estates. A few were opposed to an Insolvency Law altogether.

IMMIGRATION OF TENANT FARMERS.—Mr. Gorrie, a prominent merchant of Manitoba, has arrived in Montreal. He has just returned from a business visit to Glasgow. He reports that the number of tenant farmers who are likely to come to Canada in the spring will be very large. The reports of the delegates sent out last year have given every satisfaction and made a deep impression in all parts of Scotland.

"MORE VENERABLE WEATHER."—Mr. Vennor writes to the Montreal Witness of the 8th, that the dip last night was 34° in temperature; the lowest reading was 5° below zero; that this morning the thermometer was at zero; that the river ice has been melting and strengthening day by day, and that the sleighing is the best of the winter. Mr. Vennor with evident exultation, although in pathetic terms enumerates the hardships of spring which arrive within our borders were chronicled from time to time as follows: "Poor crowd, poor blue bird, poor robin, poor goose."

A GENEROUS PATRON.—His Excellency has been the following pictures from the Academy, for which he handed over a cheque for $900—"Pioneer Mill," by H. E. Watson, of $500; "White Mountains," by A. G. Gordon, of Montreal; "The Habitant," by Raphael of Montreal; "The last ray of the White Mountains," by J. H. Fraser, of Toronto; "Low Tide in the Baie des Chaleurs," by L. F. O'Brien, of Toronto; and two water-colors by the same artist.

No one has recently published a more valuable treatise on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impotency to Marriage, etc., resulting from excess.

Price in a sealed envelope, only 50 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

WINNIPEG, March 1.
To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

DEAR SIR,—When leaving Belleville I promised to give you some information I could through the press that would be of interest to those who intended to emigrate thither in the spring, also to those who had not fully made up their minds but were thinking of making their homes in this Province.

As I have not been here long enough to advise or give my own experience in the country, I send you an article that I clip from the Winnipeg Free Press of Saturday the 29th ult., which I think will at the present time be of much interest to a large number of your readers.

You will notice that it is written more particularly to the farming community. Though I have not been here very long, there is one thing I can say with safety, and that is that any mechanic who has a good situation in Belleville had better stay there, as the cost of living here is very expensive. The article in the Winnipeg Free Press does not give the price of land, but to a person coming here with a family, namely house rent. A house that would rent for from eight to twelve dollars per month in Belleville, cannot be had here for less than $25 to $35 per month. Wood is worth from five to seven dollars per cord— and poor wood at that—bush, poplar and oak. Dry goods and groceries are a trifle higher. The majority of the houses contain only five and six rooms, and quite a number of two and three rooms, which take up all the time to keep them warm during this season.

Any one that wants to experience and enjoy good winter weather, just let him come here for a month and he will be satisfied. People living in Ontario don't know what good sleighing is. They have good, sound sleighing here for four months, without thaw. The atmosphere is beautiful and clear. When the thermometer is down to 10 and 15 below zero a person can go about with as much comfort as at zero in Belleville.

The snow blockade between here and St. Paul is fearful. We have only had three mails from Ontario in twenty days, and it will be a week to-morrow since the last mail arrived. The Grand Trunk can beat this.

Business is very dull in Winnipeg this winter, but the business men anticipate a good trade in the spring.

Yours truly, J. G. M.

The extract referred to is as follows:—
Facts About Manitoba.

For what follows we are indebted to Mr. James Fullerton, who prepared the same as answers to questions sent to him, mostly from England, concerning Manitoba. We can confidently recommend the remarks to our readers, especially in so far as they apply to agriculture, inasmuch as Mr. Fullerton is himself a practical farmer.

SOIL.
Soil in Manitoba is a deep rich loam, the deepest subsoil not reaching through it. It compares more favorably with land in Dakota and the Great States, raising two bushels to one per acre.

GRAIN.
What is a better quality here than in the Eastern Provinces, as is evidenced by the fact of millers from the east buying up the surplus wheat, to be got and shipped to their mills, the hard, flinty nature making a better sample of flour. So anxious are they to obtain Manitoba wheat that they raised the price 20 cents per bushel in December, and the price remained firm at 85c to 95c per bushel during the season. With the exception of wheat the markets are higher in Winnipeg than in St. Paul, Minnesota, U. S.

ROOTS AND VEGETABLES.
Roots and garden vegetables grow to enormous size, turnips 30 lbs. and over each, potatoes 2 to 3 lbs. each, yielding 300 to 400 bushels per acre and have been known to reach six hundred. No matter how large the potato is, it is sound to the heart. Melons, citrons and cucumbers grow in the open air. The writer had nearly five citrons on a small bed four feet square; and on a bed the same size, cucumbers and melons in abundance. Indian corn and beans ripen and come to good perfection.

There are forty different varieties of wild grass in Manitoba, and they are so rich that a cow will eat 100 lbs. of milk, and the returns of butter are large. The writer has seen wild vetches 6 feet high, and so thick that a man could not go through them.

STOCK.
Cattle pay well in Manitoba, the wild hay costs so little, and is such good feed they require no grain in the long winter. About two tons to each head is sufficient to carry them through. Best here is all wild hay killed in the fall (Autumn) when the cold sets fairly in. Very few cattle die here, but during the summer 1879 one herd and there were many black quarters, but it is very rare, and only in localities where feed is very rich.

WATER.
The supply of water is unlimited, wells sunk to the depth of 14 to 20 feet tap in nearly every locality the very best of spring water. Small ponds and creeks supply the cattle with water during the summer.

JOURNEY.
The journey to Manitoba is now easily accomplished, and inexpensive. Ocean and

What Next?

The Ontario Government, in their efforts to centralize power in their own hands, with the object of securing to themselves a long lease of power, cannot fail to render themselves odious to every liberty-loving resident of this hitherto free country. Casting aside the thin disguise of giving the Conservative party a representation on the Board of License Commissioners, they now appoint in most cases friends only of the "Simon pure" stamp, and the influence which they may fairly be expected to bring to bear in favor of their patrons, will no doubt be in proportion to the nature of the interests concerned. Then they have seized the appointment of Division Court Clerks in cities, towns, and villages, and their latest addition to the catalogue is to make Sheriff appointments subject to the approbation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council—in other words, Mr. Morant and his colleagues. In past as well as in recent times, the Reformers of Canada have denounced tyranny of all descriptions, whether real or alleged. Let them now turn their guns against the Ontario Government, which is certainly the most grasping and tyrannical that ever held sway in Canada.

SATISFIED.—Mr. Dawson, head of the firm of Dawson Brothers, the eminent publishers of Montreal, expresses himself satisfied with the tariff as now rearranged, so far as it affects the book trade.

FOOTBALL.—Two teams of Scottish football players will visit America in May, and make a tour of the States and Canada. They will give Association game exhibitions, and, it is hoped, will present the beauties of that style of play with such skill as to secure its more general adoption on this side of the Atlantic.

FEVER AND Famine.—A cable despatch states that, consequent on the famine, there has been a sudden outbreak of fever on Kars Island, near Cape Clear, Ireland. Sixty-three persons are prostrated and one death has occurred. The population are destitute, and measures are being taken for their relief.

THE BRITISH YACHT FLEET.—The value of British yachts is estimated at $20,000,000, including only those over five tons. Smaller craft are classed as sail boats only. The fleet gives employment to 5,000 sailors.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 13.—The wages of the employees of the Atlantic, Topoka, and Santa Fe Railroad, have been raised 20 per cent.

OMAHA, March 13.—It is understood that orders have been issued to move the cavalry now on the White River, Colorado, to the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, where they will be put in prime condition to meet the anticipated trouble with the Utes, because of the intended removal of the latter from the reservation.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The Herald's San Francisco special says: As Kearney will appear before the workingmen's judges, he will probably be discharged. He has previously shown through this force seventeen times. There is evidence that the workingmen will shortly protest against Kearney's violent threats against action and prominent agitators, and show him up in his true colors.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The Tribune says the Government gets up an agreement with the Utes 100,000 acres of land for about 16 cents per acre. This price includes the estimated cost of the removal, pay for Ute improvement, surveys and funds for the annuity of Utes.

The Commissioner of Fisheries has sent an expert to thoroughly explore the Alaska cod banks and fisheries. This will be the first expert expedition of the Alaska waters.

The resolution calling for papers relating to the killing of the Poncha Chief, Big Snake, grows out of the testimony of a half breed Poncha that Big Snake was wantonly murdered by the soldiers while unarmed and resisting undesired arrest.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Burglars on Wednesday night stole property to the value of $5,000 from the residence of ex-Congressman Tees in Newark.

Wm. Lovell, aged 19, on Monday stole diamonds valued at $6,000 from his step-mother and disappeared.

An ingested was held yesterday on a man accused, apparently tramps, killed by a train on Tuesday near Kalamazoo. They were seen quarrelling.

A cable despatch states that the anticipated billiard match between Blossom, the young American expert, and Vignaux, champion of the world, at Paris has fallen through, Vignaux refusing to agree upon an impartial referee.

A Visit to the Gaol and its Results.

WHAT HOWARD, alias STUART, alias NEWBOLD, alias PROCTOR, HAS TO SAY, AND HOW HE SAYS IT.

Cuthbert Calvin Howard gained considerable notoriety in this locality last fall by the acts which led to his arrest, the fact of his arrest, and the circumstances which followed, resulting as they did in his acquittal. Our readers will doubtless remember that at the last session the above named personage was put upon trial for forging and uttering a cheque on the firm of L. W. Yeomans & Co. for $32. He pleaded the professional services of a legal practitioner and defended his own case in a very creditable and successful manner. Those who heard the trial will remember the character of his pleadings, as with tear-filled eyes, emotional, melancholy, saddened, downcast and apparently almost heart broken he offered his defence, which though certainly not evidence, had the wished for (to him) effect on the jury. He was undoubtedly an able man; he exhibited every evidence of scholastic attainments of a high order and presented other features in his manner of language that showed he was a man of more than ordinary ability. And now another Howard presents himself for the insertion of his name on the list that Sheriff Taylor will present to the Judge who will preside at the sittings of the Assize Court, which opens on Monday next at the Court House in this City. This latter individual is not incarcerated on the same charge as the one first named, the offence alleged against him being fraud and obtaining goods from Messrs. Ritchie and Ross by false pretences, the incidents of which as revealed in his preliminary trials before the Police Magistrate are familiar to our readers.

Deeming it to be of interest to the public, a representative of the INTELLIGENCER visited the gaol and had an interview with Howard. The accused man is large in stature and presented to the eye of the reporter but little evidence—except in manner of speech—of having led a fast or dissipated life. He is apparently about 38 years of age, compact and firm in build, and possessed of strong physical and active development. He was wearing a dark coat, without a coat, wore a blue navy shirt and looked neat and trim.

The preliminary efforts to elicit information from him in regard to his career met with a very insufficient response, but eventually the subject of this report became more talkative and finally unbosomed himself in the following strain: I by my present name Henry Howard—which, however is not my real name, though it is the name you (the reporter), know me by, was born in England on the 26th of November 18—, which was the only information he would give as to his age. I was brought up in the faith of the Church of England, and was the eldest son of respectable, influential and wealthy parents and received my primary education at Warwick House Academy, County of Warwick, England, where I remained until I was ten years old. I passed on to the grammar school at Stratford-upon-Avon, where I was educated for three years, and then entered on the books of Rugby School, where I studied for three years under the tutelage of Dr. Pusey. On passing my preliminary examination there, I was removed and gained admission to one of the Royal Military Schools, where I spent two years. I shortly afterwards came to Canada and located in the city of Kingston, where I entered on the study of the law with the late firm of Britton and Price, who looked upon me and acknowledged me to be one of the most promising students of the time. During my legal studies I was married to a lady, resident a short distance from the Limestone City. My married life was anything but one of comfort to my friends in dealing with the relatives of my wife, lost large sums of money; I remonstrated with them but without avail, and ultimately wandered off from the society of my friends, to lead a wanderer's life.

After drifting about for some time on the sea of life, one evening found myself in the midst of a ray and thoughtless through, carousing. I was placed with my enjoyment and was delighted with the dissipation of the vortex of fashion. On returning to my senses, at the earnest solicitation of my friends, I again entered a student's life and for a long time bent all the energies of my will towards once more recovering my former status in society, and after many months of difficult labor and earnest efforts, I obtained the degree of L. B., and M. D. Soon after I received a letter urging me to come to Canada and I complied with its entreaty. I was reinstated in the estimation of my friends, reconciled to my wife, joined a leading Methodist Church and after a short time I was appointed to fill an important station in its ministry, when, by hard study and with a firm reliance on the promises of God I gained the reputation of being a good and devout speaker in his cause. In a short time the old trouble (domestic infelicity) recurred, and with its accompanying evils crept into our home. One Monday morning after an unpleasant scene I left home. For three days I travelled on foot and suffered the anguish and sorrow of spirit man alone can know when, after living a life of usefulness and tiding over his difficulties he has regained his senses and found himself in the world still, in a world without friends.

With a little money left, and being too proud to beg or steal I entered the legal profession and hung out my card in St. Louis, Mo. After a lapse of some weeks, practice came in, I made money and found myself on the road to comfort and peace, if not to happiness. During the holding of a state fair in that city I first met my present wife. After a short time I had to leave there on account of my first wife having again found my whereabouts. I returned to Canada and on visiting my friends indulged in excesses of drink, and then did I endeavor to drown my sorrows and cares in the intoxicating cup. Becoming apprised of my danger (the second marriage) I again left Canada—I had hoped forever. I went to Florida and thence to Galveston, Texas. I met other there spirits possessed with the same genial nature as myself and I again entered into a new old wild and reckless life. And yet through all my wayward and dissolute career, a life spent in the midst of dangers by land and sea, yet was there one bright spot in my existence—the centered about the life of my wife and little one, who amid the vicissitudes of an earthly career and when others thought to separate us by the tale of my former marriage, and when my character was blackened in the most four manner, rose and still resolute in her woman's love, acted as my guardian angel. Day by day she strove to wean me from my wild life and at last succeeded by her persistent entreaties. I came north, and having made money, intended to settle in Canada again and turn my energy and talents to a legitimate course. Hardly had I got there, when on account of my early domestic troubles I left where I then was and again became an outcast. I was arrested for bigamy and tried at Toronto, was found guilty and sent to the Penitentiary at Kingston for two years, but I was liberated after serving less than three-fourths of my time. My wife constantly visited me during the period of my confinement, and cheering me on by kind words my incarceration was made less disagreeable than it otherwise would have been. On my release I determined to change my career, and avoid getting into any more "woman scrapes." Whilst in the prison I wrote a play entitled "Through to death, through death, or a convict's life in Canada," based on the incidents of my own life, as well as scenes from actual life exhibited in the Penitentiary. After my liberation I endeavored to get it ready for publication, but from the first to the last my efforts were unavailing, and I lost $800 by the attempted speculation, and gave it up in disgust. I next engaged in the sale of patent medicines, and by devoting my energies to it I made it pay, and succeeded. I sought a new home, and free from pressing embarrassments I concluded to settle in Belleville, where no one knew me. I rented a house and was furnishing it, when I, with a sufficient to meet my liabilities, was arrested. "You know the rest," concluded the interview, which, if not entertaining to all, will certainly prove of interest to many.

DEATH ON THE ROAD.
Sad End of Sarah Lancaster.
Last evening about 6:30 the dead body of a female was found in the road in front of the residence of Mr. Deleh Ham, in the first concession of Thurlow, about five miles from this city. She was discovered lying on her face with her head towards the east. She was coarsely clad and had with her a carpet satchel. After finding the body it was removed to the vicinity of the fence on the south side of the road and allowed to remain there until this morning. Her face and hands were discolored and gave evidence of early decomposition. The tongue protruded and the teeth of the upper jaw projected over the lower lip. Her mouth and nostrils were filled with sand and her face was scarred by the fall. She was apparently about forty-eight years of age, was a widow and resided about a mile east of where the body was found. Three of her children reside in this county.

Information brought to the city caused the holding of an inquest by Dr. Willson this morning.

After viewing the body the jury repaired to Mr. Ham's residence, where the witnesses were examined and the following information elicited. The evidence detailed the finding of the inanimate body which proved to be that of Sarah Lancaster, who lived at Duncan Campbell's. It was stated that she was addicted to drink, but from Campbell's experience he would not say that she drank. She went to Belleville on Tuesday and intended to visit one of her daughters in Sidney. She was supposed to be on her way home when she met her death.

After a brief deliberation the jury returned a verdict of "Found dead."

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR,—That we have reached the age of scholastic splendor, there can be little doubt. A day scarcely passes by that does not bring forth fresh luminaries in the firmament of literature. It was our unfeigned pleasure a few days ago to observe a particularly lucid body make its appearance among the journalistic constellation. The Ontario was the chosen altitude wherein the new orb was seen. This sky, I have noticed, is rather prolific of such apparitions. Periodically does that same star shoot through its space, with danger to this planet, perhaps not fully appreciated.

Some literate "separate school supporter" is mad about something, and on "duty" and with "unwavering faith" writes to the editor of the Ontario about it, who certainly understands "the position of a Catholic." What a pity you are not on the Board! How schools have degenerated since your day! As Heaven has no doubt blessed you with many children, it is to be regretted that the present "separate school" is not a "conscience" instead of being like yourself "moral" heroes.

The minds of the supporters were "poisoned by the pastor," so says the correspondent, but he hopes, "unintentionally," Maganimo soul! Would this sad and wicked world have been more like unto thee!

Friend Ontario, if you are wise you will not read a few lines of such stuff as this, the purpose of a public good, to throw dirt over your shoulders at men known and respected by the general community. If "Supporter" has a taste for literature, let him discuss whether this new law about to be passed, empowering you to marry a deceased wife's sister, will not have the sad tendency to greatly diminish the number of our in-laws!

MANHOOD RESTORED.

Prescription Free. For the speedy cure of Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and all other venereal diseases, without the use of mercury, or any other dangerous medicine. Dr. VILSON & CO., 78 Nassau St. N. Y.

The Great Cause of HUMAN MISERY.

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., resulting from excess.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Market Fees.

Mr. J. J. Farley again rushes into print, not with the intention of proving anything, but with the declaration that our assertion that Belleville paid its proportion towards gravel roads was untrue. In a letter to our Grt contemporary he says:

"Sir,—Yesterday's Intelligencer contained another 'long and labored' editorial concerning Market Fees.

Among many other things, the editor asserts that Belleville paid its proportion towards gravel roads. In fact, Belleville paid $2,456.80 a year for the last twenty years towards gravel roads. The money expended in building gravel roads outside of the town.

That assertion is simply untrue. Belleville paid $2,456.80 a year for the last twenty years towards gravel roads. The money expended in building gravel roads outside of the town.

There are other insinuations in the same editorial that are painted off the same stick.

J. J. FARLEY.

Tuesbury, March 12th.

In the first place, Mr. Farley's assertion that we said the Town paid certain money towards gravel roads "outside of the town" misquotes what we said, which was, that in the agreement for the separation of the Town from the County, the Town was arbitrated to pay to the County $2,456.80 annually for twenty years as the Town's proportion "towards free gravel roads."

Starting with a misrepresentation of what we said, Mr. Farley goes further and says that the amount paid by the Town to the County "was towards building bridges and gravel roads within the town of Belleville."

As Mr. Farley was one of the arbitrators on the part of the County who agreed to terms of separation between the Town and County, he should know that the latter assertion is incorrect, as the only clause in the agreement for separation between the Town and County which all refers to the matter in question reads, "That the Town agrees to pay to the County annually for twenty years the sum of $2,456.80, on condition that the roads are free." The italics are our own.

In the agreement referred to, the words "Bridges" and "gravel roads within the town of Belleville" never occurs, so that Mr. Farley must either be some Rip Van Winkle that has awakened after twenty years slumber with his ideas of what actually occurred twenty years ago befuddled, or he is endeavoring to make the public believe an agreement was made between the Town and County which he should know never was the case. Steer clear of imagination next time, Mr. Farley, and give us some facts.

Smelting Works.

"Canada First" writes to the Globe, pointing out that there is a fine opening for a capitalist to invest money in the establishment of smelting works at Madoc. The village itself offers many advantages. It is only twenty-three miles from Belleville and the Grand Trunk Railway [an error—should be 26 miles by highway, 294 by rail]—By En. Lrr.] It is in the centre of the mining district, is the chief market town of North Hastings, and will possess railway facilities once the Toronto and Ottawa Railway is an accomplished fact. Such works would find ample employment, as unexampled activity exists in the Madoc mining district. This is undoubtedly true as regards Madoc, and the same remarks apply to Belleville, which is the most favorably situated place in Canada for coal smelting furnaces, as here the coal brought in by water would meet the ore, transported by rail from Madoc, and here limestone for flux is to be had in inexhaustible supply at the very doors of a furnace.

It is beyond doubt that, even with iron and steel much lower in price than they are now, a good profit could be obtained from the manufacture of iron and Bessemer steel in Belleville. The quality of our own people as well as of capitalists in this matter, is simply astonishing.

The Blairton Mine.

We understand that there is every prospect that mining operations will shortly be resumed at the Blairton Iron Mines in Belmont. Mr. T. P. Pearce, the agent of the Company in Marston, has during the winter been procuring a quantity of tie to repair the Railway from Blairton to Rice Lake, and also got out a large quantity of wood for use at the mine.

One of the owners of the mines was on a visit to Blairton and vicinity last week, making preparations for the resumption of business, as soon as the season opens. This will be good news to the inhabitants of that section of the country, as it means the employment of a large number of men, and the expenditure of large sums of money.

Rev. J. O. Stearns writes: "I consider Perry David PAIR KILLER the best remedy I ever knew for Dyspepsia."

Madoc Notes.

Preparations are being made for extensive building operations in Madoc during the coming season. Mr. C. G. Wilcox, druggist, intends putting up a brick block adjoining his present premises, and from the appearance of the plan it is destined to be one of the most imposing blocks in the village. It is to be three stories high, will contain three fine shops; the second story will be fitted up for offices; and the third story will be converted into a large hall for the use of the Oddfellows, who have already rented it. The mason work is to be done by Mr. Retallick, of Oshawa, and the carpenter work by Messrs. Kerr & Walton, of Madoc. It is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy by the first of August.

Mrs. Moon intends as soon as the season becomes a little more advanced, to put up a new hotel on the premises they now occupy. The new building will be 63 feet front by 43 feet in depth, and built of brick. It will be three stories high, with mansard roof. The plans drawn by Messrs. Evans & Bolger, show a very imposing front. The main entrance will be in the centre of the building, the hall being fifteen feet wide. On the right will be a large reading room 12x19, and in the rear an office and coal room, with wash room in rear of that. On the left of the hall there will be two large commercial rooms; these rooms will be separated by a hall from the bar which is in the back part of the building. A balcony projects from the hall in the second story, and the second and third stories are divided up into parlors and good sized chambers. The present building is to be moved back and will be used while the new building is in course of erection. Work will be commenced early in April, and it is expected to be ready for occupation about the first of July.

A notice in aid of the parsonage fund of the Canada Methodist Church took place at Masonic Hall on Thursday evening the 11th inst., and was very successful. A considerable quantity of goods made up by the ladies of the congregation sold at good prices. The soiree—which by the way was an oyster supper—was very well attended, the proceeds of both netting the handsome sum of $70. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Tolson, of Bridgewater, and Rev. Mr. Martin, and readings by Mr. Peterson, while choice vocal music was given by Miss Dale, Miss Giffin, and the Misses Tavers. The entertainment was of a most pleasing character, and financially a success.

Major C. D. Rowe, President of the "Early Gold Mining Company" has some fine specimens of mispickel ore from that mine. He also has some four gold which he extracted from the ore in Marston. The ore was first crushed, then pulverized, and sifted through fine muslin, and then roasted. The result shows that the ore is very rich. This mine is situated in Rawdon, being the south half lot 3 in the 13th concession, and like many of the mines which are supposed to be good, has a law suit on hand.

Prospectors are scouring the County around Madoc, and many are the lucky finds reported, though these reports we need hardly say must be taken with considerable allowance. There is no doubt that new iron ore beds are being discovered, and there is also little doubt that other valuable minerals are being found, of which we will hear more anon.

The County Road from Madoc to Marston at this season of the year is in a wretched condition. As there is a large amount of travel over this road, more work should be done upon it. The County should make a yearly appropriation to assist in graveling this road in the same manner as the two miles east of Marston has been done. That is a good piece of work, and the whole of the road should be placed in the same condition.

The lumbermen have, notwithstanding the open weather succeeded in getting their logs and timber to the creeks and rivers, and as there is a prospect of an early break up, we may expect the "drives" to commence earlier than usual. Mr. T. P. Pearce, of Marston, has got out this year 500,000 feet of lumber for local use.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

EUROPEAN.

PARIS, March 16.—The first day's sale of Prince Paul Demidoff's collection of old masters yesterday, realized $32,000. Directly of museums in Berlin, Paris, Brussels and Antwerp were present, also Baron Rothschild and a number of Americans.

AMERICAN.

RICHMOND, Va., March 16.—Heavy rains have swollen all the tributaries of the James river and serious floods are feared.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 16.—Matthew and David Dow, Scotchmen, settled in Bell Co. and commenced teaching the doctrine of sanctification. This destroyed the domestic tranquility of a number of families by arraying wives against husbands. A party of men on February 10th flogged the Dows, and ordered them to leave the country. The British Consul at Galveston demanded of the State department what action had been taken to punish this outrage on British subjects. The local authorities were ready to act upon proper affidavits. A writ of habeas corpus was sworn out against Dows. They were taken to the Superintendent of the Asylum at Austin, refused them admission and they moved here and remain quiet.

BIRMINGHAM, March 16.—The first Northern train through from the Cape in four weeks arrived on Sunday. It is believed the blockades are over this season.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The failure of A. Merman & Co., brokers, yesterday, is attributed to their efforts to force a pool to raise the price of gold. The firm was liquidated with the loss of $200,000.

The steamer passengers on a French line from Havre yesterday made a formal complaint, denouncing the quality and quality of the food served, and charging that there was no separation of the sexes in the sleeping compartments.

RESULTS OF DOMESTIC INFELICITY.

A Scene in the Gaol.

HE TRIED TO CUT HIS THROAT AND COULDN'T.

John McCallum was formerly in Her Majesty's service and served his country well and faithfully, and to such an extent in office that he was adorned with "arm stripes." On the termination of his engagement, he left the scene of his former efforts and sought the occupation of the ordinary citizen and entered his home in a peaceful and apparently enjoyed for some years pleasantly, but eventually his wedded career turned out not to be the bed of roses his presumption led him to assume. A weakness for the cup caused him to commit acts which probably he in a sober moment would not have committed. A police court record discloses many of Jack's visits and fully explains the several incidents of his appearance there. The last—though not the least—was this. He had been indulging too freely in the intoxicating cup and on returning home he kicked the stove pipes out of shape, upset the stove, turned over the chairs and made things around the house very lively. As a result he was arrested, brought before the Police Magistrate and ordered to leave the house. He didn't and his incarceration followed. Discharged on recognizance, he returned to his wife and such was his character that she was greatly alarmed. Soon after he manifested a morose disposition and was evidently possessed of melancholia. On Sunday he was more uneasy than formerly, and this attracted the attention of his fellow prisoner Howard, who watched him closely. In the afternoon McCallum acted very strangely and going from the ward to his cell, where he had a razor was about in the act of cutting his throat when Howard prevented the commission of the foul deed.

McCallum is now in a sad frame of mind, and though he responds civilly to enquiries, it is evident that his mental faculties are not in proper order. He fancies that his wife will appear against him at the Assizes, and that he will feel very bad. He attributes his downfall to his wife, whilst those who know him best think otherwise. Further developments are awaited.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

DE SIR,—I regret that the Editor of the Free Press, in his last Saturday's issue, has thought it necessary to express annoyance at my letter in the Intelligencer of Wednesday last, and to reply with scant courtesy to a question which was most courteously worded. He says, "We cannot understand why Mr. Adams should make this sudden call upon us to search the Scriptures." In reply I would say there is a very wide spread belief that marriage with a deceased wife's sister is forbidden in the Bible, and it was for the purpose of eliciting a public expression of opinion from some more competent person than myself that I made the enquiry. An Editor is supposed to have a much deeper insight into all things than ordinary persons have, and I am therefore glad to find that the editor of the Free Press agrees with me on this subject. It is undoubtedly a fact that the marriage in question is not forbidden in holy Scripture, either directly or inferentially; the only inference we can reasonably draw being in favor of them, and I cannot imagine how their prohibition has found a place in that inimitable liturgy, the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, which is in most respects a very reflex of the inspired volume, itself. The passage of the law in question would undoubtedly result in happiness to many a motherless child, because in the majority of cases, it would be difficult to find a woman who would feel such affection for the bereaved little ones as the sister of their own mother. As it is a matter in which the public feel considerable interest, I would be very much pleased, Mr. Editor, to see an expression of your views on the subject.

Being an additional proof of the Editor of the Free Press being "foolish persons," who think his editorial "calculated to undermine all that is good," I remain

Yours truly,
GEO. ADAMS.

[NOTE.—Our opinion, asked for by Mr. Adams, is in belief that such marriages are not forbidden by the laws of God and ought not to be by those of man. They are in very many cases highly advantageous and desirable, and we hope to see the restrictions imposed in England removed.]

The Spring Assizes.

FIRST DAY.

BRITTON H. HALSTED.—Action of ejectment to recover possession of 1st No. 6, in 6th con. of Tyndalburgh. No defence. Plaintiff, Britton H. Halstead. Verdict for defendant. CHARGE OF BLANDER.

PALMER vs. SOLMES.—This was an action for slander. The parties live in Belleville; they have been very intimate friends—in fact are related. The plaintiff claims that for some reason, unaccountable, the defendant circulated a report that the plaintiff had been cohabiting with his daughter as man and wife. The plaintiff brings his action to recover damages for the slander on the ground of loss socially and in his business as an Insurance Agent.

NAMUEL D. FARLEY deposed that he was born in the Township of Sidney; the plaintiff in this case he had known for twenty-five years; he was the father of two children, a son and daughter, the latter of whom had married the late Mr. Jas. F. Meddell and after his death Dr. Palmer, formerly Principal of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb; on a call at Mr. Bennett's butcher stall, whilst talking with Mr. Bennett about an insurance matter, Mr. Solmes, the defendant, came in and made an accusation against Mr. Palmer and his daughter which cannot here be reproduced; witness told him to say no more, but he did not take it back; witness asked him to be calm and to be careful of what he would say; this was in the summer of 1879; the defendant then did not give any answer; witness was under the impression that Bennett could hear all that was said; after Bennett heard Solmes talking he closed the doors; Solmes was annoyed because I showed I did not like to hear him talk; witness talked on a subject at Ottawa, and the defendant there said he had received an Attorney's letter and asked witness to intercede and settle this matter; defendant made use of the names of "Aunt Sally," "Aunt Liddy," and some others as his authors; defendant said what he had said was true, and the plaintiff could commence his action as soon as he had time to do so; at a subsequent time defendant said he was very sorry for what had taken place; he had been friends with the family and was very sorry for what had taken place; this was about the 24th September last; Solmes had asked witness to use his influence to settle this case; in a conversation witness told Solmes that Palmer was going to Ottawa and Solmes asked him to speak on his behalf, but he subsequently ordered witness not to do so; afterwards Solmes said he had made an acknowledgment; he could not feel contented; he was sick and sore at heart; witness drew into it and was made a cat's paw by Dr. Palmer, who invited me to his place and was fooling me; he was sick at heart for what he had said and was sorry for it; defendant asked witness to settle the matter on several occasions; both were willing to settle when separated, but the defendant refused to settle when called on a witness went to both parties three times to avoid a case, without prejudice; when he visited Solmes or the plaintiff each was willing to settle, but no settlement was made; Solmes said he was willing to have the matter settled so that he could have peace of mind; he (the defendant) named a sum such that if you put your finger upon it you could not notch it; the sum was afterwards named at about $500 or $600, and the Palmer and the defendant should each pay their own costs; the families of the witness and plaintiff were on good terms; Solmes said he and Dr. Willson had talked about the matter, and that Dr. Willson was his author, but the latter denied this, and as the defendant was short of memory, he accepted the Doctor's statement; witness thought the plaintiff first told the defendant of this matter; prior to this the hospitalities of the witness's house were extended to both the plaintiff's and defendant's families, but the opposite followed afterwards; he did not, after he heard of this matter, invite either to his house; both plaintiff and defendant are men of wealth; this report would have a tendency to injure Mr. Palmer.

Cross examined.—On the first blush of scandal alleged against Mr. Palmer he had not forgotten him and did not believe it; Solmes and Palmer were related; and with the witness are by him considered cronies; witness said he did not believe the story concerning Mr. Palmer and his daughter; defendant said "it is so any way"; witness considered Palmer ought to know it and told him so; after that Solmes asked if Palmer ought not to know it.

Solmes asked that witness should use his influence to have this matter settled; defendant said he was sorry for what had been done, and had made an acknowledgment to Mr. Palmer; defendant said he was sorry he had said anything about the case; defendant had written an ample apology, and thought that was sufficient, as no action was then brought; witness asked a public avowal from the defendant of what he had said before Messrs. Meacham, Wallbridge and others; because this case was not thus settled witness thought that the witness was some kind of witness in the insurance business with Palmer, but not since last August; witness' anxiety was to get this matter settled.

By Mr. Wallbridge.—Mr. Palmer wanted a settlement brought about; witness did not attend the meeting at Bennett's treat Mr. Palmer as he had done before and did not invite him to his house.

By R. S. WILSON sworn, I know the plaintiff and defendant; Mr. Solmes spoke of this matter several months ago, and he asked if I had heard what had taken place between Dr. Palmer's wife and daughter; I did not say I had heard it; Solmes stated he had heard Mr. Palmer had been intimate with his daughter; I was not the originator of this.

By Mr. Dickson.—Solmes fell about this and he gave this as a rumor; I was surprised and did not concur in what was said.

JAMES J. FARLEY, sworn.—I know both the plaintiff and Solmes, and both are connected with me; I had a talk with Solmes some time before Christmas.

Solmes said he had heard of a report of impropriety between the plaintiff and his daughter, and he wanted it settled, for he had been on his knees two hours at a stretch, but that it would result to the glory of God; he blamed this on Dr. Palmer, and had confidence in him, that he would get him out of the scrape. I did not hear the plaintiff's folks to my house after leaving this story.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17.

City and Vicinity.

THE STORM.—One effect of the snow storm was to cause the employment of two horses on each of the street cars.

CLEARING THE TRACK.—A number of laborers were employed to-day clearing the ice from the railway track on Pinnacle Street.

POLICE.—There were two tramps and one prisoner in the cells last night. The officers on duty report that last night the door of D. Coyle's hotel was found unlocked.

NORWOOD CHEESE FACTORY.—Mr James Bird, of Holloway, writes to correct the statement that he had leased the Norwood Cheese factory. He has not leased, but has bought and paid for it. Our information was obtained from the columns of Norwood Register.

VALUABLE PROPERTY.—It will be seen by advertisement, that some very valuable mill property in Shamonsville will be sold by public auction on Friday next, the 19th inst., by Chase, Wilkins. As the property must be sold, a bargain may be expected.

THE LUMBER BUSINESS.—A despatch from Mill Point says:—H. B. Rathbone & Sons' lumber mill made its first start to-day since closing last fall. This is about a month earlier than usual. There is every prospect of there being a very busy season here in all branches of business.

BELLEVILLE BRANCH BIBLE SOCIETY.—
The anniversary meeting of the local branch of the Bible Society will be held, as per advertisement, on Monday evening next, the 22nd inst., in the City Hall. It is the duty of Christians of every name to give public expression to their estimate of the Bible, and the annual meeting of the Bible Society affords an opportunity to do this.
We hope to see the City Hall crowded on Monday evening.

KINGSTON ROAD CHURCH.—A most successful tea meeting was held in the Kingston Road Methodist Church yesterday evening; the attendance was large, the vicar, Mr. A. T. the music well rendered, and the addresses interesting. The Rev.
N. R. Willoughby, M. A. occupied the chair, the music was rendered by the choir of the church, the addresses were delivered by Mr. Bradley, Mr. Wm. Wensley, Mr.
Wm. Johnson and Mr. R. Richardson.
Mr. McCammon favored the audience with a beautiful reading with musical accompaniments, which was well rendered by him.
The proceeds of the meeting were some $55.

PRESENTATION.—A very pleasant reunion of the members of Mrs. Elliott's Bible class, took place last evening at the residence of their teacher, Bridge Street West. During the evening one of the most pleasing events was the presentation of the sum of $27.10 to the trustees of the Church, being the contributions of this class towards paying off the debt on the Church. The presentation was made by Miss Maria Dulmage, the oldest scholar of the class, being a member ever since it was organized, some six years hence. After the presentation, Rev. Mr. Locke replied on behalf of the trustees, thanking the class for the very handsome sum, which they had so willingly given. Other brief addresses were made by Mr. John Sherman, and Mr. Elliott, and a vote of thanks was carried unanimously thanking Mrs.
Elliott for the efforts she had made towards collecting the money and for the very agreeable, as well as profitable entertainment provided for the class during the evening.

IN MORNING.—The I. C. B. U. hall was to-day draped with mourning on account of the death of Mr. Thomas Hall, one of its members, who died from that fall destroyer consumption.

NEW PAPER.—The Emerson News is the title of a new journal published at Emerson, Manitoba, by Mr. A. D. Peterson (formerly of this city) and others.

The first number, dated March 6th, is before us. It is a neatly printed sheet of 32 columns, and appears to be conducted with ability. The News is Reform in politics, and its leading editorial is couched in moderate language and expresses broad views. We wish Messrs. Peterson & Co. success in their venture in the field of journalism.

CRICKET.—The cricketers of this city will be sorry to learn that their old time worthy and skilled antagonist of the Port Hope Club are threatened with dissolution.

Thus it is stated by the Times of that town:—"Port Hope Cricket Club, we fear, will be one of the things of the past.
The lease of the ground has expired, and cannot be renewed. The club is a good one, and we should like to see a portion of our public park levelled and appropriated solely for the purpose of cricket." It is to be hoped that the Town Council of Port Hope will have good sense enough to adopt the Times' suggestion and save to their municipality one of its most creditable organizations—one of the best, we might say, in the Province.

LITTLE'S LIVING AGE.—The numbers of The Living Age for the weeks ending March 6th and 13th respectively, contain the following articles: The Grand Duke of Tuscany, Westminster; The Beginnings of Greek Sculpture, Forthrightly; The Present Conditions of Art, November; The Chinese Banquet, Contemporaries; A White Rajah, Blackwood;

The Exiles of Siberia, Argosy; My Baby or My Dog?—The Chinese Banquet, Contemporaries; How Far is Common sense from attractive? Learning by Dr. Martineau and Addison, and Leonard's Wife, Standard; with illustrations of "Celia, an Itly," and
"Bush Life in Queensland," and the usual amount of poetry. Serial stories by Mrs. Oliphant and the author of "Dorothy Fox" have been recently begun, and the publishers present to the new subscribers for 1880 the six numbers of 1879 which contain the opening chapters of both. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year), the subscription price ($8.00) is while for $10.00 the publishers offer to send any one of the American 24 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, including the extra numbers of the latter, both postpaid. Little & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

POLICE COURT.

(Before A. Diamond, P. M.)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17.

LARCENY.

John Greenberg brought up for trial on the charge of breaking and entering, building belonging to Alderman Farley and stealing therefrom several articles, the property of that gentleman. Prisoner elected to be tried summarily and the evidence was very strong against him, but the Magistrate gave him until to-morrow to get evidence for his defence.

Marine Notes

The following items are condensed from the Oswego Palladium of Monday:

The Oswego tug association have fixed their rates for towing during the season of 1880. They are materially lower than last year.

The tug C. P. Morey, captain James Pappa, made the first trip from Oswego harbor for 1880 yesterday, when she went to Big Sodus with Mr. Geo. Goble to view the schooner Marquis, ashore at that place.
They boarded the beached vessel and found her in good condition but were unable to make soundings in the lake, owing to a heavy sea running. They will make another trip to the Marquis to-morrow, weather permitting.

CORONADO, March 12.—The schooner Caladonia has been sold by Wm. Haycraft to Capt. Maitland, and the present owners of said vessel are Messrs. Matthews & Maitland of Brighton, Ont. The schooner Eliza Fisher, Hannah Butler and Caladonia are chartered to carry from 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 feet of lumber from Cobourg to Oswego at private rates. With the above three schooners, the schooner Nellie Hunter has been wintering at this port. No others. The yacht Countess of Dufferin is now undergoing repairs, for what purpose is not known.

MILL POINT, March 12.—Sales of vessels
here have been good. The schooner Annie Mulvey is sold at $6,000. The Kittie Eccles is sold to Campbell & Ma-thurs at $7,500. She is loaded with ice for Charlotte and will be commanded by Capt. H. Mathews. The schooner Edward Blake, sailed by Capt. D. McDonald, is repairing here. Her bill will be about $6,000. The steam barge Saxon, sailed by Capt. U. Vanisteine, is being repaired at the amount of $600. The schooner F.
Howard is being rebuilt at a cost of $4,000.
The bay trading steamers Desoronto and Pilgrim are being overhauled. They are building a new tug for Georgian bay, 80 feet keel, 16 feet beam and 9 feet depth of hold.

BATH, March 10.—The schooner Flying Scud has been sold to Capt. Ostrander of Sutton and will be ready for sea by May 1.
She will make a fine vessel of her class.
The schooner Geo. Sufell is loaded with ice and the schooner Picton is also so laden in Picton. The schooner Paragon is ice laden at Sutton Bay. The schooner Geo. Sufell has changed captains and will be sailed by Captain W. Campbell. The times look some brighter than last year.

It is reported that a vessel owner in Toronto has been offered $1.10 per m. for pine lumber to Oswego for the season.

GONE TO ONTARIO.—The Montreal

Witness of the 13th says:—"About fifty emigrants went West in the 9:30 o'clock train this morning. They were a fine looking body of people, English, Irish, and Scotch, and with the exception of a few who are on their way to the North-West, their immediate destination is Toronto, from whence they will spread themselves over the Province of Ontario. They appear to be a good class of settlers, and carry a considerable amount of baggage with them."

THE VALUE OF WHEAT IN MANITOBA.

The Montreal Witness of the 10th says:—"One of the most important questions which intruding settlers in Manitoba and the North-West ask is, what is the value of the wheat which is so easily raised? A man who practices the art of sowing this question, and the only satisfactory one, is by quoting sales. Messrs. A. W. Ogilvie and Co. today sold 1,000 bushels of spring wheat at 81 per bushel in store at West Lynnot, on the western side of the Red River, Manitoba. The wheat was grown from Black Sea seed and was sold for milling purposes in Minnesota. This shows a very material advance on last year's price. It must be remembered, however, that wheat is unusually high this year, but on the other hand, the opening of railway facilities with the North-West will increase the relative value of wheat there."

VEGETABLES.—A telegram from Detroit,

16th March, says:—"No tidings of the propeller T. S. Faxon, which left Bay City for Tawas five days ago, with 40 persons on board.
The crew numbered 15, and the rest were all passengers. The run was only a few days.
The first was supposed to be the ship had been nipped in the ice, but now it is feared she has been cut in two and sunk."

COMMERCIAL NOTES.

Chicago, March 14.—The market for the Eight Avenue Street Railway Co.'s, of New York are building a stable to accommodate 1,200 horses at a cost of $150,000.
The market is very quiet. New maple syrup is quoted at 90¢@1.10, according to quality, and sales of new maple sugar are mentioned at 1.10@1.25. It is reported that several lots have recently been purchased in this market and laid aside for a time, although it is getting pretty late in the season. Another decline of 1¢ per cwt. in cheese was called from Liverpool this morning, the price now standing at 69¢. The market for the New York state are preparing to commence operations.

The Montreal Gazette of the 16th quotes markets in that city. A fair enquiry is expected for fresh eggs at 14¢@15¢, and eggs for lard. New maple syrup is quoted at 90¢@1.10, according to quality,
and sales of new maple sugar are mentioned
at 1.10@1.25. It is reported that several

Afternoon Dispatches.

Boston, March 17.—The wrestling match between McMahon and Dufour was declared a draw. The contestants' net receipts were $5,000.

LONDON, March 17.—It is rumored that the Duke of Connaught will succeed the present Viceroy of Ireland. It is also rumored that there will soon be a change in the chief editorship of the Times.

Rome, March 17.—During a discussion in the Italian Chamber of Deputies last evening the Premier Crispien, replying to strictures of members of the right, inquired whether the Cabinet of that party displayed great political wisdom in 1879 when they announced that they would respect the convention with France guaranteeing the integrity of the Papal territory only a few days before the force of events drove them into Rome.

Premier Lanza, premier when Rome was occupied by the French, denied that his Government took that step unwillingly.

Wild confusion and uproar ensued. Forwards attacks were made between the Right and Left, drowning the voices of the speakers. The declarations of Lanza, Salle, and Visconti Venosti, included some curious revelations regarding the Government's course towards France and the Pope, and respecting the September convention Mr.
Crispien asserted there were differences of opinion in Premier Lanza's Cabinet about occupying Rome.

Lanza denied this absolutely, but Salle confirmed it, almost exciting a quarrel between Lanza and Salle. The sitting was a quiet one, the session in the Senate of the Italian Parliament.

EDINBURGH, March 17.—Mr. Gladstone will speak here this afternoon. Offers of five and six guineas each have been made for admission tickets. Mr. Gladstone speaks at thirteen places between to-day and Wednesday.

LONDON, March 17.—At a large meeting of the National Land League in London yesterday, a letter from Mr. Parnell was read, dated Des Moines March 1st, in which he says, "The general verdict of the American opinion throughout the union is overwhelmingly in favor of a radical change in the Irish land system. We shall leave behind us in America a permanent organization in connection with the land league and prepared to support it financially and morally to any extent we may require, as such an awakening has come upon our excited countrymen here, as is impossible for those who have not witnessed it to imagine."

Arrived out, the Leaning, Doran and Helvetic.

ANTWERP, March 17.—Petroleum 15¢.

LONDON, March 17.—The Lincolnshire stakes were won by Ross Cross. Betting against Parnell was 10 to 1.

PITTSBURGH, March 17.—The Western Nail Association have decided to stop every nail machine west for two weeks, commencing on Monday.

WEATHER REPORTS.

fresh winds, mostly from the west and north;
generally clear colder weather.

ANTHONY CUREN.—FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.—Aphonia or loss of voice, is remedied in a short time, no matter whether the cause be from inflammation of the lining membrane, from cold, or from nervous derangement.

Other odorous waters undergo many variations of aroma as they fade into insipidity, but MORAY & LAMAR'S FLORIDA WATER passes through no such gradations, but when sprinkled upon the handkerchief or the garment, so it remains—delicate, refreshing, and delightful to the last.

indications of youth, such as nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF crepancy by a missionary in South America. Send

ADAM WALKER, of Toronto, Ontario, writes, in February, 1880, that after trying many Cough and Lung remedies for a severe cold which he has suffered with for 3 years he procured ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM and was being much benefited by it. In a letter still later, he said his lungs were all gone and he was rapidly becoming a consumptive. His appetite was much better and he felt like a new man.

Mrs. Partington says.

Don't take any of the quick nostrums, as they are injurious to the human system; but put your trust in Hop Bitters, which will cure general debility, costive habits, and all common diseases. They saved Isaac from a severe attack of typhoid fever. They are the only pure and safe medicine.

The Greatest Remedy Known.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY FOR CONSUMPTION is certainly the greatest medical remedy ever placed in the hands of suffering humanity. Thousands of hopeless sufferers now loudly proclaim their praise for this wonderful discovery, and they owe their lives.
Not only does it positively cure Consumption,
but Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Rheumatism and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs yield at once to its wonderful curative powers as if by magic.
We do not ask you to Hop Bitters, you know what you are getting. We therefore earnestly request that you call on your druggist and get a trial bottle free of charge, which will convince the most skeptical of its wonderful merits, and show you what a regular one dollar bottle will do for you. For sale by JAMES

GRIT EFFICIENCY vs. TORY INEPTITUDE.

Mr. Mackenzie, shortly after assuming office as Premier of Canada, it will be remembered made a speech in which he promised an honest, economical and thoroughly efficient administration of public affairs. There was to be no more corruption or inefficiency in the Cabinet such as (he stated) had become notorious under Tory rule; but there was to be a revolution, and capacity, honesty and efficiency, were to replace Tory stupidity, jobbery and ineptitude. What the result of this vainglorious assumption of the ex-Premier's redoubtable every school boy knows, or ought to know by this time, though there yet remains a chapter to be added to the miserable record of the Mackenzie administration, which it would have been well for the country had the same never existed. The matter to which we refer is perhaps best explained by the following report of a very brief discussion in Parliament which took place during the present session, and which is given by a contemporary as follows:

Mr. Peterson (South Brant) moved for a statement showing the amount of defalcations in the Customs House at Toronto, together with all reports, correspondence, orders-in-Council, and other papers respecting the same.

Mr. Bowell said he quite agreed to the production of all the papers asked for, and when brought down they would show that the attention of the late Government was called to the fact of a defalcation having existed in 1875 by one of the inspectors, and the country would then come to the conclusion that had the matter then been investigated, as it should have been, the present large defalcation would never have existed.

Mr. Burpee (St. John) said it was the first information he had received of a defalcation having taken place in the Toronto Customs House while he was head of the Department.

Mr. Bowell said that Inspector Kavanagh had made such a report in 1875, and if the gentleman did not know what reports were made to his department it was his own fault.

The motion was adopted.

As the sequel to this, the papers moved for have been brought down, and the following summary of their contents will show how just was the reflection of the present Minister of Customs upon his predecessor in that Department, and how Mr. Burpee's remarkable inefficiency and lack of decision caused a heavy loss to the country. The first paper is an extract from the report of H. Kavanagh, Inspector of Ports, dated September 14th, 1875, in which he says that he "found the cashier, Mr. McKay, was in the habit of retaining in his hands sums of money without the knowledge of his superiors. The excuse was that it might be required for refunds, which was a poor one, as return duties could be paid out of daily receipts. At the end of each quarter he made the deficiencies good, after being perhaps two or three months behind hand; a few weeks after he would be in arrears again; these deposits were so arranged that there was an average running deficit of $841." He called the collector's attention to the serious irregularity, and arranged with him that the chief clerk was to compare once a week each day's collections with bank certificate and that all collections were to be deposited at the bank in full daily. Following the Inspector's extract is a letter from the Commissioner of Customs dated November 14th, 1879, addressed confidentially to the Minister of Customs. He details at length his visit to Toronto to investigate into the alleged deficiencies and found that there was a delay of from four to five days in the collector depositing the custom receipts, and from his examination into the affairs of the office he considered that Mr. Smith was a defaulter to the extent of $16,854. On the 28th of the same month he made further and more minute examination and found the deficiency to be $20,167. He instituted a critical examination of the books and papers affecting the cash transactions and reported that there was nothing to indicate that there had been any falsification in the book, but that they bore evidence of having been carefully and correctly posted, the deficiencies being covered by a delay in depositing the receipts in the bank. Before leaving Toronto the Collector showed him a deposit of $8,000 in his bank account pass book, amount on account of the deficiencies then reported, and that he solemnly promised that the whole amount should be liquidated in a few weeks. During that visit to Toronto Mr. Johnston, Commissioner of Customs, arranged the affairs of the office temporarily till a new Collector could be appointed. The last paper in the collection is a minute of the report of the Privy Council, dated 10th July, 1880, dispensing with the services of Mr. J. E. Smith, Collector, and Mr. Chas. B. Mackay, Chief Clerk, of the Toronto Customs House.

Comment on the above would be superfluous, further than to say, let the people of the Dominion contrast "Tory ineptitude" with "Reform efficiency" in this instance, and say which they prefer.

Setting in Manitoba.

A very well-written letter appears in the Liverpool Daily Courier of the 2nd March, dated Rapid City, N. W. Territory, Jan'y 29, 1880. The writer gives a description of the climate, quality of the soil, condition of the settlers, &c., and tenders some very good advice to those who intend emigrating to Manitoba. Speaking of the soil, the writer says: "It is the best I have ever seen for cereals and roots; the latter are marvellous both in quantity and quality, and in both respects, rather open the eyes of an old country farmer." The writer makes the following reference to Mr. Dyke, the able representative of the Dominion Government at Liverpool:

"As this will reach you about the time when people will be thinking of making arrangements to come out in spring, and have no interest to serve, I take the liberty of giving such the results of my experience for their guidance in some small matters. To everyone coming here the first duty is to see Mr. Dyke, Water-street (I use his name without his knowledge), and state to him fully and frankly what he would like to be at, and approximately how many dollars he has available. Mr. Dyke, who is the representative of the Dominion Government, is thoroughly to be relied on in this thing relative to Canada. I have found this of every one of the Dominion officials with whom I have come in contact from Liverpool to our local land agent on the Little Saskatchewan. I have also found a courtesy and a general disposition to take any amount of trouble of the Interior to the district agent, of which I cannot speak too highly. Whenever the stranger finds himself in Canada let him get into immediate communication with the nearest Government agent, explain his position frankly, and do as he is bidden."

A New Soprano.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 19.—It is authoritatively stated that Russia will decline to hold communication with the new Chinese Ambassador until his Government ratifies the Livadia Treaty. It is also stated that the Chinese are already making incursions into Russian territory. The embargo grows daily more complicated. The Russian Government is becoming alarmed at the recently developed friendship between Leheng Chang and the Beasensfield Administration. The indications are that Russian encroachment in Central Asia is to suffer a serious check.

PARIS, March 19th.—Marie VanZandt, a young American soprano, aged 19, made a brilliant debut in the opera, came to a brilliant night. Adeline Patti, Clara Louise Kellogg, and Christine Nilsson were present.

NEW YORK, March 19.—There is a strike among the negro laborers in St. Charles parish. The Governor has ordered the military out. It is reported the negroes threaten to burn the sugar houses.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Times, Washington special says that Mrs. Christianity says the trouble with her husband arose from Christianity's son overhearing Zarahiah Chandler make a bargain for Christianity's seat in the Senate. When the latter learned his son had overheard the details and reported them to his stepmother, he was in great rage and gave her no peace, though his ill-treatment commenced earlier in her married life. Mrs. Christianity charged her husband with using opium and stimulants freely. Her mother figures in her story on her side.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Donations to the Herald fund yesterday amounted to $5,400, including $1,000 from an anonymous "Real-estate Spaniard." Total now reaches $300,300. The person who recently caused much annoyance to the Rev. Morgan Dix by sending out forged postal cards, writes to the Tribune that he will resume his persecutions to-day.

The ship Constellation, for the Irish relief, was yesterday put in commission at Brooklyn yard, and is en route for Europe. All the large guns have been taken out to make room for seed potatoes, canned meats, barrels of cornmeal and oatmeal, and other articles.

Cyrus W. Field has resigned the presidency of the New York Elevated Railroad, and West, St. Louis and Pacific Railroad. Solon Humphreys will probably be his successor in the latter Co. Field contemplates a pleasure trip around the world.

The Tribune says, the Standard Oil company has a corner in turpentine, and now holds 29,000 bbl., and has forced an advance of 100 per cent since October.

DEATH OF THOMAS KORSHAW.—Mr. Thomas Korshaw, the well-known grain broker of Montreal, and well-known in this city, having been connected with mining operations during the gold excitement of 1867-68, died suddenly in Chicago, on the 18th inst., from congestion in the stomach, just as he was about leaving on his return to Montreal. Mr. Korshaw was highly esteemed wherever known, and his sudden death cast a gloom among the Corn Exchange when the announcement of his death was made.

A SCENE IN THE STATION.

How it Worked in This Case.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon, Officer Down brought to the police station an aged woman, who gave the name whilst there of Mary Morrison. She was in the second and third years of old age, rather infirm and weakened by old age. Her hair was silver, her brow wrinkled and her general appearance that of one who had not gone through life's journey without trouble and care. She was ordinarily though comfortably clad, and it is something astonishing to think a woman of her age could be guilty of the charge alleged against her.

The causes which led to her arrest are these: She had visited the Albion Hotel, and whilst there appropriated a pair of kid mitts and a woolen necktie the property of Mrs. John Graham, of Hungerford. She at first asserted her innocence, but ultimately made an acknowledgment of her offence. She was brought to the station, and on being interrogated by Mr. Down and the Chief gave the above name, though she had formerly given others; she disclaimed disclosing anything relative to her life or residence. Bitterly did she bewail her lot, and with tears and lamentations similar to that exhibited in the "wreck scene" in the Shaughraun she bewailed her condition. Enquiry failed to reveal anything about her, and amid her ad protests such as "why did you bring me here after I gave the things back," she was taken to a cell. The lady to whom the property belonged being anxious to return home, her property was restored to her and she shortly after left town, whilst Mary Morrison, who it is said comes from Tyndinag, was held for examination.

The old woman was brought before the Court this morning, and as no one appeared to prosecute, she was lectured and discharged. Her excuse, when questioned by the Magistrate as to why she stole the goods, was a very funny one, namely, that so many people were present she did not know whether she stole the goods or not.

The Spring Assizes.

FIFTH DAY.

GORDON vs. PRISONER.—This was an action on acceptance. The defendant had accepted for Wm. Jeffs of Trenton. The defence was that the defendant was in insolvency when the Bill was accepted and should belong to the estate of Jeffs. A verdict was returned for the plaintiff for $325.34. Dickson and Ostrom for plaintiff; Henderson and Titus for defendant.

HANLEY vs. ROBERTSON.—This was an action on promise to recover the value of some plate glass furnished by the plaintiff for the defendant's block of buildings on Front Street. The glass was ordered from England through Ramsey, Drake & Dods, of Montreal. The glass reached Belleville station, the bill of lading was endorsed by Ramsey & Co. to the plaintiff and by him to the defendant, and by him to one Wensley the contractor for the defendant. When the glass reached the building it was found damaged, so much so, it could not be used and the defendant would not accept it. The plaintiff brings his action to recover the value of the glass. The defendant avers that the defendant was not liable, that the glass was injured in transit, and that the plaintiff had not filled his contract.

It is proposed to celebrate this jubilee by raising a fund of 10,000, and the prospects are that it will be done."

FIRE IN MONTREAL.

Drapery Catches Fire.

THE BODY SAVED.

NARROW ESCAPE.

HANDS LACERATED.

MONTREAL, March 19.

A fire broke out this morning in the house occupied by the Recorder. Sixteen of the drapery in the room where his remains were laid out, catching fire from the burning tapers around the catafalque. Although two policemen were in the room at the time, the flames bore down on all their efforts to subdue them, and the whole interior of the dwelling, which is situated on St. Elizabeth Street, is completely gutted. Mrs. Sexton, Mrs. Fair, Mrs. Bellocchase and a servant girl who were sleeping in the upper story, were lowered from a balcony in the rear, fifty feet, in their night dresses by means of a rope, their hands being much lacerated in the operation. Mr. Campbell, a boarder, the house, ascended to the roof and was rescued by the firemen. Mr. Sexton's remains were saved by the salvage corps with only a slight singeing. The house was owned by Mr. Danvers, Police Magistrate, whose loss will probably amount to $4,000; the furniture and effects were the property of Mr. Bellocchase, who lent a boarding house; her loss will exceed $5,000. Both landlord and tenant are insured.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

DEAR SIR,—I was pleased to notice in a recent issue of your paper that the Blanton iron mines were about to be reopened, which will indeed be good news to the inhabitants of that part of the country. This, in my opinion, is another practical argument in favor of the N. P. When Mr. Mackenzie came into power in 1873 those mines were in full blast, but in the spring of 1875, as soon as the evil effects of non-policy and misgovernment began to be felt, a number of the hands employed were discharged, and later in the same year the mines shut down altogether. And now, as soon as the beneficial effects of the N. P. begin to appear, we hear that work is about to be resumed. These are facts which should be noted by the voters of Belmont and the Dominion.

Yours truly, B. N.

Immigration.

Mr. Lowe, of the Department of Agriculture, in furnishing to the Committee on Immigration and Colonization statistics regarding immigration matters gave the following satisfactory statement: He said that last year the arrivals were 61,000. The class that came were almost all agricultural, the number of mechanics and clerks being very small. Since 1872 there had been assisted passages granted to laborers, servants girls and such like, in the spring of the year the order was changed altogether to embrace agricultural classes. It was the amount that the persons paid the steamship companies, and 24 by servants girls; the balance was paid by the Government. There was no provision made to keep the persons in the country who embraced the advantages of the Government assistance except their declarations that they intended to remain in Canada. There had been a general decrease in the expenditure of the department in the expenditure of the assistance offered from Quebec to the west. Of that sum Ontario paid two-thirds and the Dominion one-third of the total sum. That arrangement had continued since 1872. Ontario looked very sharply after the placing of the persons whom that Government assisted from Quebec to Toronto. He believed that after the immigrants arrived at Toronto, the Ontario Government always paid the full passage of that person from that point to their final destination in the province. The total number that took advantage of the 25 rate last year was 7,123. The tenant farmers' delegates had been very favorably of the country. Mr. Bruce, who remained over to report on the Maritime Provinces of New Brunswick and the department, and they were only received from England that morning. By glancing at the report hurriedly, he saw that Mr. Bruce had spoken very favorably of the adaptability of the Lower Provinces for stock raising. The effect of the tenant farmers' delegates' reports had been marvellous, and he thought there would be a large influx of that class coming to Canada during the present year.

The reports had been very generally circulated in England, and Mr. Annand was now receiving daily from fifty to one hundred letters from persons in those sections. The delegates were chosen by meetings of the tenant farmers and the Government paid their expenses. The cost of the delegation was about ten thousand dollars. Of the 7,123 who came out to follow agricultural life, the great bulk had shown that they had followed some kind of farm life in the old country; only about two hundred had never been on farms before. The greatest number of immigrants had come by the Allan steamers, the organization being most complete among the officers of the line. There were 10,000 immigrants to Canada from the United States last year. The Canadian Government had no machinery whereby they could tell how many had come from Canada to the United States.

HANLAN AND TRICKETT.—The Mail of Saturday says: "Yesterday morning Hanlan received the following cablegram from Australia: 'Will go to England if you will meet me there in July. Answer, Edward Trickett.' Hanlan replied, 'Cannot, will write.' This matter has been referred to in the Mail before, on the occasion of Hanlan receiving a letter from Trickett a few weeks ago to the same purport as the cablegram. The reasons were then stated why the champion finds it impossible to accommodate his Australian rival until late in the fall or during next winter. Those reasons remain the same now as they were then, and consequently there is no chance of Hanlan and Trickett coming together the ensuing summer. It may be stated that Hanlan on Thursday received a letter from Mr. Soule, embodying the understanding arrived at on Saturday last, but with some material additions. Mr. Soule gives Hanlan ten days to consider whether he will accept, and for a day or two the matter will remain in abeyance."

THE BANKING BILL.—It is said that by the new Government Banking Bill the circulation will be made the first charge upon the assets of the bank, that the Government's issue will be confined to denominations under five, and that only some $3,000,000 will be issued this year.

$4,000 REWARD.—The Ontario Government has offered a reward of $4,000 for information that will lead to the conviction of the Donnelly murderers. If this had been done the day after the horrible butchery, there would have been some likelihood of the real murderers being arrested, but at this late day it is very questionable whether the offer of the large reward will have the effect desired.

THE TRIBUNE SAYS.—The trotting horses to be sold in Kellogg's combination at the American Institute to-morrow and Wednesday, include Judge Folliott, record 2:18; Ames, 2:20; Valiant, 2:21. Ninety-five animals are named, the property of 20 different breeders.

Mills Burned.

LOSS $12,000.

CONSECON, March 21.
The Consecon grist and saw mill, owned by Mr. W. H. Marsh, of this place, was burned to the ground about one o'clock this morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $12,000, partly covered by insurance. Owing to the central position the mill occupied in the place and the heavy scale that was raging, it was with great difficulty that several other buildings were kept from burning.

Marmora.

(From a Correspondent.)

The new organ in the Episcopalian and Canada Methodist churches here having arrived give great satisfaction to their respective congregations, both with regard to their size and appearance, and also their sweet melody of tone, and as the Rev. S. Macaulay, pastor of the latter church, truly remarked regarding the one his people have purchased, it "encompasses everything they have had so far."

Miss H. Pearce, a leading amateur, has been appointed organist in the C. M. church, and Miss Bleeker of the Anglican church.

For the last week Arles as usual has proved boisterous. The gale, sunning, slush and premature warm weather of the previous weeks is now rare. Vennor's predictions at last seem to be verified to some extent at least.

Mr. W. Irwin, who was for a number of years a resident of Marmora, but who now resides in Douro, was through here last week. He describes the destitution of the people at Allan's Mills in harrowing details. One woman, a widow, has to make shingles for a living in order to support herself and family. However, necessity knows no law, and honor be to the brave woman who, unaided, successfully battles with adversity. He also humorously describes an Irish wedding which took place lately in his township, at which whiskey enough was provided for, which when shipped in "Bannikill," instead of a private party, and poultry enough consumed by the hungry guests to start a poultryer's shop.

It seems gold has been discovered on the farm of P. Van Vostorlop, Methuen, 1st con, lot No. 1, which promises to be remunerative. It is certainly to be hoped it may, as settlers there certainly need something of the kind in that remote and not very fertile township.

The people in the northern and poorest portion of Marmora at present are suffering considerably from the stern visitations of "chill penny," and our own poor seem frequently to be forgotten, amidst the universal sympathy for those of "Erin's green isle."

Mr. Mackintosh seems to have got at last him, as the ratcatchers. The new method of teaching is now generally practiced here. A refractory teacher, however, a short time since in the rear of this township, gave the stern and thorough Inspector some trouble, by obstinately refusing to conform to the present improved mode of "teaching the young idea how to shoot," and he actually went so far as to follow his Inspector to another school house, with the intention of either abusing or attacking him, but Mr. Mackintosh had left, so the enraged teacher was foiled of his object.

Not much sugar has yet been made in this vicinity, the weather lately having been unfavorable for the flow of the sap.

It appears that D. D. Johns has been appointed Treasurer for Marmora and Lake, and meets with some trouble from the Amazonian ladies of the north, who in the absence of their lords and masters object vehemently to give particulars of personal or landed property, and often give only a partial account.

FRITZ.

"Birds of Prey."

UNEXPECTED DEMAND FOR POULTRY.

A sudden and unparelleled demand for poultry manifested itself very unexpectedly in the 5th concession of Thurlow, in the vicinity of Fairfield's bridge, at an early hour on Sunday morning.

William Henry Davis is a farmer, and lives in the locality above named. He is who, on the 10th December, was the victim of the "jack-knife game," in which he was peculiarly interested to the extent of $40. And now he mourns the loss of 40 hens.

On Saturday evening he returned home after having served on the jury during the week. He had a great deal to do, and it took some time to do it; in fact before he got through with his labors the hour of eleven had passed. He retired to rest from his labors and in the morning went to the barn only to discover that forty hens belonging to him had been appropriated by some one whom he knows. He gave information to the police and is confident the arrest of the guilty one will result.

Marine Notes
Port Hope light-house was lit up for the first time this season on Friday night last. For the carriage of lumber from Brockville to Oswego $1 per m. is offered.

Prospects for the opening of navigation at Port Hope are that for the first month matters will be dull, but after that there will be plenty of lumber to carry.

Owing to considerable receipts by road and rail, the elevators here are filling up rapidly, and there will be a considerable quantity of grain for shipment as soon as navigation opens.

The life saving stations at Big Sandy Creek, Mexico Bay, Oswego, Charlotte, Buffalo, Erie, Fairport, Cleveland and Marshfield went into commission on Saturday. The service saved 600 lives last season.

YACHTING.

ITS PROSPECTS HEREABOUTS.

As the season advances the thoughts of yachtsmen here are expressed and ideas of what they will do promulgated. When the weather permits their craft will be put in shape for the season and placed again in their element. It is probable the Gracie will be lengthened and that others may undergo slight alterations. As Yonatan, Mr. Alex. Cuthbert, has made excellent progress, as he has three yachts under the brush of the painter, two of which will be sailing craft and one steam. The larger one, which is an improvement on the model of the Annie Cuthbert, and which has already been alluded to in these columns, will be called the Robert D. Cunningham, the gentleman after whom it is named being an enthusiastic yachtsman. When the season permits the Danforth, which flies the champion pennant of the Bay of Quinte Yachting Club, will be challenged for the possession of that trophy and a match will be arranged for that purpose.

Mr. C. has already procured the necessary material for a six ton cutter, the construction of which will be pushed forward with rapidity. A steam yacht 45 feet long, 7 1/2 feet beam, to be fitted with a double engine, sixteen miles per hour, will also be shortly put in frame by the same party. She is for a gentleman resident in Belleville. The boiler and engine will be furnished by the Martin Brothers of this city.

Altogether the prospects for yachting are as favorable here now, as formerly, and the coming season will doubtless witness some excellent contests on the waters of the Bay of Quinte.

MIDDLEMEN.

It is absolutely necessary in meeting the greater part of our wants, that the Merchant intervene between the producer and consumer. Every one who wants a pound of tea cannot send to China for it, nor can the Chinese tea grower come to our door. The young lady who wants a silk dress cannot go to Lyons for it, nor will the Lyons silk maker come to her. But while this is the case, it is still true that the fewer hands the goods pass through between the producer and consumer, the better it is for both. The high price the consumer has often to pay, is generally owing to the goods passing through the hands of an unnecessary number of dealers before they reach him, each having made a profit. Owing to our business connections in Great Britain, and by combining with fifteen to eighteen Merchants throughout Canada, we are enabled, by making all our purchases together and paying cash, to buy from first hands at the source of production, namely, the Manufacturers of England and the Continent of Europe, and thus save to ourselves and to our customers the profits of the Middlemen or Wholesale Dealers. This reduces the cost of our goods very materially, and it is in this way that we can sell goods at a lower price than others, as well as give a better quality. Some of our Stockholders who have not the same advantages.

County Councils.

For a length of time past the cost of legislation in Canada has been earnestly discussed by the press, and the conclusion has been reached by a great many journals that, what with the Municipal and County Councils, the Provincial Legislatures and the Dominion Parliament, there are too many Legislatures and that the sum paid out for legislation is too great. Hence some writers recommend the abolition of the Senate; others that of the Provincial Legislatures, or at least biennial sessions, whilst still others urge that County Councils be either done away with or the number of members materially reduced. In order, therefore, to throw some light on the latter subject, we give the following figures, which are tabulated from a return presented to the Ontario Legislature, and which are published by the Owen Sound Times. The number of Reeves and Deputies respectively, with the number of sessions held in 1879, and the total number of days each Council was in session, were as follows:—

Reeve	Days	Sessions	Days
Brant	6	6	9
Brock	23	14	15
Carleton	12	12	19
Elgin	11	14	4
Essex	16	10	12

Waterloo	12	13	15
Welland	14	8	12
Wellington	24	20	17
Westmorland	25	13	10
York	18	25	21

The relative cost of each County Council in 1879, compared with the number of members, was as follows:—

Members	Cost	Cost per member
Brant	12	$32.50
Brock	37	1478.10
Carleton	24	1158.29
Elgin	25	43.26
Essex	26	724.00
Frontenac	22	1565.59
Grey	41	2625.95

Welland	22	1037.00
Wellington	44	2299.50
Westmorland	20	571.60
York	25	286.40

From these returns it appears that the average duration of sessions was 14 days, and the average cost of each member to the County $41.65. It is further apparent that in this regard Simcoe heads the list with an average cost of $112.65 for each member for 22 days' sittings, whilst Hastings is second with $74.85 as an average for each member for 14 days' sittings. As these returns, however, do not specify how much of the amount paid to members was for mileage, no fair comparison as between Counties can be formed, as Hastings being one of the largest Counties, the sum paid for members' mileage amounts to very nearly one-half of the total paid to members, the pay of Warden and Councilors for Council work (supposing all to have been present at every sitting) would amount to $1,918.

Costly as the County Councils are, we are yet strongly opposed to their abolition, and at the same time believe that members are paid no more for their services than they ought to be. In fact, when their modest $3 per day is compared with the "indemnity" paid to members of other legislative bodies, it looks very small indeed. The duties which they have to perform could not be relegated to any other body without detriment to the public interest, and therefore we regard the County Councils as a necessity. That it might or might not be advantageous to reduce the number of members, we are not prepared to say; but in our belief the pruning knife ought to be applied to the Provincial Legislatures before being used upon the County Councils. In Ontario the number of representatives in the Legislature is needlessly large, and the indemnity might be lessened as well, to the advantage of the public, whilst in some of the other Provinces the legislative machinery is altogether too extensive for their wants. These are conclusions which we think will not be largely disputed from, and which are not unlikely of realization, as the more the subject is discussed the plainer does it appear that a reduction of expenses in the direction indicated is necessary.

The Opera House.

LAST NIGHT'S EXHIBITION.

The second entertainment of the pupils of Mr. E. W. Johnston, the instructor in the Mechanics' Institute gymnasium, was given in the Opera House last evening under the patronage of the ladies of the Institute. The attendance was not as large as the character and quality of the entertainment merited, yet it comprised the elite and fashion of the city.

In opening the programme Rev. Mr. McLean said it was a pleasure to him to see so many ladies present, as their attendance was expressive of the interest they took in the welfare of the Institute. It was but three years since this institution was established, and its progress was remarkable, as now there but few in the Province that were its superiors. In addition to its library of $1,200 worth of books, it has a large reading room supplied with prominent newspapers, a chess room and a gymnasium fitted with all the necessary appliances. Besides classes were taught, and amongst them was that of Rev. Mr. Schuler, who was teaching French and German. The Institute had now between 400 and 450 members, and he only hoped that this number would largely increase. He concluded by expressing the hope that such encouragement would be given to the Institute that it would become self-sustaining.

The programme proper then opened with a splendid drill and march, which was followed by Indian Club exercises. Then succeeded athletic, gymnastic and acrobatic feats, in which remarkable proficiency was displayed and amongst the principals in which were Masters Wolaver, Leavens, Dickens and Messrs Gordon, Wallace and Macoun. Mr. H. H. Leavens, in a very neat and attractive attire, filled the role of the clown in a capital manner, and his antics and efforts created considerable merriment. As an inducement for the pupils to do what they could, a plated vase was set up for competition and the lucky one turned up in Master Dickens, who proved himself to be very expert in the several exercises.

Alex. Robertson, Esq., M. P. P., expressed his pleasure at seeing such an intelligent audience present and felt gratified at the success the Institute had attained.

Mayor Patterson and Mr. W. H. Ponton acted as judges in the competition, and their decision awarding the prize to Master Dickens met with the entire approval of the audience. Chief McKinnon acted as Master of Ceremonies, and filled his office with the greatest satisfaction.

At the close His Worship the Mayor, said cheerily, presented the vase to Master Dickens, and the proceedings then came to a close.

The Oddfellows' Band was present and lent the entertainment with a number of excellent musical selections, which were well received.

It is a pleasure to note that the Institute is accomplishing so much good as is stated, and we trust that it will go on and prosper until it becomes the first of its class in the province.

New Post Office Building.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

In compliance with a requisition, our worthy Mayor has called a public meeting for Wednesday evening next, for the purpose of selecting a site for the erection of the proposed new Post Office and Customs House in this city. If the city were proposing to build on the land, or if the Government had asked the citizens of Belleville for their advice in this matter I could well understand the propriety of this meeting; if not, then it appears to me useless and unneeded. Whether intended or not (and I believe not) for us to give advice in the premises will have the appearance of intimating to the Government that we have little confidence in their wisdom and discretion. Having full confidence that they will exercise that discretion wisely and for the best interest of the public, with all due deference to the signers of the requisition, I would suggest that the matter be left in the hands of the Government, who alone are responsible and who would only be embarrassed by any crude and unskilled advice that we might send them.

Still, I hope that those who hold the same views as myself will not absent themselves from the meeting, but that they will attend and endeavor to prevent any game being played in the interest of any one property owner or locality.

Yours, &amp;c.,

TOO MUCH PUZZLE.

This fifteen puzzle business has developed into a craze, the latest instance of which is its appearance in the editorial columns of the Star, Examiner and Observer (in management). Globe. The Globe organ, not to be outdone in enterprise by any Tory rival, gives a 36 square puzzle, but with the figures so mixed that a year's time at least would be required to set the tangled mass in order. This is done under the disguise of representing the puzzle as the diagram of a township in the Northwest, as projected by the Government, but the puzzle will none the less agitate the brains of the faithful on that account, as it bears "fifteen" all hollow.

THE COAL TRADE.

The Halifax Herald thus clearly explains the effect of the coal duty on the production of that mineral in Nova Scotia in 1879: "Had it not been for the National Policy, the year 1879 would have seen the closing of most of our coal mines. The unequal struggle which they were waging with the American coal mines—every year becoming more unequal—would have compelled them, had no succor been afforded, to follow the course of many others, and stop work. As it was, the National Policy when introduced last March found them paralyzed, and except in some few instances, unable to take immediate advantage of the protection afforded them. The price of coal in the United States, during last summer, went down lower than it ever before reached in that country, with the effect of greatly reducing our sales there, and had it not been for the duty, would have driven our coal completely out of the Canadian market. As it was the abnormally low price of American coal joined to the weak and disheartened condition of many of our Coal Companies, and the scarcity of shipping during the Autumn, had the effect of seriously neutralizing the good effects of the duty. Had it not been for the duty however, these causes would have virtually put an end to our coal mining industry. As it was, we have been enabled to hold our own, and with the removal of these causes we should be able to make a large advance during the present year."

POSTAL REVENUE.

It is of some interest to know the amount of revenue received by the Post Office Department at Ottawa, for the several cities and towns in the Province of Ontario. The following is the list as taken from the returns made by the Postmaster-General: Belleville, $12,392; Brantford, $12,058; Guelph, $11,183; St. Catharines, $10,872; Brockville, $8,254; St. Thomas, $8,197; Chatham, $7,793; Stratford, $7,408; Peterboro, $7,408; Woodstock, $7,046; Galt, $6,179; Ingersoll, $6,150; Port Hope, $6,019; Barrie, $5,933; Cobourg, $5,476; Windsor, $5,294; Lindsay, $5,234; Napanee, $5,026; Barina, $5,001; Owen Sound, $4,351; Watkinson, $4,207; Collingwood, $4,078; Orillia, Simcoe, $4,013; Bowmanville, $3,947; Sarnia, $3,809; St. Marys, $3,875; Whiteby, $3,633; Berlin, $3,612; Perth, $3,340. The revenue derived from the other cities is: Toronto, $25,563; Hamilton, $49,150; London, $23,913; Ottawa, $28,026; Kingston, $15,331.

AN ITEM FOR FREE-TRADERS.

The Toronto Telegram says: "The opponents of the National Policy would not note with a feeling of pleasure a brief despatch from Berlin which says that the German National Policy is having the effect of largely supplanting articles formerly imported with those of native manufacture, a result which is the experience of Canada, though there are those who are so wilfully blind that they will not see any improvement in condition of the Dominion within the last year. The success of the German tariff should lend support to the framers of the Canadian Policy, for the positions of these two countries are more nearly analogous than are those of Canada and the United States. The success of protection in the Republic has often been attributed to there being within the United States practically so many countries, enjoying between each other the benefits of free trade. The advocates of protection have claimed that it is the only policy which can foster a nation, and they will rejoice that facts are bearing out their theories."

THE GOVERNMENT BUILDING.

The Question of Location at Issue.

NO DECISION ARRIVED AT.

A public meeting to take into consideration the selection of a suitable site for the erection of the contemplated Government buildings was held in the City Hall last evening at eight o'clock.

The attendance was but meagre at the opening, and yet it comprised many of our prominent citizens.

At eight o'clock His Worship the Mayor took the Chair, and on motion Mr. Wm. L. Hamilton was deputed to act as Secretary, but he declined, and Mr. Jeremiah Thompson was appointed to fill the position.

The Secretary then read the requisition calling the meeting, after which the Mayor said the requisition explained itself and he hoped the promoters of the meeting would have a definite place of action to work on, and he would therefore call upon them.

Mr. Thomas RITCHIE said, doubtless the Cabinet would like to hear an expression of opinion in regard to the location of the proposed buildings, but he would desire that the Government would not be embarrassed by any action that might be taken. What he desired was a central location for the contemplated buildings.

Mr. M. A. DIXON said the public buildings should be situated in the central portion of the city, equidistant between the wharf and the station. It was a good thing in his opinion to have the public buildings easily accessible to all. He was satisfied it made no difference where the Custom House or Post-office was, as they would have to go where the business was done.

There was considerable stamping indulged in about this time, which was only quieted by the speaker taking the platform.

Mr. DIXON continuing, said he was going to move his resolution if he took an hour to do so. He moved that the locality on the corner of Front and Hotel streets or in the vicinity of the Bank of Montreal should be the site selected for the location of the proposed Government buildings. In furtherance of his motion the speaker said Belleville was to become a central point, and in two or three years would have a grand union depot and refreshment rooms and become a centre of trade.

Here there was considerable noise and stamping of feet, and the result was the speaker left the platform.

Mr. DIXON again came on the platform and urged, amid noise, that the site chosen should be the corner of Hotel and Front Streets, the former of which would become the Wall Street of Belleville. (Cries of "hold down" caused the speaker to sit down.)

By this time the audience had considerably increased, and all appeared to manifest an interest in the proceedings.

Calls for Dr. Hope brought that gentleman forward. He said he never hesitated to express his views on any subject, and now if the Government of the day had pressed a wish to locate the public buildings, he had no desire to say anything in the premises, particularly as the Minister of Public Works had been here. There were two locations named for the site of the proposed buildings, and notwithstanding the resolutions the matter should be left to the Government, who would be held accountable for the selection. He knew of two places suitable for the purpose proposed, and the site chosen, the Government should be held responsible. He had never heard that the Government had asked that we should select a site. Our city now had a representative in the Cabinet; he knew our requirements, and it was a suitable location was not chosen we would know upon whom the blame should be thrown.

Mr. JAMES MEASURES said a certain amount had been put in the estimates for the erection of public buildings in this city. It is not likely the Government will act as we say, but they will hear of our action. The buildings should be put up in a place where they will give the most accommodation to the public.

He moved, seconded by Thomas Ritchie, that the buildings be centrally located. In furtherance of his resolution, the speaker said he had nothing to do with the selection of a site, but he would assert that the more central the location the more advantageous would the buildings be to the people at large.

Mr. RITCHIE favored a centrally selected site for the proposed buildings, and considered that the Government were desirous of meeting the wishes of our people and would be glad to have them express their views on this matter.

Mr. DIXON rose to speak, but was met by a series of interruptions until he took the platform.

Mr. C. V. ROBERT—How many times can one person speak?

Mr. DIXON said he could not see how a motion could be put subsequent to his motion without being an amendment. (Here there was considerable noise, amid which Mr. Dixon's point of order was declared proper.)

Mr. A. DIXON said we deserved such buildings long ago, and now we were indebted to an old citizen for their erection—a gentleman who was now Minister of Customs, and for whom we entertained a proper regard. The Government intended to put in one building the public offices, and it would be unwise and uneconomical to put up separate buildings. The place nearest the market and city buildings is where the people come, and it is the most convenient place. The public buildings business houses are on Bridge Street, which was now a central business street. In expressing his own views he would favor either corner of Pinnacle and Bridge Streets, but he had every confidence that Hon. Mr. Bowell would act in his best discretion and he was confident, would act to the loss of his ability in this regard. He favored leaving this question to the Government, who would be held accountable for their selection. He concluded by moving in amendment to the amendment, that it is inexpedient to interfere with the Government in their selection of a site for the proposed buildings.

Mr. E. B. FRANKEL was he confident the Government would select a proper site for the proposed public buildings. The Government, however, he had no doubt, would pay proper attention to any resolution this meeting might deem fit to pass. As citizens we should either leave this matter to the Government, or name a site for them. He favored the leaving of the matter to the Government, who, he was confident, would deal liberally with us. If the selection of the site were left with the Government, it would be as graceful an act as we could do.

Mr. HANFORD ASHLEY considered that the Government should not be blamed unless the people showed where they wished the proposed buildings located; he favored the location of the Post Office at least one block further north than it is at present situated. He had confidence in the Hon. Mr. Bowell, and was sure if the people wanted the Post Office and Custom House further north, he would comply with their wishes. Hotel and Front Streets should, in his opinion, be the locality in which, for convenience, the public buildings should be located. If a site can be selected north of Bridge Street as cheap as another place, the preference should be given to the former.

Mr. A. DIAMOND favored the leaving of the selection of a site to the Government.

Mr. RITCHIE again spoke in support of the amendment he had seconded.

Dr. Hope again spoke, and his remarks were uttered amid considerable confusion.

Mr. DIXON again took the floor. Stamping of feet followed, which drew from him the remark, "I'm going to stay here for 24 hours." Mr. D. continued to speak, but stamping and talking and whistling prevented his being distinctly heard.

Mr. W. R. BARBER—"I move this meeting adjourn."

Mr. J. B. FLINT said it was impossible to arrive at a decision, as the members of those favoring certain sites were here in force. He approved of the drawing up of a petition setting forth the views of those who favored a particular location.

Mr. MEASURES wished to add a rider to his motion, but to this proceeding Mr. Diamond objected.

Mr. DIXON got up to speak but could not be heard.

Cries of "Kelo," "Kelo," brought Mr. Thos. Kelo to the front. He said no fanit had ever been found with the present location of the public offices, and he was satisfied the Government would do what was right in the premises. The matter of location should, in his opinion, be left to the Government, and it looked like a piece of arrogance and absurdity to ask the Government to locate those buildings where we wanted them.

On the motion being put there was considerable disorder and the Chairman was unable to give a decision.

Mr. ASHLEY got up to speak, but such was the commotion that he could not be heard.

Commotion and disorder were now the rule, and the Mayor asked a division of the house. On the vote being called, some held up both hands, and others made demonstrations of a character that were not in keeping with the proceedings. Confusion was the result, and the result of a high order of prevailed, and the result was that nothing of a definite character was determined upon. The meeting, in the opinion of the Mayor, was about equally divided.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

EMIGRATION TO DAKOTA.—In the House of Commons on the 23rd, says the Mail: Ottawa correspondent, Mr. Robertson, of Hamilton, roused a discussion on the subject of the alleged emigration from Canada into Dakota. AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.—Mr. J. C. Rykert, M.P., has been elected President of the Agricultural and Arts Association, and Mr. J. B. Ayleworth Vice President. Prof. Bell was elected Chairman of the Printing Committee and Mr. C. Graham Chairman of the Committee on Dairy Products.

NEW GRIST MILL.—The old rough-cast stone house, just north of the Harbor Master's office, has been stripped of its outer covering and nothing remains but the frame, which has been sold to Mr. Sprung, of Ameliasburg, for the frame for a barn. On the site vacated Mr. Lee, of Newcastle, will erect a stone grist mill, a large quantity of the material for which has been delivered.

A GREAT Calf.—Messrs. Green & Curtis, butchers, showed in their Front Street shop this morning a magnificent calf, one of the finest ever killed in Belleville. This animal, which was bred and fed by Mr. Denyes, lot 7, 24 concession of Sidney, was eight months old and weighed 670 lbs. It was skillfully dressed and neatly decorated with flowers.

THE BRIDE.—Mrs. Scott Siddons will return to Canada in October next with a dramatic company of her own selection. The plays to be produced are "The Queen and Cardinal," "Ordeal by Touch," "King Rene's Daughter," and "Valerie." Those who have listened with pleasure to this gifted lady's readings will long to see her in a play, and supported by a good company. She says she is a born actress, and prefers the stage to the reader's desk, but that when travelling with a company, her husband always insisted on assuming the role, and in managing affairs he knew nothing about. The company required looking after, and all of its members could not be depended upon. It was to rid herself of these cares that she assumed the desk of the reader. She found it very difficult to leave the green room with a grievous heart and distressed mind to appear fresh and smiling before an audience. Her physician predicted serious consequences if she did not abandon the stage while her husband rendered it so unpleasant to her.

THE UTEA.—There were only three traps in the collections last night. No arrests were made.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—An adjourned meeting of the Board will be held to-night.

THE FERRY.—After a good deal of exertion, the large cargo of ice which yesterday morning impeded the progress of the ferry steamer was got rid of and the boat resumed her trip. During the night ice about one inch thick formed on the bay, and the steamer had some difficulty in making her way through it. She is now, however, making regular trips.

BOAT BUILDING.—Messrs. Tisdale have nearly completed for a gentleman in town a catamaran with hulls 20 feet long and 9 ft. 5 in. apart. They have turned out thirteen new skiffs during the winter. Mr. W. H. Carter has completed two light single skiff boats, and will furnish three or four more of the same class, besides turning out six new skiffs. The boating trade is certainly looking up in Belleville.

Manufacture of Butter from Whey.

By HENRY A. MOTT, JR., Ph. D., ETC.

The utilizing of the waste products in all branches of manufacture is becoming every day more important.

Butter from the whey, which is a waste product in the manufacture of cheese, is growing more and more in favor. This industry is now conducted at those dairies where "whole milk cheese" is manufactured.

The butter produced does not possess as much for texture as butter made directly from cream, nor are its keeping qualities so good, but still it is difficult to distinguish, and commands a fair market value.

Mr. G. Markham, of West Torin, N. Y., took out a patent, December 1, 1866, for "Improvement in Making Butter from Cheese Whey." The following is a description of his process, as set forth in his specifications:

1. After the usual method of cheese making, the curd having been separated from the whey, when the whey is put into a kettle or vat, then add one gallon of salt and one pound of common dicalcium phosphate, then heat it to a temperature of from 200° to 212°; when the cream rises, and is taken off with a skimmer, which is put in a cool place and kept until the next day, and then churned in the ordinary manner at a temperature of 56° to 68° and it will produce a superior quality of butter (which, when salted and worked over in the usual manner, is fit for table use), and in like proportion to the quantity of milk used in the making of the cheese.

2. The acid is made by taking any quantity of common whey at the commencement of the cheese making season, boiling it five or ten minutes; it is kept one week, becomes quite sour, and is ready for use as acid.

3. Take one gallon of common whey, add one gallon of first made acid, boil three to five minutes; when a second curd (so called) will rise; it is to be taken off; what remains in the kettle is the acid, and is ready for use as mentioned in the first specification, which process for making the acid is to be repeated every second day, or every day if necessary.

James Sugget, of Courtlandville, N. Y., took out a patent December 18, 1866, for "Improvement in Manufacture of Butter from Whey." The nature of his invention consists: First, in providing suitable vats, having a cooling chamber so arranged that the whey can be properly cooled and kept at a proper temperature until the cream rises. Second, in the use of a vat or cooler made of tin, or made of wood and lined with tin, to contain the whey while the cream is rising. This is in the use of certain ingredients to destroy the effects of the rennet, and annatto found in whey, restoring the color, and making the butter white.

Mr. Sugget uses a wooden vat in the ordinary shape and of suitable dimensions, and from one to two feet in depth. At the bottom of the vat is placed two or more cross-pieces about six inches in height, and perforated with holes to allow water to pass freely through. Water is admitted into the vat at one end by means of a pipe, and is allowed to escape at the other end of the vat through a stop-cock into a water trough.

A vat or cooler is then constructed of tin, or of wood lined with tin, shaped after the wooden vat mentioned above, but of smaller dimensions, so that when the tin cooler is placed within the wooden vat there will be a space of several inches on all sides, and at the bottom, and forming a cooling chamber. The tin cooler rests upon the cross-pieces, and is provided with handles so as to be conveniently removed. As soon as the cream has risen, the whey is drawn off, and the whey latter is placed in the tin cooler, and cold water (or ice and cold water) is immediately introduced into the vat, and the tin cooler is filled nearly to the top.

The water should be allowed to pass off rapidly at first, so as to keep the tin cooler surrounded with cold water. By this means the whey is rapidly cooled, which is of the first importance, and thus brought to the right temperature.

Mr. Sugget says: "In the process of making cheese a brine produced from rennet is used to assist in making the curd. This brine is composed of rennet, water, and salt, and also put into the milk for the purpose of coloring the cheese. These ingredients give the whey an unwholesome taste, and the cheese curd is rendered unwholesome.

The Public Buildings.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir, The situation of the proposed public buildings is a matter in respect to which I am confident the Government, and especially the Hon. M. Bowell, would not only be willing but anxious to consult the interests of the citizens of Belleville where these interests are in conflict with the Department. The writer is satisfied that instead of being out of place or regarded as being a piece of uncalculated interference, as has been represented, a public expression of opinion would be felt as a relief by the Government and would be welcomed as such, provided, of course, that the opinion be given before the site was purchased and not afterwards, as once the speakers the other night suggested. Indeed the Government had asked for this opinion, for the Ministers of Customs and of Public Works, were here a few weeks ago and sent for one representative, the Mayor, to consult with him in the matter. So that the opposition to making our wishes known, on the proposed ground that it would be intruding ourselves, may be simply taken for what it is worth. The fact is, opposition of this kind speaks volumes against the site the parties urging it.

An impression is abroad that influence is being used to induce the Government to select a certain site on the south side of Bridge Street, and it may be remarked as a singular phenomenon that the people who assume this position and retiring air are those in the neighborhood of Bridge Street. Let a move be made towards endeavoring to have three buildings erected near the Upper Bridge, and we are afraid that this modest and retiring disposition would be turned to something else.

Further than that the offices have been on Bridge Street for some time, there is no shadow of reason why these buildings should be located for the future, which would not equally apply to having them at the upper bridge, indeed the latter ought to have the preference as being near the centre of the city, both as to extension and population. One reason which has been advanced, namely that the market is to the south of Bridge Street, might be strongly urged and justly too, to the contrary because if both the market and the public buildings are advantages to a locality, then in fairness distribute these advantages.

Leaving out of view the convenience of the citizens and others, it is evident that on the part of the Government what it requires is simply a position suitable for transacting the business of the departments here of Customs, Post Office, Excise, &c., and if this object of the Government can be attained and at the same time meet the wishes and convenience of the citizens as a whole, it is doubt will be done.

The Hon. M. Bowell, although he does not represent the city in Parliament, still takes a deep interest in its welfare, and I am confident that he at all events would be very happy to have it in his power to bring about what is fair for the whole people.

There is little doubt of what the candid opinion of the citizens of Belleville is on this subject, and that is that the buildings ought to occupy as nearly as possible a central position for the business people and for the general population of the city, at the same time having consideration for the future as to the probable growth of the city in that direction.

"CITIZEN."

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir, I trust you will not object to give publicity to the following in reference to emigration from Canada to New Zealand. I am sure you will agree with me that it is far better to direct the emigration of our young people to such a prosperous, healthy and fertile colony as New Zealand, where they have the same flag, the same laws to protect them and the same Queen to rule over them, than that they should leave Canada in such large numbers for the United States, where they are absorbed and become lost for ever as British subjects, viz:

Three to five hundred young men, newly married young people, agriculturists, etc., who are desirous of settling in one of the most fertile, most prosperous and most promising of all the colonies of Great Britain, are requested to communicate immediately with Dr. Potts, P. O. Drawer 325, Belleville, Ontario. None need apply under 18 years or over 35 years of age.

Further particulars in due time.

I am, Sir, Yours truly,

GEO. J. POTTS.

It is believed Mahomed will yet attack the British line of communication, avoiding Shipur on account of its strength.

PAYING UP.—A Toronto paper says: "The Consolidated Assurance has not only paid in full its ordinary dividends, but also several larger ones who have agreed to wait 12 months, have been notified to apply for their money before the third of this month has expired. ## EUROPEAN.

LONDON, March 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette commenting on the appointment of Commissioners in the Chinese American treaty, says the American threat to become England's most formidable competitors in the far east. There is a desire in the Atlantic countries to use America as a foil against Europe. A very slight gain in the shape of a reciprocity treaty would give American traders a decided advantage at Chinese ports.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Herald's cable special gives details of Farnell's ill treatment at Ennisbury yesterday at a meeting to select candidates for Victoria's Parliamentary representation. Farnell and two of the three candidates, Byrne and Barry, travelled from Dublin by train. At several railway stations large crowds assembled to cheer them. At Farnham they were met by O'Clery, who is the third candidate. The reception was lukewarm. The meeting was a ranged for two o'clock. The point of advantage was already occupied by O'Clery and six priests. Farnell's party had decided that the Rev. Mr. Kenny should preside, but the meeting selected Rev. Mr. O'Gorman, who was assisted by a man named Murphy. A scuffle ensued and the priest flung his assailant off the platform. At this moment Farnell and Barry were seen advancing at the head of a large crowd with a hand and green banners. The assembly numbered not less than 15,000 men. A mild disorder Farnell struggled to the front of the stand. Green and Barry filled the hall. Batten eggs were thrown at Farnell and one struck him on the head. The Chairman said "We will hear Farnell but we will not allow him to be our dictator. A rush was made for Farnell but he clung to the railing, and the priests protected him. The crowd caught him by the legs, endeavoring to drag him down. In the struggle his hat was battered and his trousers split up to the knees. At this stage the police armed with rifles advanced. There was a lull. Farnell tried to speak but was interrupted by cries of "You went to America to beg for Ireland but not for Wexford." "Go mend your trousers." Amid much confusion Farnell retired. Byrne, Farnell's candidate, was rejected.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Herald says Edison discovered his new process for extracting gold from worked out refuse or tailings while examining tailings to find platinum. His agents have secured the control of immense quantities of tailings in California, and extensive works will be erected by a new company at Orville, California, where Edison claims $500,000 can be extracted from tailings in that vicinity alone.

CAST ON THE WORLD.

The Border Marriage.
A STORY OF THE GREAT GLASGOW BANK ROBBERY.

She flew to make the preparations, and the doctor returning to the coach, Charles was carefully lifted out and tenderly carried up the gravel walk.

"How now, doctor, what's this?" he asked, with a look of anxious concern.

"A serious business, Mr. Woodford—a very serious business. The young gentleman has got a dreadful blow—how dreadful I can't say till I make examination."

He was carried in and laid on the soft cushioned bed, and all how ghastly pale he looked, and all how ghastly pale he looked, and all how ghastly pale he looked.

"No, he is not dead," said the doctor, who understood her fear.

"It was brought in a morning, and while the doctor was removing the bandage, the guard entered with the young man, reading the name on it."

"This is he," remarked "Mr. Charles Ravensworth, passenger to Singleton Hall."

"How my life, he must be the son of the man who was killed?" cried the doctor.

"Oh, yes," exclaimed the girl, "Mrs. Ravensworth told me yesterday that they expected him soon. What a terrible blow to her!"

"Be quiet, guard," called the doctor, after that restraining functionary: "when you get to the inn tell the waiter to go up to my laboratory, and bid my boy come along here immediately with lint and plaster and my bag."

"All right, doctor," replied the guard, and in half a minute the coach was heard rolling away towards the village.

The bandage was now removed, and the frightful gash beneath made visible. At sight of it the fair girl trembled and turned pale.

"Mary, darling, said her father, 'you had better go to the parlor. This may be too much for you.'"

"Oh! no, no, father. I may be of some use here."

"Of course she will," observed the doctor. "I know Miss Woodford's father, a little woman, and won't be upset at the sight of blood more than my good girl."

"It is the selfish and useless people only who faint away when they see blood of this kind—the kind and tender-hearted seldom fail to stand it. Ah! we are getting now to see the extent of the mischief. The wound is not so deep as I feared, but I am glad to see my girl so brave."

THE WINDOR HOTEL.

It is one of the finest hotels on the continent. It is a credit to the liberality of the Montreal friends and an ornament to our city. The corridors are wide and beautiful. The parlors and dining rooms, with their costly embellishments, and the reception rooms, are "chefs d'œuvre." The "menus" are unequalled. It is a luxurious home for Montreal families who prefer to relieve themselves from the care of a household, and a caravansary which cannot be surpassed for visitors. Still, here is also where, man is subject to the laws of health. Sickens will follow with the most delicate and unassuming care.

An unusually courteous staff as bodily upon the occupant of this house as upon the dweller in a cottage. Men are apt to over-indulge where food is very tempting, and ignore the results. Happily the remedy for such indiscretions may be had in every drug store in the Dominion, in the shape of Dr. HERRICK'S SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THE English money order system is being brought within the reach of those who need it most, the persons who have small sums of money to transmit by mail.

Under the remodeled system orders are sold for two shillings and sixpence or five shillings and sixpence, and the money is paid to the order of the person to whom the money is to be sent.

The result of the battle will be pretty well known by the middle of next week.

British and Foreign Notes.

The Prince of Wales will probably go to Sydney in the Osborne.

Mr. Emile de Girardin, in spite of his seventy-six years, is one of the earliest and most regular morning riders in the Bois de Boulogne.

The Parisian says that as the tendency now is the ladies will soon wear dresses so tight-fitting that they will have to soak them in warm water in order to take them off.

Much unfavorable comment has been occasioned at Constantinople by the indiscretion of an English official, who went to Hobart Pacha's fancy ball attired as a Bash-Bazook.

The death of her mother, at the age of ninety-one, leaves Miss Florence Nightingale an orphan.

"Santa Filomena" herself is a great invalid, yet there are few busier women in the world. She seldom leaves her room, but she is never idle.

There is some talk of constructing on the Place du Carrousel, at Paris, a vast monument illustrating the history of past republican governments.

The four angles of the future monument will be occupied by colossal equestrian statues of four illustrious generals of the First Republic: Kleber, Hoche, Marceau and a fourth who has not yet been named.

The figures reports the death at Nimes of a man named M. Jules Hancou, formerly the servant of a canon.

According to the Parisian this lady would never ask of her nephew, who would do nothing to help her, as she had abandoned the legitimate opinions of all his family.

This aunt passed the latter part of her life in praying to God to enlighten and convert her distinguished nephew.

In his recently published volume of diplomatic revelations, M. Jules Hancou relates how an astute old diplomatist said to him last summer: "As long as Bismarck carries on the Catholicism of the Catholics you may be sure that he had no foreign war in his head; but the moment that serious signs appear of his coming to an understanding with the Vatican, governments should look out for squalls."

Mile. Nevada, the young American who is to take the opera-going public by storm this season, and before whom, her enthusiastic admirers, the radiance of Patti and Albani, is at present staying in Nice, where she is diligently practicing.

She will make her debut in "Sonnambula" at Her Majesty's Opera, London, early in May. The young lady, who is not yet twenty, is reported to be a capital actress and to receive £3,000 for her services.

About a year ago Paris was talking about Mlle. Rose Gonzales, a Spanish actress of the name of Gonzales, who lived in splendid style for a season, but long enough, however, to come to grief and to disappear.

The other day a young lady, elegant and beautiful, and speaking French correctly, although she said that she was an Italian, paid a visit to the Comtesse de Fontenay of the Quai d'Orsay.

She said her name was Mme. Ginevra de Piana, and that her chamber-maid had robbed her of some diamonds. Proceeding to make an investigation at the house the Comtesse noticed on the walls a Murillo of great value, which was known to have been stolen by Mme. de Gonzales.

The Comtesse, however, is in the habit of seeing Mme. de Piana in Mme. de Gonzales, and that she is neither Italian or Spanish. She was born at Batignolles. The lady is now in prison.

The month of March has witnessed many dissolutions of Parliament. In the reign of Henry VIII. there were two March dissolutions, namely, on March 4, 1513, and March 29, 1544; in the reign of Edward VI. one, on March 21, 1553; in the reign of Queen Elizabeth I. one, on March 22, 1587, and March 29, 1589; in the reign of James I. one, on March 27, 1623; in the reign of Charles I. one, on March 10, 1629; in the reign of Charles II. one, on March 21, 1660; in the reign of George II. one, on March 12, 1703, and March 25, 1744.

The present dissolution is the second that has taken place during the reign of the present Sovereign, the first being that of March 21, 1879.

The writs for the coming elections in Great Britain and Ireland were to have gone out from the Speaker's office on the 24th to the clerks and other returning officers. The elections for boroughs must take place within four days after the receipt of the writ, and in counties within eight days.

The result of the battle will be pretty well known by the middle of next week.

BELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, MARCH 30.

Benefits of the N. P.

A few further facts as to the working of the N. P. are here offered for the consideration of all and sundry, and especially of the opponents of the measure.

The contracts for the erection of a new cotton factory in Hamilton have been let.

A company for the purpose of refining salt and other substances, has been incorporated in Montreal, under the name of "The North American Chemical Co.," with a capital of $30,000 and Messrs. Geo. Rice, R. A. Starke, R. G. Starke, Alex. Murray, Dr. Craik, Walter Roach, and Robert Hope are its members.

A request for capital is reported subscribed for a new agricultural implement factory, shortly to be established in Quebec.

"This is curious fact," says the Scientific American, as reported in an exchange, "that in some lines of manufacture the Canadians are beating the Yankees in economy of production. For example, the Wabash Manufacturing Company, of Brantford, Ontario, have for some time past been delivering steam engines in Bremen at less prices than the American people can put them down there." And yet Messrs. Mackenzie and Cartwright say that Canadian mechanics cannot compete in skill with those of the United States.

The Hamilton Spectator says: A step in advance is about to be taken at the Hamilton Glass Works. In a few weeks the furnace for the manufacture of white (flint) glass will be set in operation, and employment will be furnished for 100 hands, in addition to the number now constantly at work in the factory. The importance of this addition to the works will be understood when it is mentioned that it will cause the disbursement of about $10,000 per week for coal, wages and the other items of necessary expenditure, and the beneficial effects of this outlay will be felt in business circles throughout the city. Thus the ball keeps rolling.

Large as is the number of new buildings erected in Toronto last year, says the Monetary Times, the population has increased faster than the house room. There are 116 less houses vacant now than there were a year ago. Strange that the Globe should have permitted this, but then the Opposition organ hasn't much influence in Toronto anyhow. Those papers which have been denouncing the N. P. because of the assertion that there are more vacant houses (including, no doubt the new ones not yet tenanted and old ones abandoned in favor of new ones) in Ottawa and Hamilton this year than last year, ought, in common fairness, to make a note of the above fact. We refer specially to the Hamilton Times and Ottawa Free Press.

Work at the Grand Trunk shops at Point St. Charles, Montreal, is so active that the men are accommodated by want of room, and surrounding sheds are made to avail temporarily as workshops.

The Strathroy Dispatch speaks encouragingly of the progress of manufacturing industry in that thriving town under the N. P. The knitting factory has between 70 and 80 hands working over time, and the tanning factory, with a full staff of hands, is doing the same. The tannery, which stood idle during the continuance of the fly-on-the-wheel policy, has also started again. "The National Policy," says the Dispatch, "it will not work as its enemies predicted it would, but it is fulfilling what its friends claimed for it."

As to the sewing machine business the Guelph Herald says: "The National Policy is showing its good effects in the sewing machine manufacturing of Mr. Charles Raymond, of Guelph. His men are now working on full time for the first time in many, many long months. On stock being taken a few weeks since it was found that hardly any machines were on hand, while several large orders had accumulated. During the previous five years when stock was taken, it was found that the firm had plenty of machines on hand, but there was a lack of orders. A pleasant change, truly, and it may fairly be set down to the credit of a protective tariff."

In his masterly speech on the budget debate, Mr. Thomas White presented some valuable information as to the benefits conferred on the manufacturers of St. Catharines by protection. This information is authentic, as it is derived from the manufacturers themselves. We summarize it as follows:—

The saw works employed one fourth more men during the last six months than at any time during the past five years.

Collison, Burch & Co. have doubled their manufacturing capacity and employ a large number of hands.

The cotton-balling factory would not be in existence but for the N. P.

O'Neill's foundry employs twenty more hands than previously.

The wheel works are on a better footing than under the fly on the wheel policy.

The Wolland Vale works employ fifty per cent. more men than they did during the last year of the Mackenzie Government.

The Lybster cotton mills now employ 210 hands against 183 in 1878; fortnightly wages $1,710 against $1,360 under the old order of things.

The management of the Occidental Railway are about to convert a number of their present cars into Pullman and palace sleeping cars, says the Montreal Witness. For this purpose additions will have to be made to the workshops at Hochelaga, and a large number of extra mechanics and general hands will be required. It is the intention of the management to bring out as a commencement two Pullman, two palace sleeping and two first-class sleeping cars. The new industry will be not without its benefit to Hochelaga, and, indeed, Montreal itself.

The Ottawa Herald says:—"Mr. W. Clendenning, of Montreal, according to our Montreal despatch, has received an order from the Hudson Bay Company for the iron work for their immense warehouses to be erected in Winnipeg. The order is said to be one of the largest ever received in Montreal. Mr. Clendenning is a good Grit, and no doubt feels some compunctions of conscience in undertaking this contract, a direct result of the National Policy, for under the previous tariff, the large order would have undoubtedly gone to the United States."

The new button factory of Messrs. Nordhausen & Co., Berlin, is now in full running order and giving employment to quite a number of hands.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company are building 100 coal cars at Brantford.

Among the manufacturing establishments in Ridgeway is a casket factory. The caskets are made of iron and glass. The manufacturers intend to build a large factory, and as this is the only place where caskets are made in the Dominion the firm will employ from fifty to seventy-five men. Fruit of the N. P.

These statements may not be welcome to the irreconcilables, who are proclaiming the ruin of the country, but they are nevertheless facts beyond dispute.

MR. DAVIS' APPOINTMENT.—In reference to the appointment of Mr. A. Davis as Mechanical Supt. of the Q. M. O. & O. Railway, of which we made mention a day or two ago, the Montreal Gazette says:—"We are glad to learn that Mr. A. Davis has been formally appointed on the recommendation of Mr. Senecal, to the position of Mechanical Superintendent of the Q. M. O. & O. Railway. The appointment is an excellent one. Mr. Davis has had a very long experience. He was in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway Company for over twenty years, during a portion of which time he was Assistant Mechanical Superintendent. In 1873 he was selected by the Dominion Government to report upon the Machinery Department of the International Exhibition at Vienna; and he was also deputed by the Board of Arts and Sciences to make a similar report in connection with the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia. He is a man of marked ability, and being thoroughly familiar with both the English and French languages is specially well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed."

VENUE AGENT.—Vendor having made a hit on the weather, makes another venture as follows:—April bids fair to be a fine and advanced month. In fact we may expect May weather—but in May we will have April weather. In the lower St. Lawrence and Maritime Provinces wet weather, with frequent snow falls, will continue through April and a portion of May, from which drought will set in. From the middle of June up to the end of the year our (Montreal) section will in all probability experience the finest weather we have had in a considerable number of years. But from May 1st to 10th June the weather will not be so inspiring.

EMIGRATION TO THE NORTH WEST.—An Ottawa report says:—"Mr. E. Hopple Hall, of London, England, who is a passenger in the S. S. 'Caspian' to Halifax on the 3rd of December last, and who for the last three months has been closely prosecuting his enquiries into the resources and productions of Manitoba, Keewatin and the North-West Territory with an immediate view to British colonization and investment, has concluded his investigation in several public departments, and left last night for Toronto."

BAILIFF.—The Ottawa Gazette of the 27th inst. contains the appointment of Washburn Ashley, as bailiff of the eleventh Division Court of the County of Hastings.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY.—Amongst those who passed in all the primary subjects, at the recent examinations, McGill University, Montreal, we notice the name of Mr. D. W. Houston, of Belleville.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

This strengthens the Russian hope of American aid.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Herald's St. Petersburg special reports a brief interview with Prince Orloff, in which he says he is likely soon to receive his position as Russian Ambassador at Paris, and that the irritation over the Hartman affair will probably be colored by a diplomatic note to be addressed to the French Government, in compliance with the Russian public feeling.

Spring opening.

BARBER, BRIGNALL & Co.

The annual spring opening of the above popular firm was on this morning and was very largely attended by all the fashionable of the city.

The display made reflected credit on the managers of the several departments, who seemed to vie with one another in the finish, character and manner of their displays—which to say the least of them were shown off to great satisfaction.

Of the window dressing it might be said that it was beautiful and elaborate. The north window especially calls for special notice, inasmuch as its dressing and general appearance betokens the hand of long experience and care. The interior of the store exhibited the usual display of goods of diverse character and styles, whilst the millinery department was to all appearance—fragrantly diffusive of flowery effervescence. On the whole the exhibit was an excellent one and reflects great credit on the employees and members of the firm of Barber, Brignall & Co.—The styles differ considerably from those of last year, and to our taste seemed most and becoming. The stock which this firm offer to select from is one of the largest in any retail house in Ontario, and has been chosen with special reference to the wants of the local trade. It comprises not only the latest Paris and London styles in millinery, dresses, fashions, mantles, jackets, costumes, dress fabrics, and the lighter qualities of goods, but a very large line of carpets (including some beautiful Wiltons) and staples of all descriptions, whilst the prices quoted are very low.

GRAIN.—One car of peas and one car of rye were received at Campbell's elevator this morning, also one car of rye and one car of peas at Downey & Preston's.

UNRECORDED.—The report that Walter Martin, who was injured by a runaway at Stirling on the 24th inst., had died from the effects of his injuries, is, we are happy to say, untrue. Mr. Martin was not even seriously hurt, and is now in his usual health.

OTHELLO.—This great tragedy, which seems to be a favorite with our local theatricians, will be produced by the Belleville Historic Association on Friday evening next. A very good cast has been made, rehearsals have been numerous, and as every attention to scenery and costumes is promised, an enjoyable evening may be expected. The amateurs have gone to a great deal of trouble and expense in their preparations, and ought to be recouped by an overflowing house. Let local talent be given a fair share of encouragement by all means.

MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.—At the recent examinations in connection with the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons at Kingston, amongst the passmen in the primary examination without medal, were J. S. McGurn, Londale, and J. F. O'Shea, Norwood. Amongst those who passed with an oral were Messrs. R. Conhugh, Hastings; A. W. Herrington, Mountain View; and D. A. Johnson, Concession. Messrs. D. B. Rutherford, Belleville, and W. T. McCarthy, Norwood, received special prizes for best dissections in practical anatomy. Mr. McGurn is to become the demonstrator in anatomy, and Mr. O'Shea will be demonstrator of anatomy for ladies, if one be required.

A FAREWELL PARTY.—A very friendly and sociable party, composed of the guests of the Dominion House, assembled last evening to do honor to one of its number, who is about to remove to Kingston—his former home. Mr. Walter Stephenson, who is about to leave the city, was for some years employed in the store of Mr. John Sutherland and in his station there made for himself a host of friends and became very popular with the patrons of the establishment. On the occasion of his leaving Belleville, his friends determined to tender him a supper, which was done last evening. Mine host Mackie, of the popular hotelier above named, provided for the wants of the inner man in the style, character and manner which has made his hotel so justly popular, and it is almost needless to add that the dainty articles served up had ample justice done to them. The chair was ably filled by Mr. James Edgar, who acceptably occupied the important office assigned him. After the usual routine of toasts, speeches of the usual congratulatory character followed, and songs and recitations interspersed with them made the evening's enjoyment a very pleasant and enjoyable one. The feast of reason, the flow of soul, the utterance of sentiment, which prevailed must certainly have been pleasing to the guest of the evening. He had endeavored himself to his friends and was agreeable, kind and affable to his associates, who will greatly miss him as the time rolls on. The evening's enjoyment came to a close at an hour "ayont the twal," and all who were present regretted its occasion, though pleased with its result.

ONTARIO CRICKET UNION.—From the Mail of the 29th inst. we learn that a convention of cricketers was held on Saturday afternoon in the Rosin House, Toronto, for the purpose of forming an Association with the object of promoting the interests of cricket throughout the Province. The clubs represented were the Toronto, the Tacton, and the Asylum, all of which, Hamilton, Whitby, Port Hope, Ottawa, Medford, Peterboro', Exbridge, Owen Sound, Collingwood, Kingston, Oakville, Brantford, Paris, Cobourg, Barrie, and St. Catharines. The attendance was large and fairly representative as could possibly have been expected at an inaugural meeting. Mr. Totten was called to the chair, and Mr. Lowrey appointed acting-secretary. It having been resolved to form an association to be called, "The Ontario Cricket Association," it was decided that the representation of the Committee should be divided as follows:—Toronto, Hamilton, and Ottawa, two members each; Port Hope, Cobourg, Whitby, Chatham, St. Catharines, one each; Galt and Paris, one; Peterboro' and Lindsay, one; for the north, two. It was resolved to request his Excellency the Governor-General to become President of the Association, and the Col. Galt, Mr. W. Armstrong, of Elgin; Charles Istead, and Brandon Bedome, of Marmora, left here to-day for Manitoba. Mr. John Nunn and wife, of Belmont, left on the same train for Dakota.

THE WELLAND CANAL.—The Kingston Whig says:—"A letter was received in the city this morning from an official at the Welland Canal, to the effect that vessels drawing 7 ft. 6 in. would be allowed to pass through the Canal by way of the feeder to Port Maitland on and after the 17th of April."

THE KNIFE.—Two men named Brown and Weese, who quarrelled last night and fought for a time with knives and weapons, finally drew their pocket knives and used them upon each other. Brown received a cut on the head, and Weese got two stabs in the thigh, but neither was seriously injured. Both ought to be punished.

A PLEASANT RE-UNION.—Last evening a happy party gathered at the residence of A. G. Northrup, Esq. The guests were the young ladies of his Bible Class; the occasion the presentation to him by them of a magnificent album, accompanied by an address expressing their appreciation of his untiring efforts, friendly sympathy and kind solicitude for each member of the class. After the reading of the address by Miss Ida Jack, the presentation by Miss Maggie Cook and a few words in reply by Mr. Northrup, who was taken completely by surprise, a pleasant evening was spent, and teacher and scholars separated mutually encouraged and strengthened, and resolved to make the weekly meetings of the class if possible more instructive and successful than ever.

MARINE NOTES.

The ice still holds in the Bay and it is not likely that any of the schooners will leave here before Monday next. Mr. Rathbun's tug tried to force a passage yesterday, but without success. The first coast charter of this year, between Chicago and Kingston, was made on Saturday. The schooner Mancanilla carries a load of corn at 10c per bushel. MORE VANDALISM.—On Saturday night last Robert Donnelly, of Biddulph, borrowed William Donnelly's horse and buggy to drive the Kennedy, homebound, where old Mrs. Kennedy, William's mother-in-law, was lying dead. He left the buggy some distance off while he made his visit, but on returning maliciously broke the pieces by some enemy.

COMMERCIAL NOTES.

AMERICAN COAL PRICES.—The coal managers have lately been holding informal conferences, and it is stated as a result that a last undertaking was reached to advance the price of coal on an average of 25c and 30c a ton by the first of April. It is claimed that the curtailment of production at the mines has been successful in equalizing the demand, and that a fair market rate can therefore be more readily obtained. An official of one of the leading companies says there are indications of a further advance in prices about the middle of April, and should the demand keep up it would not be surprising if coal should then rise 50c a ton higher than at present. It is understood that the partial suspension of work at the mines will not be continued beyond April 5th.—N. Y. Bulletin.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY MARCH 31.

The License Inspectorship.

It took some days after the dismissal of Mr. Ross from the position of License Inspector, for the Government organ to invent the lame excuse that the dismissal was justifiable on the ground that the appointment was an annual one. But that delay could easily be accounted for on the ground that a joint letter, signed by some of the leading Reformers, had been sent to Toronto, remonstrating with the Government on the subject, and no doubt it would not have been prudent for the organ of the party to attempt to justify the dismissal until it was certain that Mr. Ross would not be reinstated; yet it now coolly in the face of this memorial, informs the public in its issue of the 30th March, that "there is no disagreement with regard to the License Inspectorship."

On December 30th last, a circular was issued to the License Inspectors in Ontario from the Provincial Secretary's office, stating that their appointments were hereafter not to be annual, as formerly, but during pleasure; and as these appointments date from the commencement of the year, this circular, which directed License Inspectors to continue in the discharge of their duties, was in fact a reappointment of every one of those officials to whom it was addressed.

Every appointment under a Government not made annually is during pleasure, which has always been understood to mean, until it has been proved that the official has done some act deserving of dismissal; and in this case no charge has even been brought, much less proven, against Mr. Ross. But Ontario is now governed by a "Reform" Government, which required that these old British rules of fair play should be "reformed" and right royalty should have set to work to carry out the un-British doctrine "To the victors belong the spoils." The editorial in question has given us the reason for Mr. Ross' dismissal when it says: "Mr. Ross has been found to recognize the necessity of looking after the interests of his friends," (which does not claim that Mr. Ross was dismissed on account of his inability to fill the position, nor because his appointment was a yearly one, but simply because Mr. Ross has been found to look after friends of the party.) "Tommy, make room for your uncle," seems to be the battle cry of those pure Grits, whose accession to power has resulted in the formation of a corkscrew form of a Government that has squandered the surplus left them by their predecessors, and now that the surplus can no longer be drawn on, any Ontario officials suspected of having Tory proclivities, no matter how well they may have filled their positions, are to be summarily dismissed to make room for the needy office seekers of the Grit party.

THE CIRCASSIAN'S IMMIGRANTS.—The immigrants by the steamer Circassian which arrived at Halifax on the 28th inst. are nearly all bound for Manitoba and the North-West. They left by special train on the 29th and number about 180. They were well provided with baggage.

THE RIFLE.—The first rifle match of the Prince Edward Rifle Association took place at Pictou on the 29th inst. The match was between the military and civilians of the Association, the military winning by 14 points.

THE IRISH ELECTIONS.—The London Truth is told that if Mr. Parnell has managed to obtain about £10,000 for electoral purposes his adherents will carry about 40 seats in Ireland at the general election. To do this money alone is required, in order to pay the expenses of the candidate. (Some Big Push about that.)

The Election in England.

Since the dissolution of the British Parliament the election contest has been waged with bitter warfare.

Perhaps never in the history of England has an election contest been carried on with greater exertion on both sides than the present.

The Conservative party, under the leadership of Lord Beaconsfield, seem confident of success and a return to power, but the Opposition, emboldened by the withdrawal of Lord Derby from his party, are appealing to the sympathy of the Home Rule party, and hope through the assistance of that party, to gain the balance of power.

A very significant sign of the times, however, is the fact that Baroness Burdett Goutta, herself naturally an adherent of the Gladstone party, in answer to a request for a contribution toward the election of Mr. Gladstone's son to Parliament, replied declining. She asserts under the present circumstances of the world the country needs a strong Government, and since the dissolution of Parliament by Mr. Gladstone the Liberals have been too disorganized to offer such Government.

Gray, a statesman of great influence has also withdrawn his support from the Liberals and hopes for the success of the Conservatives. The fact that ten of the present record of 65 members have been returned by acclamation shows how determinedly the electoral battle is being contested.

Marmora.

Mr. R. Campion it is said has lately fallen heir to a large fortune, some $15,000 from a lady relative in England.

Lieut. S. Johns, for many years a resident of Marmora, has for some time been residing in Morris, Manitoba with his wife, and sends home glowing accounts of that fertile Province. J. and G. Irwin and J. Boddome also have for about a year been living in the North-West, and the following extracts from their private letters show how desirable a country it is for emigrants to look to:

FROM THE MESSRS. IRWIN:—"We are at present residing at Portage La Prairie, and have found not only this neighborhood but all other portions of this Province to be a glorious country. We have secured a most desirable home on the Souris river near those important coal beds you may have seen an account of in the papers. They have been worked this winter. The soil is generally of a limestone nature, with a clay sub-soil and from one to three feet deep of muck, more or less. A large quantity of oak and elm grow on the banks of the river, which rise from the height of from 150 to 200 feet from the bed of the stream. Three men from Thorlow are coming here to locate farms for 100 families. Wild ducks, prairie chickens, deer, and wild cats are here in abundance. If a sportsman sat for a few minutes at a creek in the river he could soon shoot a large quantity of ducks. As many as eight have been killed at two shots."

FROM MR. J. BODDOME:—"Settlements in the vicinity of the Little Saskatchewan are going ahead very rapidly. Ontario never saw such developments on so gigantic a scale. You can form some idea of the progress of this country when I tell you that where I travelled in 1877 for days together without seeing a single house, there are now hundreds of families settled, towns, villages, blocks, saw and grist mills. The Assiniboine, since its confluence with the Little Saskatchewan, is a most desirable place to live. Four rivers, with numerous and beautiful lakes, filled with white fish and pickerel, are all to be found there."

Mr. Jas. Wiggins, formerly a resident of Marmora, has for some months been living in Michigan, but having heard since of the extraordinary fertility of the land on the banks of the Souris river, has resolved upon leaving the domain of "Uncle Sam" and in future to reside in Manitoba. It is a lamentable fact that so many loyal subjects of Her Majesty should prefer the land where the "star spangled banner waves" for a home and not the wonderful prairies of the N. W. All true Liberal Conservatives ought surely to prefer taking up their abode in some part of the British Empire, where the "red cross flag" is a welcome sight to the hearts of all those who love and honor our good Queen Victoria.

AMOR PATRIE.

(Our Marmora correspondent having been accused by a writer in the Stirling Argus of making incorrect statements in his budget of news items, occupies considerable space in denying them. We have no room for his letter, but give him the benefit of this general denial. And while upon this subject we urge upon our correspondents to condense their letters, and state facts in the briefest possible manner. We are anxious for news from all parts of the County, and are thankful to those who furnish it. But in order to give publicity to their contributions they must be boiled down.)

A HALF CENTURY MASON.—A Montreal paper says: "The English Masons have decided to give a fine banquet next month to their Provincial Grand Master, Judge Badgley, on the anniversary of his 50th year as a Mason, he being perhaps the oldest one in Montreal. The banquet is to be one of the largest ever held in the city, and the Windsor Hotel is spoken of as the place where the dinner will be given, the tickets to be sold at $10 each. Delegates are expected from various points in the United States and Canada."

When King James the first wrote his "counterblast to tobacco" the royal pedant knew nothing of the "Myrtle Navy." If he had, his diatribe against the weed would have been a curious production, he would have filled his royal pipe with it, and would have taken a royal smoke, he would then have been prepared to admit that with regard to the insidious effects of tobacco, it all depended on what tobacco you smoked.

AN INVENTION INDEED.—The Montreal Argus says: Mr. G. Brown, of Lancaster writes that he has "invented a new way to sail a vessel or ship on any cruise or to any point of the compass with a head wind." It makes no difference which way the wind blows, and there is no need of masts, sails, ropes or spars. He says the model can be seen at Lancaster after the patent is got out.

THE LATE BURGLARY AT STIRLING

RESTORATION OF PART OF THE STOLEN MONEY

On Monday morning, the 29th inst., Mr. Jesse Barlow, of Stirling, found a letter on his door all addressed to Mr. Thomas McKee, the party who had been robbed the week before. On opening the letter it was found to contain $187 in cash, and being $33 less than the sum which was taken. This last amount no doubt was kept by the thief to compensate himself for his trouble and the annoyance he had been put to. The letter reads as follows:—"It is with a view of clearing the accused from suspicion your money is returned. He knows nothing about the money; you left the safe unlocked; it was found out; no matter how, and to clear him it is returned. It will be placed where you will be sure to get it.—News Argus please copy."

FIFTEEN SOLVERS.—Many solutions of the famous puzzle 13-14-15 have been published, but the following is the simplest we have yet seen:—"The puzzle can be done in fourteen moves from the famous 13, 15, 14 position as follows: Turn the box (or diagram, if on paper) so that the left hand side is at the bottom. Then move 4 to the right, 1 up, 13 to the left, 12 down, 2 to the right, 5 up, 13 to the left, 8 down, 2 to the right, 5 up, 13 to the left, 11 down, 6 to the right, 9 up and 15 to the left. Very simple."

For the Intelligencer.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:—In your issue of last week I noticed a letter from some kind friend, giving commendations to a few of the dexterous young people, who took part in the "Grand Exhibition" given at the Town Hall, Sydney, and I must say that I am in full agreement with you. I am sure that the statements; but, not without commendations, others, whose names have not been mentioned. Firstly, Miss Petty needs great praise for the eloquent recitation that she gave, and also for the active part that she took in three dialogues. Miss Hatty Bleeker, who took part in three dialogues, elicited in two of them, did admirably well. In one play she represented an old drunkard's ragged daughter in search of her father, who was represented by Mason Lockwood; the father had shot a man while intoxicated, and was put in prison. The poor little creature sang her pitiful songs to the policeman and jailer until she met her hard hearted, and they let him go home with her amid showers of bouquets and peals of laughter. Miss J. E. Lockwood should receive her share of congratulations for accomplishing her part so well; she represented an old maid about fifty, who painted, primed, powdered her cheeks and wore false hair, &c., &c. Many times she brought the house to a laughter that would almost confuse the actors. To Miss Bertha Fielding, Mr. Franklin White, Mr. William and Mr. Ketcheson and Wesley Bradley, and others, are due many thanks for their efforts. It is not necessary to mention any more about the music as nothing more could be said; and I hope the young folks have another such opportunity to give us a treat.

Kind sir, I hope that you will insert above in your next issue, and oblige an old friend to all such entertainments.
